Reflection

September 11, 2022
Twenty-fourth Sunday
in Ordinary Time

In the seventies there was a popular Folk Mass song by Joe Wise, "Take All the Lost Home." It is like our Gospel reading today. For truly, we've all had moments when we have lost our way and needed others to get us back on track. Perhaps this means reconnecting with someone we once knew and making amends, or seeing a therapist to make things right. Maybe it means finally seeking help to stick with the diet and exercise plan, or joining a 12-step program to deal with an addiction. Could it be time to meet with a financial expert to manage credit card debt, or go to confession or meet with a spiritual director to find your way home spiritually? It is hard to ask for help or admit we are lost. We dread the reactions of others, thinking they will be angry, hurt, or defensive. We feel shame. Sometimes people hold grudges for years because neither they nor another will break down and make the first move. We feel fear. This sets us up for the classic story of the prodigal father, where we see two possible outcomes.

WELCOME HOME

The son returns home and, expecting the worst, confesses his sinfulness. His brother has an angry, self-righteous response, but the Father is full of joy and mercy. Such is the case in all the Gospel parables today. We hear God say, "You are the one who is important." There is another poignant song by Brian Flynn entitled "The Prodigal Father" that presents the perspective of the parent waiting and worrying about their lost child, watching the road and praying for the child's return. And if for some reason your own family will not accept you, you will find that there are many intentional families, friends, and parishes waiting with open arms to welcome you. Or perhaps you can offer the same welcome to another returning soul.

PORQUE YA ENCONTRÉ
LA OVEJA QUE SE ME HABÍA PERDIDO".

LUCAS 15:6

11 de septiembre de 2022
Vigésimo Cuarto Domingo
del Tiempo Ordinario

En los años 70 había una canción popular de misa folclórica de Joe Wise, "Take All the Lost Home". Es como nuestra lectura del Evangelio de hoy. En verdad, todos hemos tenido momentos en los que hemos perdido el rumbo y hemos necesitado que otros nos devuelvan al camino. Tal vez esto signifique volver a conectar con alguien que una vez conocimos y hacer las paces, o acudir a un terapeuta para arreglar las cosas. Tal vez signifique buscar finalmente ayuda para seguir el plan de dieta y ejercicio, o unirse a un programa de 12 pasos para tratar una adicción. ¿Podría ser el momento de reunirse con un experto en finanzas para gestionar las deudas de las tarjetas de crédito, o de confesarse o reunirse con un director espiritual para encontrar el camino a casa espiritualmente? Es difícil pedir ayuda o admitir que estamos perdidos. Tememos las reacciones de los demás, pensando que se enfadarán, se sentirán heridos o estarán a la defensiva. Podemos sentir vergüenza. A veces, las personas guardan rencor durante años porque ni ellas ni los demás se atreven a dar el primer paso. Podemos sentir miedo. Esto nos lleva a la clásica historia del padre pródigo, en la que vemos dos posibles resultados.

BIENVENIDO A CASA

El hijo vuelve a casa y, esperando lo peor, confiesa su pecado. Su hermano responde con ira y justicia propia, pero el Padre está lleno de alegría y misericordia. Así ocurre en todas las parábolas del Evangelio de hoy. Oímos a Dios decir: "Tú eres el importante". Hay otra canción conmovedora de Brian Flynn titulada "The Prodigal Father" que presenta la perspectiva del padre que espera y se preocupa por su hijo perdido, vigilando el camino y rezando por el regreso del hijo. Y si por alguna razón tu propia familia no te acepta, descubrirás que hay muchas familias intencionales, amigos y parroquias que esperan con los brazos abiertos para acogerte. O quizás puedas ofrecer la misma bienvenida a otra alma que regresa.
