Dear Parishioners,

The Communion Antiphon for today's Mass says, "Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all within me, His holy name." (Ps.102:1) We have many things to be thankful for in our lives, and each of these is a blessing from the Lord. As we navigate this journey of life, it is important for us to have an attitude of gratitude and to remain positive about what God has in store for us. We do that by joyfully accepting His will for our lives and even the difficulties that often come with it. We know that life is not always easy, but we press on to what lies ahead. Heaven is our goal, and it lies in front of us, not behind us. Therefore, as Jesus urges us in today's Gospel, we put the hand to the plow and don't look back. Of course, we learn from our struggles and failures, and that prepares us for what may come in the future. But we live in the now, and our mission is to build the Kingdom of God. Let us do that by loving God and our neighbor, for everything is accomplished by this one statement.

With prayers for your holiness and God's abundant blessings,
Fr. Philip Clement, Pastor

thank you!
