- ✠ Keep your parish priests and deacons in prayer throughout the week.
- ✠ Encourage your children or grandchildren to consider a vocation as a priest or religious brother or sister.
- ✠ Pray a rosary for more young men and women in our archdiocese to respond to God's call.

In this month, too, the benefits of God's mercy come down to us from her throne in greater abundance." -Pope Paul VI

STEWARDSHIP

WE ARE ALL STEWARDS OF OUR TIME, TALENTS, & TREASURE

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT FOR THE FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

When my wireless provider introduced HD Voice, the voice I heard on my phone was unbelievably clear, and it felt at times like both the caller and I were in the same room. The best aspect of this feature is that it didn't cost the customer any additional fees, and it didn't require any changes to the phone. I could say it was free, but I suspect I was already paying for it in my monthly bill. At least it felt free. The clearer the voice calling you, the easier it is to recognize who it is on the other end of the line. In John's Gospel, Jesus speaks of the gatekeeper who opens the gate and calls for his sheep. They respond because they know his voice. Others try to lure the sheep when the gatekeeper is not there, but the sheep find their voices unclear or unfamiliar. Jesus is our gatekeeper. But unlike receiving something for free from a wireless company, to be able to hear his voice we need to pay attention and practice listening. By developing a stewardship way of life that is mindful and prayerful, we become attuned to his voice and are able to discern when the call is from our Lord and when it is from an imposter. It is great to talk about all the things we can do and all the gifts we can share, but if we are not listening for his call to hear where our offerings are needed, we can end up like a lost sheep searching for the gatekeeper.

OUR CATHOLIC FAITH

The Saints Surrounding Us!

At the western front of our Church stands our beautiful patron, Saint Joan of Arc, and an altar in her honor. Joan was born in rural Champagne, France. At the age of 13, she began to receive messages from God, angels, and saints in the form of voices and visions. She was told by God to lead the French Army, and at age 18 she led the French to victory over the English at Orléans. Captured a year later, Joan was burned at the stake as a heretic by the English and their French collaborators. She was canonized more than 500 years later on May 16, 1920. St. Joan of Arc is the patron saint of soldiers, so this area in our church is dedicated to prayer intentions for our military. The statue itself was in the old church and was refurbished when our church was renovated.

On the left of St. Joan of Arc is St. Rosalie. During the Plague of 1624 she reportedly appeared to a hunter and revealed the location of her remains in a cave and told him to bring her bones down to Palermo. These relics became part of a procession throughout the quarantined city, and the plague then ceased. The statue was in the old St. Joan of Arc church, but we are unsure of its donor.

On the right of St. Joan of Arc is St. Frances Cabrini, patron saint of immigrants. This statue also dates back to the old church and is the only statue that has a placard with its donors (Geraci & Salvant, 1850). It is possible that the donors and other original church members received instruction from her or her religious group. In her lifetime, she founded 67 orphanages, schools, and hospitals.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

With whom do we converse and listen to the most? Believe it or not, the answer is ourselves. Our inner conversations reveal the truth about ourselves. We really cannot hide from ourselves, although we often pretend we can. By conversing with ourselves, we find solutions to our challenges, problem solve, work through our relationships, formulate opinions, run through dress rehearsals of possible conversations, and wrestle with and determine our system of priorities and values. What other voices affect the conversations we have with ourselves? Often, voices from our past continue to haunt us. These voices cause us to mistrust our judgment, harbor anger, and cling to our fears of rejection, failure, being wrong, and the like. It is in these inner conversations that we face what holds us captive — our limitations, weaknesses, sinfulness, and stubborn ego preoccupations. We often go about our lives putting out one fire or another, keeping ourselves preoccupied and busy, and trying to stay on top of things. Intentionally or unintentionally, we find ourselves wandering off. We turn around and can no longer see our home. We listened to the wrong voices! In the midst of everything competing for our attention, the voice of the One who could truly call us home got muffled. Our habits of prayer are the only thing that can properly root us and keep us grounded. Contemplating God's presence and developing an inner awareness of love incarnate, we will then find ourselves praying unceasingly as the days and nights and the ebbs and flows of our lives unfold. Suddenly, the inner conversations we are constantly having are no longer just with ourselves or with voices that can lead us astray but with the Trinity, who desperately wants us to stay home.
