Thank you to everyone who participated in or volunteered to help at our Blue Mass. A special thanks to our Knights of Columbus for providing the meal and to our parishioners for providing desserts. It is a blessing to celebrate with those who give their lives in service to our community.

STEWARDSHIP

WE ARE ALL STEWARDS OF OUR TIME, TALENTS, & TREASURE

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT FOR THE SOLEMNITY
OF JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

Did you know that you can become royalty, for the right price? It's true — for the low, low cost of $50, you, too, can purchase a 12-square-inch souvenir plot of Scottish land and call yourself "Laird So-and-so." Now, this lordship or ladyship doesn't come with the ability to boss anyone around, but maybe your friends will be impressed enough to bend the knee. My point is, we've all got our own little fiefdoms — folks or communities for which we have a feeling of responsibility. Maybe we're not their "king," but most of us have those we think of as "our people." Now, in this world, people lay themselves down for their kings. History is riddled with the bodies of men, young and old — and plenty of women and children, too — who were casualties of wars waged by men in power, men who never had to shed their own blood. But in the next world, the King dies for his people. This is leadership par excellence — the leadership of someone whose love is greater than his ambition. We are all leaders of a sort. On the parish level, you have the obvious roles — serving on pastoral council, spearheading the capital campaign, leading the Altar Guild. But you also have the quiet ones who lead from the wings — the janitor who can always be relied upon to do his job, or the volunteer librarian who puts in extra hours on the weekends. There is a saying — find your people. I say, find your people, and find a way to lay yourself down for them, in imitation of the greatest King that ever was.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

THE BOOK OF THE NAMES OF THE DEAD

The Book of the Names of the Dead will be placed near the altar for the month of November. You will be invited to inscribe the names of your deceased loved ones who were not previously inscribed in the book. They will be included in our prayers during the month of November.

HURRICANE RECOVERY

If you are in need of help or if you know of someone who is in need of assistance, please fill out the form on our church website under "Supplies and Assistance."

We also have a case manager from Catholic Charities in the Family Life Center on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 1—4 PM. Please call 504-615-7200 to schedule an appointment.

Our church continues to extend its thanks to the many people, church groups, and communities that have helped us by donating meals, supplies, and manpower to aid in our recovery. We also thank the many people who have made online donations to our church, school, and community.

KIDS' CORNER

Prayer: Lord, help me recognize your voice and do your will.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

God is wonderfully and surprisingly creative! He turns the tables on our understanding of what it means to be a king by sending us a king who embraces poverty, insults, suffering, ridicule rejection, and even death. This is our king. Jesus is not the king of prestige or grandeur but the king who brings light to darkness, hope to despair, sinners to mercy, and new life out of death. God dances on, around, in and through all of the silliness and ugliness of the world bringing all of creation to the eternal dance of new life and hope. Whether we accept it now or hope that we one day do, Christ is king of the universe. We will be restless until we are all one day together united in Christ our King.
