STEWARDSHIP

WE ARE ALL STEWARDS OF OUR TIME, TALENTS, & TREASURE

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT FOR THE NATIVITY OF THE LORD

I think the real challenge of evangelization in the modern age is the reality that pretty much everyone has already heard of Jesus Christ — or, at least, they think they have. To our 21st-century eyes, the angel who shared news of the birth of Jesus with the shepherds had an easy job. All he had to do was announce it. Our baptism compels us to do the same — to announce the coming of Christ over and over again, always and everywhere. But our audience is not a group of illiterate shepherds in ancient Judea. Our audience is a world that has heard so much about Jesus they often claim weariness of his name. So how do we do it? If we walk into a crowd of strangers and tell them we want to talk about Jesus, their reaction will probably be either “I already know about Jesus, thanks,” or “I’ve heard of him, and based on the behavior of those who claim to follow him, I’m really not interested in hearing more.” In the end, our very lives are how we “announce his salvation” in the present day. We announce it in our actions to strangers. We announce it in our treatment of people who have wronged us. We announce it in our interactions with those who disagree with us. How long had the coming of the Messiah been foretold to the Israelites? So long that, no doubt, many of them despaired of his coming altogether. So, God had to give them a sign: “You will find an infant wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger.” Now we are the sign. The world has heard of Christ by now. But have they all seen him? It’s our job to show them.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

AT REST IN CHRIST

† SADIE GIROIR †

We ask for your prayers for the repose of her soul. Pray also that her family and friends are strengthened by their faith and consoled by their hope in eternal life.

KIDS' CORNER

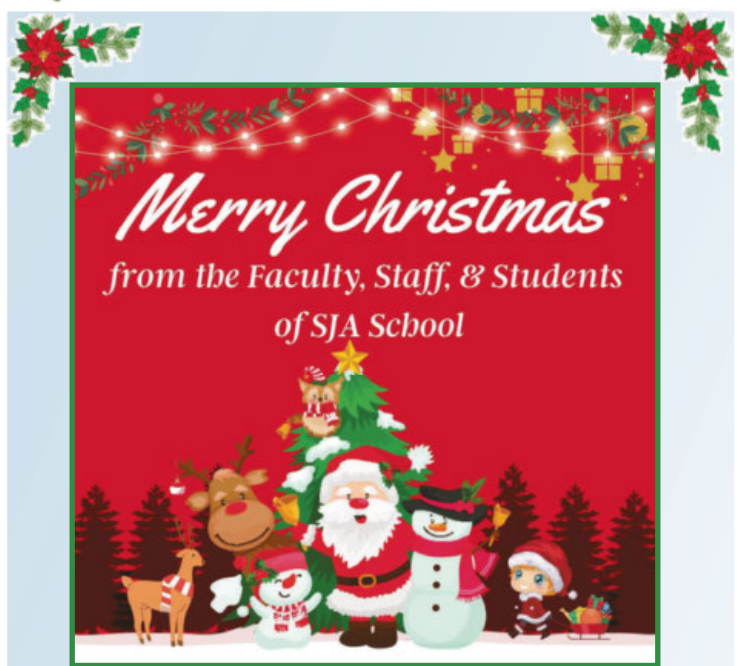

Prayer: Dear God, thank you for sending Jesus into the world. I want to praise you like the angels did.

Something to Draw: Draw a picture of the angels sharing the news with some very surprised shepherds.

Mission for the Week: You can praise God like the angels did. Go Christmas caroling together as a family. Sing all of your favorite songs together.

Puzzle: Fit this Gospel message into the empty squares.

Peace on earth to everyone who pleases God.

Christmas Traditions

Our students continued the tradition of the Jesse Tree. The Jesse Tree is a way of preparing for Christmas by journeying through the stories on Jesus's family tree.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

The true meaning of Christmas is not found in the twinkling lights, the beautifully adorned trees, or the exchanged gifts. It is revealed when we find God along the way of our lives, especially when we feel displaced, desperate, and alone. Fleeing from their home, Joseph and Mary cautiously made their way through the uncertain, complex, and dark paths to a longed-for place of safety and welcome. Not sure where to lay their heads, they created makeshift preparations for the birth of their child, the Son of God, who always was, is, and will be, without beginning or end. He is the one constant in life who sees us through difficult and scary times. Jesus is the light that enlightens everyone and comes into the world to show us the truth. It is joyful good news that calms our fears and allows us to go forth into the nighttime of our lives, courageously. This is the meaning of Christmas. We are never lost or alone. God is with us loving us and leading us where we need to be.
