Everyday Stewardship:

When I was a teenager, after a homecoming dance one year I took my date for a walk on the Potomac in downtown Alexandria. The moon was out and I was struck by how the light shimmered on the water. I remember focusing to try to see all the details of the dancing rays on the ripples. My date didn't see it and didn't really get it. She thought it was no big deal. It was a great date and a fun night, but for that one moment we saw the world from two completely different vantage points.

Two of the greatest gifts from God to each of us are life and time. Without taking care, we can easily miss the grandeur and beauty of both. Being mindful as an everyday steward means pausing to see the detail in all that exists around us. God's creation is not something created with a broad brush, but instead with the intricacies of a master painter.

God created all things with purpose and a complexity only the divine could fully comprehend. Every single hair on our head has been counted! But when we take a moment to reflect on the beauty that is created by that complexity, we allow ourselves to revel in God's generosity. There is so much to give thanks for in this life. But you and I can't give thanks to God unless we really stop to take notice. When was the last time you stared in awe at the moon?

Diocese of Virac, Catanduanes, Philippines Mission Appeal 2023 Mission Cooperation

The weekend of July 2nd, we will welcome Fr. Roberto Sanchez to St. Joan of Arc as part of our 2023 Mission Appeal. Fr. Sanchez is a diocesan priest from the Diocese of Virac in Catanduanes, Philippines. His island diocese consists of 32 parishes and 9 mission churches in the mountains and jungles. Agricultural is their primary way of living. Of the population, 87% are living below the poverty level. Being open to the Pacific coast, their homes and crops are subject to 15-20 hurricanes a year. Through the Mission Appeal, they will have funds to provide assistance to poor mothers, malnourished children, support the formation of the growing number of poor seminarians, medical help for their sick and elderly priests, and evangelization and formation of the youth in the diocese.

Your generous donation will go a long way to help the Fr. Sanchez minister to the poor, sick, and religious of this diocese.

KIDS' CORNER

Sharing the Gospel: You are God's special child. He knows all about you. He knows what you like to eat. He knows your favorite color. He knows how many teeth you have. He even knows how many hairs are on your head. No one in this world loves you as much as God loves you. Be sure to tell your friends how much God loves them, too.

Prayer: God, I thank you for loving me so much.

Something to Draw: Draw a picture of yourself telling a friend about God's love.

Mission for the Week: After you brush your hair, count the hairs in the brush. God knows how many hairs you lost!

GOSPEL REFLECTION

12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

When I was in middle school, there were times I didn’t want my fellow students to see my parents drop me off or pick me up in the school parking lot. I was embarrassed of my parents. Why? I have no idea. Maybe it was our station wagon. Or I didn’t want to look like a little kid. But in retrospect that was a silly thing to do. I was a kid. And I had two parents who loved me and had built a wonderful family. I was afraid of the other kids’ judgment. How silly! I should have been afraid of forgetting or downplaying my family, which is where my identity had its deep roots.

This is a way to understand Jesus’ words to his disciples this Sunday, when he says, “Don’t be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather, be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna.”

Fear, in this sense, refers to where we find our deepest identity and our highest love. That’s why Jesus says next that when we acknowledge him before others, he will acknowledge us before the Father. It doesn’t mean we’re brash or boastful. But rather we unhesitatingly and humbly embrace our identity as followers of Jesus and children of God the Father. After all, if we love who we are and where we come from, who cares what the other kids think about us?
