Prayer for our Nation

God our Father, giver of life, we entrust the United States of America to your loving care. You are the rock on which this nation was founded. You alone are the true source of our cherished rights to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. Reclaim this land for your glory and dwell among your people. Send your Spirit to touch the hearts of our nation's leaders. Open their minds to the great worth of human life and the responsibilities that accompany human freedom. Remind your people that true happiness is rooted in seeing and doing your will. Through the intercession of Mary Immaculate, patroness of our land, grant us the courage to reject the "culture of death." Lead us into a new millennium of life. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen

Divine Mercy Cenacle

God Is Love:

I was recently at a Catholic conference and had a conversation with someone living in the thick of Hollywood culture. He was Catholic and spoke of how hard it was to live out his faith amid tremendous temptation and negativity toward religion. He spoke about how going to daily Mass helped to keep him centered and stay strong in his faith. He was a great witness to living out one's faith in the face of disbelief.

One thing that he told me stood out above all the rest. He spoke of his engagement to his fiancé and how important it was to him that God was a major part of their relationship and their lives as individuals as well. He told me he said something to her like, "If you don't love Jesus more than you love me, this is never going to work." What an amazing and truly moving witness!

Songs and books are written about the intense longing one human being can have for another. We can describe another as meaning everything to us. We speak of wanting to offer our complete selves to our beloved. However, true love is about more than wanting to be with that person. It is about wanting that person to know a love even greater than theirs: the love of God. No love can last without God. My Hollywood friend knew this to be the case. He showed his true love for his wife-to-be by sharing more than himself — he shared the very One who created love.

DID YOU KNOW...

Why the Vestments?

One of the things about Catholicism that intrigues people is the use of the robes or vestments by ordained ministers during the liturgy. The reason they wear the vestments is that they serve as symbols to call to mind the sacred duty the ministers have in the liturgy. Today, I'll just focus on the vestments the priest wears. One point of continuity between the Old and New Testaments is that the priest is set apart from everyone else for a specific purpose, to offer the sacrifice to God on behalf of the people and to lead them in worship. In the Old Testament, the Levites were the priestly tribe and were set apart from society for this purpose. When they offered the sacrifices in the temple, they were to adorn themselves with specific vestments to recall the importance of the duty they were performing. As Christianity began to grow, the Church developed the use of vestments to serve as symbols to help recall the importance of the sacrifice of Holy Mass. In doing this, the Church both followed the precedent of the Old Testament and built upon what was useful in the ancient Greek and Roman cultures which used vestments for officials who performed civil and religious duties on behalf of society. Different styles have been used over the centuries depending on the various cultures, most of which are still in use today. In Africa, for example, vestments are often decorated with a special pattern reserved for royalty, yet another way to symbolize the reality the vestments point to. When vesting, most priests start with an amice, which is a white, towel-like garment that they put over their shoulders and tie around their waste. It serves to protect the other vestments from being soiled by sweat, but also aids the priest in recalling the spiritual warfare he enters when celebrating the sacraments. When he puts it on, he prays for protection against diabolical attacks, likening the amice to a sort of helmet like a soldier would wear in combat. The next vestment is the alb which is the long white garment. The alb calls to mind the priest's baptism and his call to purity. When putting it on, he prays for the grace to act upon the grace of his baptism which enables him to embrace purity. Next is the cincture, which is a rope that serves as belt. When he puts it on, he, calling to mind again the spiritual combat, prays for the grace to gird himself in purity as he goes into battle. Next is the stole, which is a scarf-like garment that goes around his shoulders. The stole symbolizes the priest's rank and the duty specific to it. Since the priest's duty is to offer the sacrifice of Mass, he prays for the grace to worthily enter into Christ's eternal sacrifice which isn't bound by space and time but transcends it as it unites us to Christ. Finally, the outer garment is called the chasuble which symbolizes charity. It serves as a reminder that all the virtues are cloaked in charity and so to is the duty of the priest. When donning it, he prays for the gift of charity and the grace to exercise all his duties in it. Vestments, like all the other symbols the Church uses are there, not because God needs them, but because we do. People have always used symbols to point to greater realities which we often can't adequately express in words. There is NO greater reality than what happens at Mass and words can never adequately describe it. And so, in our preparation for Mass, we should maybe consider meditating on the various vestments worn by the celebrant and pray with him that all he asks for while donning them be given to him so that he can do his duty well at the altar.

A Prayer to Avert Storms and Hurricanes

Father, all the elements of nature obey your command. Calm the storms and hurricanes that threaten us and turn our fear of your power into praise of your goodness.

Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with you forever and ever.
Amen

KIDS' CORNER

Sharing the Gospel: God wants you to love your family and friends. But God wants you to love him even more. Be kind to your mom and listen to her. Help your dad with chores and have fun with him. But also remember to help people who are not in your family. God gets excited when you share his love with others.

Prayer: God, show me ways to help all people who love you.

Something to Draw: Draw yourself bringing homemade cookies to a neighbor who loves Jesus.

Mission for the Week: Together as a family send a care package to a missionary family.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Independence Day

Today throughout the United States, we celebrate our freedom. Our rights are protected and opportunities abound. We recognize that freedom has a cost, one we celebrate and honor on days such as this. It's good to honor those who fight for our country, who may well pay the ultimate price for the liberties we're afforded. As faithful Catholics, we recognize that there is more to freedom than simply being at liberty to make our lives what we want them to be. St. John Paul II reminds us: "Freedom is not just doing what we can, it is doing what we ought." We become freer within ourselves and within our relationships when we choose what is right and good. When we choose sin, we become trapped in egoism - less free, not more. This Independence Day, let's continue to pursue virtue and good character and encourage others to do this same.
