There are times in our lives that we get the chance to see a glimpse of heaven. It may be through the love of another, loved one or stranger. Sometimes it may even be an event that seems unexplainable, perhaps even supernatural. These occurrences may be the answer to prayer or they may surprise us by coming out of nowhere. But no matter their nature or origin, they give us hope and strength to carry on through life.

When we journey on a pathway of stewardship, we are bound to experience moments of grace where we see even the smallest seeds we planted grow into something amazing. At these moments, we are reminded that God is real and that our stewardship is not in vain. The giving of our gifts and talents is not just a response to God's calling. The giving is one way that God breaks through into the lives of others. As we use what God has given us for his glory, he uses us as instruments of grace to be truly present to others.

The greatest example of this occurs at the Mass. Through the hands of an ordained priest taking the gifts of bread and wine, God is really present with us. When we then take Christ into our bodies, we accept the offer to take him into the world to others. The world cannot see Jesus in us with human eyes, but through our works of stewardship, they can see Jesus in us. One could say they even have a chance to see a glimpse of heaven.

End of Mass/Farewell

After communion has been distributed, the Blessed Sacrament is reposed in the tabernacle and the clergy wash or purify the vessels which were used during Mass. After a brief silence, the celebrant prays the closing prayer and imparts the blessing, bidding us to go in peace, usually with a charge to proclaim the gospel by the way we live our lives. The celebrant and servers then recess out of church the same way they processed in, usually while a closing hymn is sung. Once Mass is over, we are sent forth, having been strengthened by our participation in the mass, our primary encounter with God.

As my time here at SJA ends and I prepare to be "sent forth" back to Notre Dame, I thank God for my encounter with Him while at this parish. Both in my interactions with all of you as well as in those quiet moments at night in Fr. David's chapel in the rectory, I know Almighty God spoke to my heart and helped me grow in my understanding of the faith and of Him, primarily by helping me grow in my capacity to love.

While here this summer, I've had the pleasure of being with you during parish liturgies, ministry meetings, and social functions. I've been blessed to be a part of several family celebrations, such as baptisms, weddings, marriage convalidations, special anniversaries, marriage preparation meetings, and other functions. Then, I had fun at the parish Vacation Bible School and going zip lining with the altar servers. I've also enjoyed the bible studies we were able to do. I would say, though, that one of the most profound experiences I've had this summer is visiting the home bound. To me, those families are the true indication of what the fruit of this parish looks like. They are suffering in significant ways, but they are clinging to what they know stands the test of time: Love for God and love for one another. They are a true inspiration for me. If I may ask one favor of you as I take my leave from you, it is to continue to take care of the sick in this parish, both in the nursing home and in their individual residents. Ministry is always a mutually beneficial endeavor and so I promise you, ministering to them will be a worthwhile experience.

Of course, I would be remiss if I didn't publicly thank the staff here at the parish. The ladies in the parish office, the gentlemen who keep the campus up, the liturgical ministers and sacristans, and so many more who help here truly see their service as part of their vocation. In a special way, I want to thank Mrs. Theresa Fisse, who SPOILED me this summer with her motherly care as she cooked for Fr. David and I and kept the rectory clean and comfortable. Secondly, I want to thank Fr. David for his leadership and his support. He is a pure priest, diligent in his duties and unwavering in his commitment to conform himself to Christ daily. He truly holds his people in the depths of his selfless heart. We would all do well to give thanks to Almighty God for the gift He gave us in His priest. Lastly, I thank all of you for your warm hospitality this summer. I ask forgiveness of anyone whom I may have offended either by my words, actions, or omissions as I am indeed a fallen man. I ask you to keep my brother seminarians and I in prayer and I promise we'll do the same for you. May God continue to bless you abundantly and may we all work to bring about God's kingdom by being faithful in our own vocations.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

What is Christianity finally about? These days if you ask almost anyone who doesn’t know the Bible you’ll probably hear an answer like this: “Being a good person” or “following the golden rule.” No offense to the golden rule, but our faith is simply much stronger than that. This week’s feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord is a luminous example of this. Jesus becomes radiantly and overwhelmingly beautiful. The glory of God literally shines forth from his body and even his clothes. Here we see that Christianity is not mainly a moral system, but a relationship with God in Christ, one that finally makes human beings gloriously beautiful.

Now we can see our good and bad deeds in a new and de-centered way. Our morality isn’t about a heaven or hell scorecard. It’s about lives open (or closed) to transfiguration, lives capable of revealing the glory of God in Christ to the world. Spouses, children, friends, co-workers, priests, consecrated women and men, and so on — we are all called to let the beauty of Jesus make our lives beautiful, little by little. His beauty in us is the center of our faith.
