STEWARDSHIP

Many young people want to make a path for themselves in life without the help and guidance of others. My own young adult son oftentimes refuses assistance because he feels that he must learn to go it alone and have his achievements based solely upon his effort. However, few truly get anywhere of circumstance without the aid of others.

The body of Christ only functions well when we move together and help each other. Unfortunately, too often parts of the body seek to do their own thing and do not integrate with the other parts. We use our gifts in ways that are only focused on our own gains and our own being. But be mindful, our gifts exist in us to be cultivated and shared with God and his people.

In the same manner, with Jesus as the head of this body, he is there for us as well. In Jesus we find our rest and assistance with our burdens. I cannot imagine life without the compassion and aid of our God. If it isn't bad enough that some people fail to lean on their brothers and sisters, some of them fail to ever turn to God.

This is never good stewardship. A stewardship way of life seeks to share and integrate with others, especially Jesus. We have been created for community. If we take seriously our discipleship, a true relationship with Jesus always beckons us into community with other believers. Here we are strongest. Here we are the most fruitful. Here we are Christ's body on earth.

My dear parishioners,

Today in the readings, we hear about the gentleness of Jesus. The prophet in the first reading alludes and prophesies his entry into the city of Jerusalem many centuries later. In the Gospel, Jesus himself tells us He is meek and gentle of heart. We have just recently as a nation had our bishops consecrate our country to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. In the current state of the world, perhaps that is one of the greatest graces we should ask the Lord for our country as we have just celebrated this weekend 250 years of our birth as a nation. May the Lord grant us that grace for all the good things we have done, may He forgive any shortcomings we have had throughout those years, and may He call us back again to defend the true faith that was given to all humanity through the Incarnation of the Son of God who calls us all to conversion and to His truth.

For adults: Take some time this weekend to read some part of our history as a country.

For parents with children: Share with your children something new you learned from your reading about our history.

Reflections about my Invitations to our Parishioners and to our Families with Children

There are some different levels of love that we must know and understand. By that it is meant that there is a hierarchy when it comes to how we are called to share our love in this world. First and foremost, we owe our love and submission to God. He should be above any other love that we can share. God is the ultimate source and supreme object of all love. The second most important love should be to ourselves because we were created in the image and likeness of God. This is not selfish love, but the recognition of our dignity as human beings. The third most important love is the love of family, friends, and our community in the world which includes the love of our country. This hierarchy was shared by St. Thomas Aquinas, the greatest and most important theologian of the Church, in his Question 26 of his Summa Theologiae on his Treatise on Charity. As we celebrate this Fourth of July, let us renew our understanding of our love for our country and our community, and ask the Lord for the blessings we need at this special time of our national history. May God bless the United States of America!

Rev. José I. Lavastida, J.D., S.T.D.

This 4th of July, call on our Spiritual Mother

As we celebrate our nation's birth on July 4, it's a good time to ask Our Lady, Immaculately Conceived, Patroness of the United States of America, to intercede for us, all of us, from sea to shining sea.

She is our mother, after all — mother for all of us: those on the left or the right, Democrat or Republican, whatever our ethnicity, race, or even creed.

Our Lady is the New Eve, Mother of the New Adam, and the Refuge of Sinners; she has been given the whole human race by God.

As we celebrate our nation's birth on July 4, it's a good time to ask Our Lady, Immaculately Conceived, to intercede for us, all of us, from sea to shining sea. She is our mother, after all — mother for all of us: those on the left or the right, Democrat or Republican, whatever our ethnicity, race, or even creed. Our Lady is the New Eve, Mother of the New Adam, and the Refuge of Sinners; she has been given the whole human race by God.

So let us imitate God and bring her everyone we think most needs her intercession. Let us take some time as we pray for our nation to bring to mind those we think most heroic, most patriotic, and pray for them. Let's also take some time to bring to mind those we think least patriotic, those people whom we are frightened of or feel threatened by, and let's hand those people to Our Lady, as well. She loves everyone better than we do; she knows what we need better than we do; she is utterly trustworthy, and her intercession is powerful beyond the dreams of everyone here below.

Take all your hopes and dreams, joys and sorrows, worries and fears, and give them to Our Lady. Hand her everything, past, present, and future. She has been there for our country; she is here for our country; she will be there for our country. Light a candle before an image of her and say a prayer.

May God bless America, and may Our Lady, the Immaculate Conception, keep us all safely in her Immaculate Heart! May she intercede for the conversion of America's enemies into America's friends! May her prayers win the conversion of all hearts, the peace that comes from God alone, and true justice and mercy in our wounded nation.

Our Lady, the Immaculate Conception, pray for us!
