Mass—8:00 AM in Covington

Mass—10:00 AM in Attica

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain, and after he had sat down, his disciples came to him.
He began to teach them, saying,

“Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven...”

This retreat begins with Morning Prayer and ends with the Vigil Mass in the historic St. Joseph Chapel.
In between, guests will enjoy four conferences, lunch,
time for personal reflection and daytime prayer.

Your generosity to the Catholic Ministries Appeal encourages vocational discernment and supports seminarian formation, preparing holy priests who walk in love and make their lives a total gift of self to Christ and His Church. Go to dol-in.org/cma to make a pledge, today!

Each Parishioner will be receiving their packet from the diocese which will also have instructions. Our goal for this appeal will be:

St. Francis Xavier $21,000

St. Joseph $8,000.00

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Entrance Antiphon

Save us O Lord our God!
And gather us from the nations,
to give thanks to your holy name,
and make it our glory to praise you.

Communion Antiphon

Let your face shine on your servant. Save me in your merciful love.
O Lord, let me never be put to shame, for I call on you.
or
Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.
Blessed are the meek, for they shall possess the land.

Please Consider joining The Legion of Mary!

The weekly Legion of Mary meetings are a great way to grow in your faith. Legion prayers (including the rosary), the spiritual reading and discussion, and the reports shared by members offer inspiration for other legionaries and confirmation in our commitment to serving God as faithful Catholics. Gathering to learn and pray at Our Lady's feet is a blessing which will spill over with even more blessings as we carry out our work in the world. We currently meet on Tuesday mornings at 9am for about an hour. Call Kay if you are interested in joining us as a guest.

For more information go to: legionofmary.ie or contact Kay DeFreese, President: 765-426-8929
