Reflection on the Gospel

The audience in today's Gospel, the people of Nazareth, thought they knew who Jesus was. He was the carpenter's son. They had watched him grow up. He had often read from the scrolls in the synagogue. And now, he claimed to be the Messiah, God's anointed one, the fulfillment of the scripture passage from Isaiah which we read last week. The people could not see beyond the familiar ordinary man they had known all their lives. As Jesus tells them: No prophet is accepted in his native place. Do we accept him? Or do we take Jesus for granted? There is a danger that Mass becomes "routine", that we go through the motions, mouth the words of the prayers, attend mass on autopilot. Do we realize that Jesus, the Messiah, our Lord and Savior comes among us, is truly present in our scripture, in the Eucharist, in the person of the priest, and reflected on the faces of those in our community of faith?

Remember in Prayer

We pray for our loved ones and for all those who are ill at home, in the hospital, or in the nursing home.
