Processional Hymn
Immaculate Mary

Immaculate Mary, your praises we sing;
You reign now in splendor with Jesus our King.
Ave, Ave, Ave, Maria. Ave, Ave, Maria.

Predestined for Christ by eternal decree,
God willed you both virgin and mother to be.
Ave, Ave, Ave, Maria. Ave, Ave, Maria.

In glory for ever now close to your Son,
All ages will praise you for all God has done.
Ave, Ave, Ave, Maria. Ave, Ave, Maria.

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (And, striking their breast, they say:) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore, I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Readings may be found at #759 in the pew hymnal.

Liturgy of the Word

Second Reading: 1 Cor 15:20-27

Gospel Lk 1:39-56

Profession of Faith (Nicene Creed)

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (all bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer for Vocations

Lord Jesus, thank you for calling us to be your disciples. Help us to love you and follow you with all our heart. May our parish bear fruit in many vocations to the priesthood and religious life; touch the hearts of our young people and help them to respond to your call. Work through us to serve those in need and to share your good news, that we may be a light for Beaufort. Amen.

30 Day Spiritual Exercises!

Father Andrew is currently attending a thirty-day silent retreat, the Spiritual Exercises of Saint Ignatius Loyola, along with three other priests of our diocese.

The Spiritual Exercises are like a spiritual "bootcamp," designed to help people focus entirely on Jesus and grow in their relationship with him. The participants will be completely unplugged, without television, phones, electronic devices, or anything else other than spiritual reading.

In addition to celebrating Mass and praying the Liturgy of the Hours, each day will feature five one-hour periods of prayer, focusing on a different subject of meditation from Scripture and the Spiritual Exercises. The priests will also talk individually with the retreat leader for half an hour each day, reviewing what has been happening in that day's prayer and discussing the next day's focus.

Please pray for Father Andrew, as well as the other priests: Father Gregory Wilson, Father John Zimmerman, and Father Will Frei. Father Andrew will be praying for all of you!

Pictured above: Fr Will Frei, Fr John Zimmerman, Fr Greg Wilson, Fr Andrew Trapp, and retreat director Fr Joseph Carola

Father John Longbucco will be living in the rectory, celebrating our weekend and daily Masses, hearing confessions, and anointing the sick.

If you have an upcoming hospitalization or a serious illness and you would like to be anointed, please call the parish office. Father John will offer anointings after the 8:30am Mass every Wednesday in August and the first Wednesday in September.

Each gathering starts with a meal and time of fellowship. Father Andrew will give a presentation on that week's topic, and then we will end with a short time of Scripture and prayer. There is no cost, and free childcare is available. The gatherings will be held in our social hall in a casual atmosphere.

Please consider letting others know about the Encounter series. Perhaps you could offer to attend with them? All are welcome!

Our Newest Faith Article

By the Eucharist Alone

Eucharistic Miracles

Can a person survive on Holy Communion as their only food?

Jesus understands that it can be difficult to believe that he is truly present in Holy Communion. To help strengthen our faith, Jesus has allowed many Eucharistic miracles to happen throughout history. Some of the most common are those of miraculous nourishment, in which holy men and women have lived for months or even years with the Eucharist as their only food or drink. Of these, the most recent and best-documented is the story of Alexandrina da Costa.

Alexandrina was born in Portugal in 1904.

When she was fourteen years old, she shattered her back trying to escape from an attacker. Over the next six years, she gradually lost her ability to walk. She became completely bedridden at the age of twenty, with every movement causing her great agony. Alexandrina gradually came to accept these sufferings as an opportunity to grow closer to Jesus and pray for those in need of mercy. Though she was in such pain, she continued to fall more deeply in love with Jesus.

At the age of 38, she began to live on the Eucharist alone.

Beginning on Good Friday in 1942, Alexandrina could not keep down any food or drink other than the Eucharist. At first she thought it was an illness, but Jesus revealed to her that he was allowing this as a miraculous sign for others. For the next thirteen years, Alexandrina's only nourishment was a single host (wafer) of Holy Communion, brought to her every morning by her parish priest. Despite this, she was not hungry or thirsty. Other than the damage to her back, her health remained strong and she kept a joyful spirit.

Medical experts could not explain the phenomenon.

As people began to hear about this miracle, some were skeptical. In 1943 at the urging of her family, Alexandrina consented to stay in the nearby hospital for a medical observation. She was under the constant surveillance of skeptical doctors and nurses for forty days. Afterward, they confirmed that she had received no food or drink whatsoever during all that time, yet her vital signs were strong, her weight stable, and her blood tests those of a well-fed person. They could offer no explanation for what they witnessed.

Alexandrina lived for thirteen years on the Eucharist alone.

Until her death in 1955, Alexandrina lived on nothing more than Holy Communion each morning. She once asked Jesus in prayer why he was allowing this to happen, and she heard him respond, "You are living by the Eucharist alone because I want to prove to the world the power of the Eucharist and the power of my life in souls."

Alexandrina's story shows the importance of the Eucharist.

One can see photos of Alexandrina and read more about her online. Jesus worked this miracle in her life to remind the world that he is truly present in the Eucharist, and how deeply he desires to be one with each of us in this beautiful sacrament. If Jesus can choose to give a person physical nourishment in such a miraculous way through the Eucharist, how much more powerful must the Bread of Life be for your spiritual nourishment and growth?
