Our Lady of the Lake Roman Catholic Church

November 14, 2021

Our Lady of the Lake Mission Statement

Bound by a unifying love of Christ and one another, we share the Good News of the Gospel
through prayer, Eucharist, education and service.

312 Lafitte Street
Mandeville, LA 70448

Today's Readings

First Reading — Those who lead the many to justice shall be like the stars forever (Daniel 12:1-3).

Psalms — You are my inheritance, O Lord! (Psalm 16).

Second Reading — Where there is forgiveness, there is no longer offering for sin (Hebrews 10:11-14, 18).

Gospel — Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away (Mark 13:24-32).

but my words will not pass away.*

— Mark 13:31

God's Reign

By pointing to the end times, today's readings speak to the coming reign of God, when God will make all things new. In Christ, this time has already begun. We, by our energized watchfulness, can further God's reign. We can heal broken hearts, free captives, spread the Good News. Even so, the reign of God will not be complete without the second coming of Christ. Our weekly eucharistic gathering is a sign of the fullness of the end times. At Mass we join as an assembly to recall and to claim the story of Jesus as our own. Together we give thanks to God for the many gifts bestowed upon us. We receive nourishment in the simple but profound meal. And our weak and weary selves are invigorated and transformed by the power of Christ, so that we ourselves might become effective signs of God's reign present and to come. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Feast of Faith: Blessing and Dismissal

At the beginning of Mass, the priest made the sign of the cross with us. At the conclusion of Mass, he makes the sign of the cross over us, a sign of blessing. We are then dismissed—not just let out, but sent forth with a mission “to love and serve the Lord.” Just as Jesus blessed His disciples as He ascended to Heaven, so this leave-taking is joined to a blessing, a prayer for God's continuing protection. As we leave the church, we bear the invisible sign of the Master whom we follow. In the words of an ancient letter to Diognetus, “Christians are indistinguishable from other [people] either by nationality, language, or customs. They do not inhabit separate cities of their own, or speak a strange dialect, or follow an outlandish way of life. . . . And yet, there is something extraordinary about their lives” (Liturgy of the Hours, Vol. II, p. 840). We are ordinary people sent forth to live extraordinary lives, lives like Christ's own life—pouring ourselves out for others in prayer, service, and love. —Corinna Laughlin, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Holy Time Warp!

In our second reading from Hebrews, we see that when Jesus allowed Himself to be crucified He was actually being a priest, offering Himself for the sins of the world. After giving His life for us, He takes His place as God's equal. He is now the eternal Priest, so all clergy since the time of Jesus are visible signs of that priesthood.

When we celebrate the Eucharist, Jesus' sacrifice is there. We are present at His death and resurrection, without needing a flux capacitor or a time warp. His sacrifice is an eternal one, redeeming all past and future sins. So if you have come back to church after being absent for years, God has already offered you forgiveness.

The Eucharist also reminds us that Jesus is present in glory, with us always, sharing His priesthood with all the baptized. We can show God's mercy by forgiving each other. Since Jesus lives in us, we offer our lives as sacrifice for sins. Does that mean we are supposed to seek ways to suffer? No, it means the suffering we cannot avoid can become our offering to God, a way to take up our cross as Jesus did, and a way to experience God's power in our weakness.

At the Eucharist, we pray with the priest, "that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God..." All the sacrifices we make, from accepting serious illness, to giving up something for Lent, are ways we take part in the priesthood of Christ.

VIRTUS for Safe Environment

Beginning July 1, 2021, the Archdiocese of New Orleans has implemented the VIRTUS® Programs as its new comprehensive safe environment training platform for adults and children. In summary, the Protecting God's Children® Program will be the official training for employees and volunteers.

The corresponding VIRTUS Online database is an online portal that provides access to your safe environment account. All archdiocesan users will have access to their previous training records within the database. If you had an existing account on CMG, your USERNAME is the same. Please use it rather than creating a new account. When it is time for you to complete a training document, to obtain recertification training or conduct a background check, you will receive automatic email notification from the VIRTUS website to access your account. The system will refer all users to the background check portal as necessary.

All staff and volunteers must log-in to the new system to verify your information is correct and to review and acknowledge the updated policies for the protection of children, youth and vulnerable adults.

Here is the link: <https://www.nolacatholic.org/virtus-training>. If you have questions, please contact Bonnie at 985-626-5671 x107.

Giving Tree: Our Christmas Giving Trees for the Elderly Poor will be going up next weekend. Choose an ornament from the tree, obtain the wish gift, place it in a Christmas bag, and return no later than December 5th.

Spiritual Adoption Week 12: Your baby's vocal cords begin to form. Your infant will use these immediately following the moment of birth. Your baby's liver begins to function. The liver is responsible for cleansing the blood, storing nutrients and providing needed chemicals, this is an important event! Also your baby's pancreas begins to produce insulin. He has all the parts necessary to experience pain, including nerves, spinal cord and thalamus. Your baby size is now at a whopping length of 2.13 inches and weight of 0.49 ounce.

National Adoption Awareness Month: Every Child Deserves a Safe, Loving Home! The Adoption Services of Catholic Charities Archdiocese of New Orleans is a non-profit adoption agency licensed by the LA Dept of Children & Family Services that offers domestic and international adoption services. The agency serves those of all religious and ethnic backgrounds within the greater New Orleans area and is staffed by certified open-adoption practitioners, experienced in maternity and adoption services. Adoption Services offers comprehensive adoption planning and maternity services including...

- Confidential counseling
- Financial and medical assistance
- Low cost maternity care through St Vincent Clinic
- Open adoption services for birth and adoptive families
- Legal counsel through agency attorney
- Post adoption support services
