PARISH MISSION STATEMENT —

Diverse, yet one, we are called to be the Body of Christ, to praise and worship our Heavenly Father, to proclaim God's Word, to love and serve others, especially the poor and neglected. ## FATHER PAUL'S POST

Catholic Schools Week 2023
January 29–February 4

www.NCEA.org/csw
#CSW23

Dear Sisters & Brothers
in Christ,

What does Catholic Schools week and the Heisman trophy have in common? Probably not much. However, it was very interesting that this year's winner for the best college football player went to USC's quarterback Caleb Williams. During his acceptance speech, he specifically thanked his Catholic School. He gave credit to the school for helping him be a "man for others." Typically those who win awards such as the Heisman thank parents, coaches, their faith or their teammates. Those are noble people to thank. I found it interesting that Caleb specifically thanked his Catholic School.

This week is the start of Catholic Schools week. It's a good opportunity to be reminded of the values our faith has to offer. Catholic Schools help with the practical application of putting "faith into action!" That's the best way of instilling the gifts of our faith and using them throughout our lives! The Catholic School system is a terrific way to apply our faith in this world.

Please stop a moment and say a prayer and/or thank those who work in Catholic Schools (teachers, faculty, administrators). Please also thank those who work in the religious education programs for students who do not attend Catholic Schools. These are the groups that make sure the faith is passed on to the next generation!

Have a blessed week!

Peace, FR. Paul
