RCIA/OCIA

For those in the RCIA/OCIA process, we are still in the stage of Inquiry. During this time of prayer and discernment we discuss the questions that our inquirers have about The Catholic Faith as they decide whether this is the right path for them. If you have been joining us for Mass for a while, then during Inquiry, we discuss what we are doing during Mass. Over the years, you may have heard things about the Catholic Church, that may or may not be accurate. You may also want to join us to find out what the Church teaches or to deepen your relationship with God.

We will be meeting

Sunday November 12 in the Cougar Room to talk about The Trinity.

Contact Fr. Paul (frpaul@sttomskazoo.org) or Claire McSwiney (claire.mcswiney@att.net) for handouts ahead of the Sunday gathering.

FATHER PAUL'S POST

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

As we celebrate Black Catholic History Month, it seems appropriate to recognize and appreciate the first women religious order of women of African descent. This is the Oblate Sisters of Providence. It was founded on July 02, 1829. According to their website: "It was the work of a French-born Sulpician priest and four women, who were part of the Caribbean refugee colony which began arriving in Baltimore, Maryland in the late eighteenth century. Father James Hector Nicholas Joubert, SS, a Sulpician priest discovered it was difficult for the Haitian refugee children to master their religious studies because they were unable to read. He heard of two devout religious Caribbean women who were already conducting a school for black children in their home in Baltimore. In 1828 those two women, Elizabeth Lange (later Mother Mary Lange) and Maria Balas accepted his proposal to start a sisterhood with the primary mission of teaching and caring for African American children. After adding two more women, Rosine Boegue and American-born Theresa Duchemin, they began studying to become sisters and opened a Catholic school for girls in their convent in Baltimore. Thus began St. Frances Academy. It is the oldest continuously operating school for black Catholic children in the United States and is still educating children in Baltimore."

Their website is: <https://www.oblatesisters.com/>. I hope you have the opportunity to visit their website and learn more about their history and their ongoing work!

Have a blessed week!

Peace,

FR. Paul

MIGRANT MINISTRY / ALEMAN CENTER

THANK YOU - THANK YOU - THANK YOU!!!!

A very big thank you to all of you who made Migrant Ministry a big success this summer! To all who helped at the Aleman Center in Hartford with translating and filling the boxes of food for our friends, to all who helped by picking up the food and sometimes breaking it down into bags or bottles, and to all of you who donated food and bedding and clothes this summer! Even tho camp visits didn't look the same this year you still supported us with your backpacks and school supplies! The week after we packed them and gave them to the nuns (who work in Migrant Ministry for the diocese) I got a call from my friend at our camp that a few families had to come up the end of August for a few weeks, so we were able to get enough backpacks back so we could give them to the kids in our camp! God always has a plan! Thank you to the ladies who helped pack the bags and for gathering all the books we were able to give each child! Our village is just the best! Someday I hope you all realize how much your donations of time, talent and treasure mean to our friends! These days the world needs to feel that love for our neighbors and St Tom's is definitely the best at welcoming all!! A huge thank you to my partner Maggie Ebrite who literally runs all over the county and beyond gathering food for our friends! We all have our own gifts and she has a basket full!! Thanks again and we will look forward to seeing you and our friends next summer! ♥

MUCHAS GRACIAS!

The Aleman Center closed for the season on October 29. The center opened on May 7 to provide food, work clothes, blankets, towels, sheets, diapers, and personal hygiene supplies to migrant farm worker families. This year, 305 families visited the center. We served a total of 1996 people -- 1065 adults and 931 children. Approximately 75 percent of the families visited the center just once.

Thank you for making this ministry possible with your generous support through financial and in-kind donations and as volunteers. (P.S.: If you are cleaning out your linen closet, remember we will be collecting lightly worn sheets, towels, and blankets during lent 2024.)
