PARISH MISSION STATEMENT — We, the people of St. Thomas More Parish, gifted and led by the Holy Spirit, are called to build up the kingdom of God among the college communities of Kalamazoo. Diverse, yet one, we are called to be the Body of Christ, to praise and worship our Heavenly Father, to proclaim God's Word, to love and serve others, especially the poor and neglected. We welcome all into our parish family who wish to share in this mission.

RCIA/OCIA

This weekend we celebrate the Rite of Acceptance and Welcome at the 10:30 AM Mass. In the Rite of Acceptance, those who are unbaptized move one step closer to the sacraments of initiation and are now Catechumens. Our brothers and sisters that have been baptized in other denominations celebrate the Rite of Welcome and are now Candidates. Please pray for our Catechumens and Candidates as they make this key step in their spiritual journeys:

CATECHUMENS	CANDIDATES
Lauren Morrey	Russ McRoy Josiah Brace
Meadow Millard	Niki Millard Jeff Rudel
Seth Millard

There will not be a discussion this Sunday, January 14, at night. Contact Fr. Paul (frpaul@sttomskazoo.org) or Claire McSwiney (claire.mcswiney@att.net) for information about the RCIA process.

FAMILY PERSPECTIVE — Jesus' question in today's gospel is still valid today: "What are you looking for?" What do you want from your spouse, children or parents? Families are populated with imperfect people. To expect perfection is unreal. To expect and accept imperfection is wisdom.

FATHER PAUL'S POST

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

As we start the Ordinary Time cycle in our faith, the Gospel this week is from John. One of the themes we hear is that Jesus is the Lamb of God! What does this mean for us today? What does it mean to be a disciple of Jesus, "The Lamb of God?"

Pope Francis offers us a thought. A few years ago, he wrote that "It means putting innocence in the place of malice, love in the place of force, humility in the place of pride, service in the place of prestige. It is good work!"

The word "lamb" appears in several places in the New Testament. It almost always refers to Jesus. The lamb is not an oppressor, but is docile; a lamb is not aggressive, but peaceful. This is how Jesus is! He is like a lamb! This is a good image and reminder of who Jesus is and how we are to grow in our faith as we start this new year! Please take care and stay safe!

Peace, FR. Paul

ST. THOMAS MORE CATHOLIC STUDENT PARISH
PARISH COUNCIL MEETING MINUTES — DECEMBER 5, 2023

PRESENT: Christine Berro, Lowell Rinker, Glen Roehrig, Nancy Neumann, Tony Dugal, Mark Krinock, Tom Redmond, Nadine Deak, Fr. Paul, from student ministry team – Erin May & Allison Judge.

Fr. Paul opened the meeting with a prayer.

PARISH FINANCIAL REPORT:

Lowell reports that the parish's first quarter this year is comparable to last year and we are in "good shape". Discussion the focused on the lack of donations to the Bishop's Annual Appeal (BAA). Only 31% of the parish is presently donating to the BAA. Right now, the parish is collecting on old pledges until Easter. At the present time the parish has a reserve to cover the shortfall from donations; but it is uncertain what would happen if the parish did not have any reserve funds. The diocese determines how much the parish will donate and if the money is not directly given by the parishioners, then the difference is made up with parish finances. We would like to see at least 50% of the parish donating. The council feels that it would help if parishioners knew how their annual funding of this appeal was utilized in the diocese. Fr. Paul will be sending out a letter to all parish households regarding the BAA.

PASTOR'S REPORT:

PARISH ATTENDANCE: The number of attendees at Mass continues to increase. In 2020 (Covid), weekend attendance was 180 in person (many were on live streaming); in 2021 attendance was 445, in 2022 it was 545 and now in 2023 it is 620. Prior to Covid, the average was greater than 700. We believe our welcoming atmosphere and the religious education program contribute to our increasing numbers.

NEW PART TIME STAFF MEMBER: Elizabeth Emmert has been hired to help in the office on a part-time basis. Her husband is a grad student at WMU. More help was needed in the office as we now have 85 students in the religious education program, which Narcia manages.

STATUS ON APARTMENT RENOVATIONS: Apartments 1, 2, 3, & 4 are finished. Number 5 is soon to be completed and work on number 6 is ongoing. Work on these two should be completed by early next year. The cost of the renovations has been advantageous to the parish. All appliances were purchased at cost and the parish paid for labor only. The Romero Room was refurbished using the funds of an insurance claim. This room is utilized by students. The student ministry council members stated that the students want this to be a place to hang out. There will be a key card entry for students utilizing this room starting in the spring.

EXPANSION OF THE HORNET ROOM: Construction will probably start on the expansion of the Hornet Room in January or February. The room will be extended into the Narthex up to the pillar where the St. Thomas More portrait is located. Right now, the room is much too small to be utilized. There are still a few approvals to obtain from the diocese but this will not be a problem.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION PROGRAM: The program is going well; we have 85 students in attendance. Approximately 7-10 families have now registered as parishioners because of their children being in the program.

CAMPUS MINISTRY: The fall retreat was a success. There were 23 students in attendance which is the highest number since Covid. More at Midweek has recently had a slump in attendance because there were a few weeks when other events happened at the parish on that night. There is really good attendance at the Sunday Student Suppers. Lisa will be going on maternity leave soon, so they are working on getting another driver for Sunday Supper. Bishop Lohse recently came to celebrate Mass and have supper with the students.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS: The prospect of installing stations of the cross in the worship area was discussed. There will be an attempt to locate the stations that had been in the old worship space. They are thought to possibly be in storage at St. Augustine. Fr. Paul will check. The policy adopted at the time of the construction of the present worship space is to solicit bids from local artists which are reviewed by the Parish Art Committee. Members of the committee will be notified of this request.

GOALS FOR THE YEAR: In an attempt to continue religious education past the sacrament of Confirmation, it is proposed that St. Tom's partner with St. Ambrose to start a youth group. This may be difficult with students in high school occupied with lots of other activities. One of the items of importance that came up at the Synod on Synodality is the need for continuing education for all Catholics. Different approaches to disseminating information were discussed. Having learning sessions with different speakers was one approach. Another would be to solicit questions from parishioners to be answered weekly in the bulletin. The latter approach will be tried out.

Fr. Paul closed the meeting with a prayer.

NEXT MEETING: MARCH 12, 2024.

SACRAMENT CHAPEL

The chapel can be accessed 24 hours a day, 7 days a week by a personal access card that can be issued to interested parishioners. The coded card merely needs to be flashed within inches of the proximity reader and the chapel door will be electronically unlocked. Interested parishioners need to apply for their personal access card. The application will be reviewed by the Pastoral Team for approval. Please note: that if it is past open hours for the church, one would not have access to restrooms or public telephone. All prayers are encouraged to bring their own cell phones for emergency calling. As a security measure, there is a video camera in the chapel. The camera is not actively monitored by anyone, but a recording can be accessed the next day if anything is noticed amiss. Our Blessed Sacrament Chapel is a wonderful environment to share one's concerns, hopes and fears in the presence of our living Lord. A $5.00 refundable deposit is required.
