POPE FRANCIS HAS ASKED
OUR PARISH TO SUPPORT THE PONTIFICAL GOOD FRIDAY COLLECTION, WHICH HELPS CHRISTIANS IN THE HOLY LAND.

Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land. Your support helps the church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines. The pandemic hit particularly hard the Christians in the Holy Land. Most of them depend on pilgrimages to work. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection is also necessary to meet the basic needs of the People of God still living in this Land where the Church was born. When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you become an instrument of peace and join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land. For more information about Christians in the Holy Land, visit www.myfranciscan.org/good-friday.

FATHER PAUL'S POST

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

In his book, Life of Christ, Bishop Fulton Sheen wrote a powerful observation on the last seven words of Christ. He states, "Our Lord spoke seven times from the Cross; these are called His Seven Last Words. In the Scriptures, the dying words of only three others were recorded: Israel, Moses, and Stephen. The reason perhaps is that no others are found so significant and representative as these three. Israel was the first of the Israelites; Moses, the first of the legal dispensation; Stephen, the first Christian martyr.....Our Blessed Lord left His thoughts on dying, for He—more than Israel, more than Moses, more than Stephen—was representative of all humanity.....There was never a preacher like the dying Christ; there was never a congregation like that which gathered about the pulpit of the Cross; there was never a sermon like the Seven Last Words." (Chapter 49, page 273)

As we enter this Holy Week, I would invite you to read and reflect on these Seven Last Words of Jesus. They are taken from the gospel of Luke and John. If one is looking for a way to follow the way of the cross, this could be a good meditative exercise.

Have a blessed and safe Holy Week.

Sincerely, FR. Paul
