FAMILY PERSPECTIVE — Despite all our time saving gadgets, we still have less leisure and family time. To solve this we created the Myth of Quality Time. Don't be fooled: Quality Time is Quantity Time. Jesus counsels us today, we "cannot serve two masters" and expect to be happy. Dedicate time to your family. No one in their final hours regretted not spending more time at work.

IN HOPE Jay Landry

Jesus gives us quite the puzzling parable of The Dishonest Steward today. Why is this steward commended for being dishonest?

It would be awkward for Jesus to call us to be dishonest. Rather, perhaps, Jesus calls us to be more industrious as stewards of the mysteries of God. As Paul writes in 1 Cor 4:1-2, "Thus should one regard us: as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God. Now it is of course required of stewards that they be found trustworthy."

The steward in the parable is not found trustworthy, but he is commended by his master for seeding his future possibilities that serve only himself. He is a cheat, but an industrious cheat.

Jesus offers a comparison after the parable. He reveals that the children of this world are better stewards with worldly matters (mammon) than are the children of light (followers of Christ). Maybe, Jesus is calling us to be more industrious as children of the light with the mysteries of God. How? By surrendering our hearts and all we have in self-sacrificing love, trusting in God, as Jesus did in embracing the cross in love for us.

REFUGEE MINISTRY

A true story worth reading....

I received an urgent text from my friend at Samaritas who was out of country and needing help for a refugee family just arriving to Kalamazoo. Family includes a single mom with two teens. With the name and phone number of a student at WMU who speaks their language, I was able to connect quickly with the family and invite them to my home. Because of the generosity of St. Tom's parishioners, "the store" in my garage was stocked with essential needs! They were able to receive pots and pans, dishes and flatware, bath and kitchen towels, a couch, chairs, tables, nightstands, bedding, sheets, blankets, and a sewing machine, to name just some of it! We went to Meijer to purchase food for a week, paid for by our refugee fund at St. Tom's. Thank you all who donate in money and/or household goods for refugees! This was an unusual event that happened fast, and we were able to make a huge difference in their lives before Samaritas can take over!

ITEMS NEEDED: twin bed frame, box spring and mattress, countertop microwave oven, heavy duty mixer, AND BELIEVE IT OR NOT MORE SEWING MACHINES!

Contact Elsie Romano at 269-312-9076 or by email elsieromano@att.net

My apologies to all who went to Kalamazoo Valley Museum for the film series on refugees. The series was canceled after I put the update in last week's bulletin.
