

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The seed is the word of God, Christ is the sower.
All who come to him will have life forever.

The Pastor Gets It Down

Dear Parishioners of St. Rosalie and St. John Bosco,

Greetings in the Lord. May His Peace be with you now and always!

Diocesan Priests serve wherever they are assigned by their Bishop to minister to the people. Salesian Priests and Brothers also serve where they are assigned by the provincial, to minister to the people of God in our Salesian Communities.

We have come to the time of the year when all the new assignments for the coming 2020-2021 Pastoral Year have been announced. These new assignments bring mixed emotions to the SDBs of the Westbank.

First, sadness at the departure of Fr. Greg Fishel, as his 2nd assignment on the Westbank comes to an end. He has been a faithful priest and administrator holding down the fort during some tough times in our parishes. With his sharp mind and ability to not only see but foresee things, and his spirit of generosity, Fr. Greg has been a tremendous help to me these past months. I will miss him greatly. As we bid Fr. Greg farewell, the people of St. John Bosco Parish in Chicago look forward anxiously to the return of their good friend and priest. He ministered there twice previously for a total of nine years. It will be like a homecoming for him – just like when he returned to the Westbank for a second time. In his Chicago ministry, Fr. Greg will get to use his proficiency in Spanish to minister to people at both St. John Bosco and St. James Churches. Fr. Greg, you will be missed. Blessings upon you and your new ministry in Chicago!

Our parishes will be saying thanks and farewell to Fr. Greg the weekend of July 18-19. He will celebrate the Saturday 4pm Mass at St. Rosalie followed by a farewell reception in the Cafetorium. On Sunday, he will celebrate the 9am Mass at St. John Bosco followed by a reception in the Family Life Center.

Secondly, joy at the assignment of the newly ordained Fr. John Langan, he is returning to Archbishop Shaw as Coordinator of Youth Ministry. Fr. John previously taught at Shaw when he was a Brother in practical training.

Next, sadness at the departure of Bro. Jerry Meegan from Archbishop Shaw. For the past nine years Br. Jerry has zealously labored both at Archbishop Shaw and with Archdiocesan and Salesian Offices and Programs for the benefit of the young. At 78 years of age, he will continue his Salesian Ministry at Mary, Help of Christians Center and the Tampa Cristo Rey High School in Tampa, Florida. There he will be mentoring the young Coordinator of Youth Ministry at the high school, be a member of the Youth Ministry Team, and assist both at the high school and MHC Center's retreat program. God speed, Bro. Jerry! You will be missed. Tampa is gaining a great Salesian!

Also, joy at the arrival of Bro. Tom Junis, a Salesian clerical student, who will teach Religion this year at Shaw. And again, joy at the return of Bro. Simon Song, who will also be teaching Religion.

Finally, we excitedly look ahead, to the return of Bro. Rafael Vargas. He did his practical training here at Shaw and will be returning to the Community as he finishes up his studies at Loyola.

Let us thank God for our rich Salesian heritage and for the wonderful SDBs and FMAs who have served here and will continue to serve the young and the people of the Westbank.

God loves you!

UNIVERSAL DECLARATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS OF THE UNITED NATIONS

Article 1.

All human beings are born free and equal in dignity and rights. They are endowed with reason and conscience and should act towards one another in a spirit of brotherhood.

Article 2.

Everyone is entitled to all the rights and freedoms set forth in this Declaration, without distinction of any kind, such as race, color, sex, language, religion, political or other opinion, national or social origin, property, birth or other status. Furthermore, no distinction shall be made on the basis of the political, jurisdictional or international status of the country or territory to which a person belongs, whether it be independent, trust, non-self-governing or under any other limitation of sovereignty.

Article 3.

Everyone has the right to life, liberty and security of person.

Article 4.

No one shall be held in slavery or servitude; slavery and the slave trade shall be prohibited in all their forms.

Article 5.

No one shall be subjected to torture or to cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment.

Article 6.

Everyone has the right to recognition everywhere as a person before the law.

Article 7.

All are equal before the law and are entitled without any discrimination to equal protection of the law. All are entitled to equal protection against any discrimination in violation of this Declaration and against any incitement to such discrimination.

Article 8.

Everyone has the right to an effective remedy by the competent national tribunals for acts violating the fundamental rights granted him by the constitution or by law.

Article 9.

No one shall be subjected to arbitrary arrest, detention or exile.

Article 10.

Everyone is entitled in full equality to a fair and public hearing by an independent and impartial tribunal, in the determination of his rights and obligations and of any criminal charge against him.

Article 11.

1. Everyone charged with a penal offence has the right to be presumed innocent until proved guilty according to law in a public trial at which he has had all the guarantees necessary for his defense.
2. No one shall be held guilty of any penal offence on account of any act or omission which did not constitute a penal offence, under national or international law, at the time when it was committed. Nor shall a heavier penalty be imposed than the one that was applicable at the time the penal offence was committed.

Article 12.

No one shall be subjected to arbitrary interference with his privacy, family, home or correspondence, nor to attacks upon his honor and reputation. Everyone has the right to the protection of the law against such interference or attacks.

Article 13.

1. Everyone has the right to freedom of movement and residence within the borders of each State.
2. Everyone has the right to leave any country, including his own, and to return to his country.

Article 14.

1. Everyone has the right to seek and to enjoy in other countries asylum from persecution.
2. This right may not be invoked in the case of prosecutions genuinely arising from non-political crimes or from acts contrary to the purposes and principles of the United Nations.

Article 15.

1. Everyone has the right to a nationality.
2. No one shall be arbitrarily deprived of his nationality nor denied the right to change his nationality.

Article 16.

1. Men and women of full age, without any limitation due to race, nationality or religion, have the right to marry and to found a family. They are entitled to equal rights as to marriage, during marriage and at its dissolution.
2. Marriage shall be entered into only with the free and full consent of the intending spouses.
3. The family is the natural and fundamental group unit of society and is entitled to protection by society and the State.

Article 17.

1. Everyone has the right to own property alone as well as in association with others.
2. No one shall be arbitrarily deprived of his property.

Article 18.

Everyone has the right to freedom of thought, conscience and religion; this right includes freedom to change his religion or belief, and freedom, either alone or in community with others and in public or private, to manifest his religion or belief in teaching, practice, worship and observance.

Article 19.

Everyone has the right to freedom of opinion and expression; this right includes freedom to hold opinions without interference and to seek, receive and impart information and ideas through any media and regardless of frontiers.

Article 20.

1. Everyone has the right to freedom of peaceful assembly and association.
2. No one may be compelled to belong to an association.

Article 21.

1. Everyone has the right to take part in the government of his country, directly or through freely chosen representatives.
2. Everyone has the right to equal access to public service in his country.
3. The will of the people shall be the basis of the authority of government; this will shall be expressed in periodic and genuine elections which shall be by universal and equal suffrage and shall be held by secret vote or by equivalent free voting procedures.

Article 22.

Everyone, as a member of society, has the right to social security and is entitled to realization, through national effort and international co-operation and in accordance with the organization and resources of each State, of the economic, social and cultural rights indispensable for his dignity and the free development of his personality.

Article 23.

1. Everyone has the right to work, to free choice of employment, to just and favorable conditions of work and to protection against unemployment.
2. Everyone, without any discrimination, has the right to equal pay for equal work.
3. Everyone who works has the right to just and favorable remuneration ensuring for himself and his family an existence worthy of human dignity, and supplemented, if necessary, by other means of social protection.
4. Everyone has the right to form and to join trade unions for the protection of his interests.

Article 24.

Everyone has the right to rest and leisure, including reasonable limitation of working hours and periodic holidays with pay.

Article 25.

1. Everyone has the right to a standard of living adequate for the health and well-being of himself and of his family, including food, clothing, housing and medical care and necessary social services, and the right to security in the event of unemployment, sickness, disability, widowhood, old age or other lack of livelihood in circumstances beyond his control.
2. Motherhood and childhood are entitled to special care and assistance. All children, whether born in or out of wedlock, shall enjoy the same social protection.

Article 26.

1. Everyone has the right to education. Education shall be free, at least in the elementary and fundamental stages. Elementary education shall be compulsory. Technical and professional education shall be made generally available and higher education shall be equally accessible to all on the basis of merit.
2. Education shall be directed to the full development of the human personality and to the strengthening of respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms. It shall promote understanding, tolerance and friendship among all nations, racial or religious groups, and shall further the activities of the United Nations for the maintenance of peace.
3. Parents have a prior right to choose the kind of education that shall be given to their children.

Article 27.

1. Everyone has the right freely to participate in the cultural life of the community, to enjoy the arts and to share in scientific advancement and its benefits.
2. Everyone has the right to the protection of the moral and material interests resulting from any scientific, literary or artistic production of which he is the author.

Article 28.

Everyone is entitled to a social and international order in which the rights and freedoms set forth in this Declaration can be fully realized.

Article 29.

1. Everyone has duties to the community in which alone the free and full development of his personality is possible.
2. In the exercise of his rights and freedoms, everyone shall be subject only to such limitations as are determined by law solely for the purpose of securing due recognition and respect for the rights and freedoms of others and of meeting the just requirements of morality, public order and the general welfare in a democratic society.
3. These rights and freedoms may in no case be exercised contrary to the purposes and principles of the United Nations.

Article 30.

Nothing in this Declaration may be interpreted as implying for any State, group or person any right to engage in any activity or to perform any act aimed at the destruction of any of the rights and freedoms set forth herein.

PRAYER TO OUR LADY OF PROMPT SUCCOR

Our Lady of Prompt Succor, ever Virgin Mother of Jesus Christ our Lord and God, you are most powerful against the enemy of our salvation. The divine promise of a Redeemer was announced right after the sin of our first parents; and you, through your Divine Son, crushed the serpent's head. Hasten, then, to our help and deliver us from the deceits of satan. Intercede for us with Jesus that we may always accept God's graces and be found faithful to Him in our particular states of life. As you once saved our beloved City from ravaging flames and our Country from an invading army, have pity on us and obtain for us protection from hurricanes and all other disasters.

(Silent pause for individual petitions.)

Assist us in the many trials which beset our path through life. Watch over the Church and the Pope as they uphold with total fidelity the purity of faith and morals against unremitting opposition. Be to us truly Our Lady of Prompt Succor now and especially at the hour of our death, that we may gain everlasting life through the merits of Jesus Christ Who lives and reigns with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us. (Three times)
