GOSPEL MEDITATION

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Our families need to ask for the gift of the Spirit! Through prayer, even in the busiest times, we give time back to God, we find the peace that comes from appreciating the important things, and we encounter the joy of God’s unexpected gifts. Through daily prayer may our homes become, like the house of Martha and Mary, places where Jesus always finds a warm welcome (Pope Francis).” While it is necessary to attend to the details of hospitality, learning how to be present to people, experiences, and God is sometimes more important. Creating homes that are welcoming environments requires not only organization and structure but members who truly enjoy being there and celebrating life with one another.

Details can often get the best of us. While attending to details is important to success, our obsession with them can be problematic. Whether wanting to make a good impression, fear of failure, insecurity, or emotional immaturity, throwing ourselves into the “details” of hospitality can distract us from being present to those we want to serve. Conversely, focusing exclusively on being present without any attention to detail also sets our attempts at hospitality up for disaster! We need a balance of both. But creating a truly welcoming space in our homes and within ourselves requires still more.

We have to be empty of ourselves. Becoming a welcoming, hospitable person is not possible in someone focused on their own needs and desires. If the one we serve is the one who looks back at us in the mirror, then there is no space for anyone else. While Martha and Mary had different ideas of what it means to serve, they both had the inner space and freedom to do so. They were detached from themselves. Detachment becomes the challenge to hospitality and creating a God-centered, open-hearted space in our lives. When we impulsively act out of our personal agendas, violence, abuse, pride, greed, lust, power, control, passion, and self-aggrandizement encroach upon the space needed to be present to another human being. Not only can others not find a home in us, but even God cannot find a home in us!©LPi

Pilgrim Virgin

When was the last time you had a visit with your Mother? Our Heavenly Mother is waiting to grace your family with a special visit, to spend time with you, to call down God's blessings on your home, and to make it a "Little Heaven." She never forgets those who have welcomed her into their home and those who have joined her in her most pleasing prayer. No prayer has had more miraculous responses than the recitation of the Holy Rosary. Now is the perfect time, you simply need to say "Come Pilgrim Virgin, bless our family, bless our home, and let us pray together. We shall hold the Rosary and you shall hold our hearts." Please contact Margarita Dolikhani at 919-671-2584 to schedule a visit or alert any member of the Legion of Mary.

The Chalice Program

Pray for Vocations and Religious Life!

When you are scheduled to be the chalice family or person for a particular day, you attend Mass as usual, and sit in the front right pew (the side where the St. Joseph statue is located). This is reserved for the chalice family each week. At the end of Mass, Father will then call up the Chalice family to receive the chalice bag. You will then have the Chalice to display in your home and pray for vocations to the priesthood and the religious life. (Prayers are included in the chalice bag.) After your week is done, you then return the chalice to the sacristy and hang it on the hook 15 minutes before Mass the following week. For those of you who would like to participate, please email Andrea Griswold at flygirl727.ag@gmail.com. Please include your preferred Mass time. God will surely bless you and your family for participating in this beautiful ministry! All the future priests and religious thank you for all your prayers!

Is Jesus Calling You to be "On Call"?

Substitute Adorers are a group of parishioners who are willing to join a "reserve team" of prayer warriors and guards of The Blessed Sacrament. These special adorers are available to be called upon to stand in for an hour that needs coverage due to both committed adorers unable to make their hour. Should you like to volunteer, you will be put on a private contact list. You may be called upon to cover only the hour or hours that you choose ahead of time, and you are never obliged to cover the hour if you cannot at that time. If you are reading this, maybe Jesus is calling on your heart to receive the graces that this dedicated group benefit from! If you would like more information to discern this calling, please call the church office at 919- 570- 0070.

St. Catherine of Siena Memorial Garden

Our Memorial Garden, nestled near the majestic St. Catherine of Siena Church, was originally dedicated with 120 niches on January 14, 2018. Graced by a beautiful Pavilion which provides shade and protection from the elements, and paved with cobblestone walkways, each section of the garden is named after a beloved Saint. There is even a special section named after St. Gianna Beretta Molla, for the burial of miscarried and stillborn children, offering bereaved parents blessed comfort in their time of mourning. Surrounding the garden are the Stations of the Cross, designed and built by one of our Eagle Scouts. We invite you to come and visit our Memorial Garden to experience its serene beauty first-hand. It will always be a sacred place to gather and pray for our deceased loved ones inurned in the Memorial Garden or buried elsewhere. Please contact Joyce Gaston for additional information at: 919-570-0070 Ext.105.

The Memorial Garden is a sacred place for the deceased. Please note that nothing of either a permanent or temporary nature shall be placed without the approval of the Pastor. For example flowers, balloons, signs, etc. Thank you!

There is a profound and basic truth proclaimed repeatedly in Sacred Scripture. It is a very simple truth: God loves us. In love, God created the world. In love, God breathed life into Adam and Eve as He created them in His image. In love, God the Father sent his son as our Savior. His gift of love became visible in the flesh of Jesus Christ. Through his love, we are forgiven. In imitation of the love that we have received, we are called to embody God's love. This is the cause of our great joy!

All are called to love

Every person is called to the joy of love—just as God has loved us! As St. John proclaims,

Beloved, let us love one another, because love is of God; everyone who loves is begotten by God and knows God.... Beloved, if God so loved us, we also must love one another. No one has ever seen God. Yet, if we love one another, God remains in us, and His love is brought to perfection in us. (1 John 4: 7–12)

This beautiful proclamation expresses the vocation of all people, which is to be open to God's love and to embody God's love in return. As Christians, it is our universal call to give love and to receive love.

The ability to know, give, and receive love is a gift from God—it is a sharing in His divine nature. Since God is love itself, we were created by love, in love, to love. This fundamental truth should guide all relationships between people, not least those between people called to share their lives in the covenant of marriage.

God's love is at the heart of marriage. Married love is free, faithful, permanent, and fruitful—open to life (see Gaudium et Spes, 49–50; Humanae Vitae, 9; Amoris Laetitia, 74, 125). Married love joins husband and wife so that they become “one flesh” (Gen 2: 24). Within the arms of husband and wife, God desired the perfect environment be created to welcome new life into the world. Marriage creates the family!

Chastity helps us to love deeply and selflessly!

God has written the capacity to give and to receive love into the hearts of every person. One beautiful expression of God's plan of love is that He created us with sexuality—male and female. Human sexuality—whether male or female—is woven into our very bodies, and affects all aspects of human existence, including our relationships with one another.

In a world wounded by sin, the virtue of chastity strengthens us to express love in ways that are holy and genuine—whether we are married, single, celibate, or vowed in religious life. In fact, loving chastity enables us to maintain “the integrity of the powers of life and love” that have been given to us and therefore helps us to respect ourselves and the personal boundaries of other people (see Catechism of the Catholic Church, 2338). Within marriage, chastity protects the integrity of husband and wife, especially with respect to their gifts of union and procreation. Chastity calls husband and wife to a right order of their love for each other within God's design for their marriage.

Marriage and parenthood

In marriage, human sexuality brings together the fullness of love and life. The precious gift of fertility is a beautiful participation in the creative Spirit of God as He calls into existence a new person. Of all the various profound forms of human relationship, marriage, or Holy Matrimony, was willed by God as a blessing from the beginning of creation (Gen 2:18–25; Mt 19: 1–6). God did not want the man to be alone. God made a suitable partner for him—the woman. Together, they form the one-flesh union of marriage which has the potential to give life and create a family. God intended marital love to accept and nurture the power of life.

The nature of marriage calls spouses to a sacred stewardship over the twofold gifts of love and life. Within this vocation, a husband and wife celebrate their human sexuality in all its fullness. Their conjugal union is “meant to express the full meaning of love,” as willed by God, “its power to bind a couple together and its openness to new life” (USCCB, Married Love and the Gift of Life, 4).

NFP—cooperating with God’s design for married love

In marriage, serious reasons may arise that cause husband and wife to limit the size of their family. These reasons can include financial stresses, physical illness, psychological and even spiritual difficulties. So, what are the moral ways for a couple to accept God’s gift of fertility and yet cooperate with God to plan their families?

Authentic family planning honors God’s design by supporting the love-giving and life-giving nature of sexual intercourse. It promotes openness to new life and the value of the child. And it helps to enrich the marital bond between husband and wife. Authentic family planning builds healthy and holy families. In the world of family planning, only the methods of Natural Family Planning (NFP) check “Yes” to all these moral characteristics!

NFP methods make use of fertility education. All NFP education teaches husband and wife about their fertile time (the time of the wife’s ovulation when an egg is released from her ovary). NFP methods can be used to either attempt a pregnancy or avoid one. When avoiding, couples abstain from conjugal relations during the fertile time of the woman. No drugs, devices, or surgical procedures are used with NFP. Any woman, no matter the variety in her menstrual cycle, can use an NFP method. That is because NFP methods help the wife to recognize her unique signs of fertility, which she will observe daily.

Love, naturally and generously

It is time to consider and embrace all that God has given us. Take the time to learn, reflect, and pray about God’s marvelous plan for men, women, and Holy Matrimony. Answer the call to cooperate with God’s design for married love. Share God’s vision of human sexuality lovingly with your family members, friends, and neighbors. Accepting God’s invitation to the joy of love is to embrace all aspects of His divine plan for your marriage. If accepted, it will bring joy to your marriage!

GOSPEL

When company came, Martha hurried to get the house ready. She made sure the food was cooked. She set the table with cups, dishes, and silverware. She put clean sheets on the beds. She emptied the trash. Mary didn't worry about all that. She stopped everything to listen to her visitor. If your house is neat all the time, you can relax and talk with your guests. Then you can cook dinner together.

PRAYER

Lord, I want to stop working to listen to my visitors.

Jesús le enseña a Marta que el estrés y la ansiedad le han hecho perder la perspectiva de asuntos importantes. ¿Cómo te cimienta tu fe en las ansiedades diarias de tu vida?

Nos pasamos nuestra vida, desde que tenemos uso de razón hasta el final de los días, tratando de elegir lo mejor, ser lo mejor, vestir y comer lo mejor. Grandes pensadores, filósofos y consejeros, por mencionar algunos, escriben libros, dan conferencias con la misma meta y siempre con el mismo objetivo: “Que sepamos elegir en la vida lo mejor”. El domingo pasado escuchábamos como el buen samaritano y el posadero hicieron lo mejor para el pobre hombre que fue asaltado en el camino. Hoy, la Liturgia nos presenta otra escena en el Evangelio de Lucas: ¿Cómo saber elegir lo mejor?

Jesús, nos narra el Evangelio... entró a un pueblo donde vivían Marta y María, quienes lo recibieron en su casa. Ambas mujeres, me imagino, conocían a Jesús. Este es un punto interesante, ya que Martha eligió la parte del trabajo, sin fijarse en la importancia del invitado. Iba y venía atendiendo los quehaceres, sin prestar la mayor atención. Hasta que de repente, notó que su hermana estaba muy sin prisa, sentada a los pies de Jesús, escuchándolo. Es por esta razón que Martha se atreve a reclamar a Jesús: “Señor, ¿no te importa que mi hermana me haya dejado sola para atender? Dile que me ayude. Pero el Señor respondió: Marta, Marta, tú andas preocupada y te pierdes en mil cosas: una sola es necesaria. María ha elegido la mejor parte, que no le será quitada” (Lucas 10,40-42). Nadie nos separará del amor de Cristo, y ese amor nos hará perfectos, dice San Pablo. ©LPi

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACION DE LA SEMANA

Nos convertimos en una persona acogedora cuando podemos apartarnos de nuestras propias necesidades y deseos para crear espacio para otra persona. Dar la bienvenida implica una calidad de escucha y presencia que comunica a otra persona que lo que está compartiendo y quiénes son tienen importancia. Cuando cambiamos la atención y el enfoque de nosotros mismos y lo dirigimos hacia otra persona, pueden suceder cosas positivas. Cuando alguien sabe que su historia importa, puede cambiarle la vida y darle vida. La hospitalidad trae vida y celebra las relaciones. Ya sea que estemos atendiendo activamente el negocio de atender las necesidades de los demás o abriéndonos a escuchar su historia, la devoción y la atención son amigos del amor. Ponerse ansioso y preocupado por la agenda personal de uno no deja lugar para el poder creativo, nutritivo y espontáneo del amor de Dios. ©LPi
