NOTES FROM THE PASTOR

Today's Gospel (Luke 24:35-48) follows the encounter the two disciples had with the risen Jesus on the road to Emmaus, where they had recognized Jesus in the breaking of the bread. Now, these same two disciples have returned to Jerusalem to share news of this encounter with the Apostles who had gathered in the Upper Room where the Last Supper had taken place. All of the Apostles are hidden there, staying out of sight for fear that those who killed Jesus would soon be coming for them.

The risen Jesus appears to them in that room and offers the peace that he alone can give. He reassures them that they are seeing victory, not defeat – that he is truly risen! He is not a ghost and they are not hallucinating. He eats with them, and then gives them a detailed recounting of how prophecies from the Hebrew Scriptures (Old Testament) have been fulfilled by his passion. The disciples' mission will be to go and tell others the very same truth – God's plan of salvation was not defeated at Calvary; instead it was the defining moment of victory that was then fulfilled in the Resurrection.

Jesus calls his disciples "witnesses of these things," a point echoed by St. Peter in the Acts of the Apostles (Acts 3:13-15, 17-19). Peter has indeed become a witness. Before the Holy Spirit came upon him in wind and fire at the Pentecost, he hid himself away in fear along with the other Apostles. Now his fears have been replaced by faith in the Resurrection. The simple, uneducated fisherman, now stands publicly as the rock of Christ's Church, eloquently challenging his listeners to repent, and inviting them to be baptized and share in Christ's victory.

Then and now, the Resurrection of Jesus is disbelieved by some, and ignored by many. However, for those who have faith in the Lord and find strength in the Cross of Jesus, the Resurrection becomes an anchor that preserves our hope, even, and especially, during the darkest days of our lives. In the Sacraments, Jesus takes our fears away – the same way he did on the road to Emmaus and in the Upper Room. Like his original disciples, we are called to go and free others from their fears, by sharing with them the Good News that Jesus Christ has conquered sin and death, and offers us eternal life in the Kingdom of Heaven.

Lord, let your face shine on us.

Quotable Saints

“How splendid the cross of Christ! It brings life, not death; light, not darkness; paradise, not its loss. It is the wood on which the Lord, like a great warrior, was wounded in hands and feet and side, but healed thereby our wounds.” – St. Theodore of Stoudites

Our Lady of Fatima
Adult Faith Formation Series
Journey with us
as we grow in our Catholic Faith

"Who Am I To Judge?" Started on April 12th

From Thursday, April 12th through Thursday, May 31st, Our Lady of Fatima Parish will present an 8-part series by Dr. Edward Sri entitled "Who Am I to Judge?" Combining video presentation, group discussions, and a study guide, this series presents the one key in effectively responding to the moral relativism of our time: A Catholic moral worldview. Moral relativism denies that there are absolutes in matters of faith, truth, and morality. Everything is "relative" – what is true for me is not necessarily true for you, and so on. In denying the existence of absolute truth, one is essentially denying the existence of God, for God is perfect truth and God is eternal and constant – never changing. Learn how Catholic morality is all about love, how making a judgment is not judging a person's soul, and how, in the words of Pope Francis, "relativism wounds people" and is "the spiritual poverty of our times." The eight weekly sessions will be held on Thursdays in Fatima-Gallagher Hall, with a morning session offered from 10:00 am to 11:30 am, and an evening session offered from 6:30 pm to 8:00 pm. The cost of the study guide is $10.

New Parish Website

Please check out our new parish website at www.fatimachurchabq.org.

The parish school also has a new website at www.fatimaschoolabq.com.

Many thanks to parishioner Marla Montiel for using her outstanding talents in setting up these new websites!

Head Usher Needed

Fr. Steve is looking for a ministry volunteer to serve as the Head Usher. The Head Usher will recruit and train ushers for the Masses, coordinate and share communications with the Lead Usher of each Mass, and promote a spirit of service and hospitality among those serving in the ministry of usher. Persons interested in serving as the Head Usher or as an usher at any of the Masses (either on a regular basis or in a substitute capacity) should contact Fr. Steve at the Parish Office.

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION

The third-grade students of Our Lady of Fatima School and the parish CCD program will receive First Holy Communion at the 12:00 noon Mass on Sunday, April 22, 2018.

YOUTH CONFIRMATION

Archbishop John Wester will be at Our Lady of Fatima for the Youth Confirmation Mass at 7:00 pm on Wednesday, May 9, 2018, so that the youth of our parish who have undergone sacramental preparation may receive the Holy Spirit in the Sacrament of Confirmation. All parishioners are invited to attend.

MAY CROWNING OF MARY

The May Crowning of Mary will take place at the Our Lady of Fatima School Mass at 8:15 am on Wednesday, May 2. All parishioners are invited to attend.

Please pray for the repose of the souls of

- Eleanor Slutts
- Filadelfio Griego
- Isaac Lopez

Our sympathy is extended to their families and friends.
