NOTES FROM THE PASTOR

How many of us have wished, in moments of indecision, that God would send us a clear sign about what we are called to do at that moment? At times like these, when we are surrounded by turmoil and indecision, it can be easy to feel as though God has abandoned us and left us alone to fend for ourselves. But the Scripture Readings for today's Mass, as we get ever closer to the great Feast of Pentecost, are reassuring. We are not alone, but have God, the Church, and the people around us to give us guidance and support when we need it – as long as we are open to the different ways in which the Holy Spirit operates in our daily lives.

In the First Reading (Acts 15:1-2, 22-29), we see the Church, our brothers and sisters in the faith, as a support system to help us understand what is required of us. The earliest Gentile disciples in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia were misled into believing that they had to follow the ancient Mosaic law if they were to be saved – if they were to be Christians. They were essentially told that they must first become Jewish and follow the laws of Judaism in order to become Christians. But the Apostles, guided by the Holy Spirit in their discussions, realized that Gentile believers were not called to the same strict code of law that the Jewish people had been, and the sent emissaries led by Paul and Barnabas to encourage the Gentiles and lighten their burden. Sometimes, as in this case, the Holy Spirit speaks to us through the word of those around us, the faithful people who listen to the voice of the Spirit and help us to understand.

In today's Gospel (John 14:23-29), Jesus assures us that the Holy Spirit, the Advocate, will be with us if we stay close to God, if we listen to God's word and allow God to make his dwelling with us. After his Ascension into heaven, Jesus sent his Holy Spirit to guide us to the truth – to remind us of the words that Jesus spoke to the Apostles and continues to speak to us through Scripture. The Holy Spirit who dwells within us as a result of Baptism and Confirmation, speaks to our heart particularly during times of prayer, and guides us to the truth and to form a proper conscience.

How do we know that the Holy Spirit is speaking to us? One way is to stay close to God through daily prayer, reading of Scripture, and reception of the Sacraments.

Applications Being Accepted for Parish Bookkeeper and Receptionist

Our Lady of Fatima Parish is accepting applications for the position of bookkeeper for the parish and the school. The bookkeeper documents income and prepares bank deposits; processes accounts receivable and accounts payable requests including check preparation; reconciles monthly bank statements; prepares monthly financial reports for the parish and the school; prepares payroll to be processed by an outside service; and maintains personnel files. Applicants should have strong organizational and computer skills, particularly with accounting software; the ability to consistently meet deadlines; and must maintain confidentiality.

Our Lady of Fatima Parish is also accepting applications for a part-time secretary/receptionist to work in the parish office. Friendliness and strong interpersonal skills both in person and by telephone are essential. The secretary/receptionist answers telephones, takes messages, and screens calls; assists visitors to the parish office; maintains parish census records; maintains the sacramental records of the parish; coordinates distribution of offertory envelopes; performs data entry on offertory and other contributions; prepares the weekly bulletin; receives and distributes mail to office staff; and prepares outgoing correspondence for the Pastor.

Applications for these positions may be submitted at the Parish Office to the attention of Fr. Schultz.

The Parish Office and School will be closed on Monday, May 27, 2019, in observance of the Memorial Day Holiday.

Daily Mass will be celebrated at 6:30 am and 8:15 am, but there will not be Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament or Benediction on this day.

St. Vincent de Paul May 26, 2019 Sixth Sunday of Easter

In the Gospel today, Jesus says to us:
 "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you."
Through your gifts the Society of St. Vincent de Paul brings the love and care of Jesus to the poor by assisting families with food, utilities, rent, and furniture.

God Bless You!

We welcome all interested individuals to come to our monthly meeting on the fourth Sundays of the month, after the 10:00 AM Mass in Room 1 of Fatima-Gallagher Hall to discern if this ministry is for you.

PLEASE Do Not Block Driveways on Morningside Drive!

Some of our neighbors along Morningside Drive have been most upset that their driveways are sometimes being blocked by the cars of people attending Mass at Our Lady of Fatima. To park this way is not only discourteous to the homeowners, it is illegal.

Remember that the City of Albuquerque prohibits parking on a street within three feet of a public or private driveway, within 15 feet of a fire hydrant, and within 30 feet of the approach to a stop sign or traffic signal. Violators may be ticketed by law enforcement and/or towed.

If you are parking along Morningside, Roma, or Montclair, please respect our neighbors and do not block their driveways with your parked car. Thanks!

One particular form of prayer is the nightly Examen, in which we review the day past and see how God has worked in that day – where we received special blessings, where we were effective in our discipleship, and where we might have failed. Through the daily practice of examining our lives, we can more easily see how God has spoken to us that day, whether through prayer or through the words or actions of others.

As we prepare to celebrate Pentecost in just two weeks from now, let us always remember that the Holy Spirit, the Advocate, longs to speak God's word to us and guide us. We only need to be open to the promptings of that Holy Spirit.

"Ascension" is celebrated on the 7th Sunday of Easter

In most dioceses of the United States, including the Archdiocese of Santa Fe, the Feast of the Ascension of the Lord is celebrated on the 7th Sunday of Easter and has been moved from Thursday, May 30th to Sunday, June 2nd.

Because of this, Thursday, May 30th is not a Holy Day of Obligation. As with all Sundays, Sunday, June 2nd is a Holy Day of Obligation.
