THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many." - Mk 14:24

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Today we celebrate the Feast of the Most Holy
Body and Blood of Christ
(Corpus Christi). The

Catholic Church has consistently taught from Apostolic times that during a valid celebration of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, the bread and wine truly become the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is what is meant by the "True Presence" or "Real Presence" of Jesus in the Most Holy Eucharist. Although the elements still have the appearance of bread and wine, they have – through the power of the Holy Spirit – been changed into Jesus' Body and Blood, just as they did at the Last Supper. Tragically, a large number of Catholics have not been catechized well with regard to the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. They have come to see the Eucharist simply as the symbolic presence of Christ rather than his Real Presence.

The Second Vatican Council referred to the Eucharist as "the source and summit" of our faith. As such, there is the need for proper respect regarding the Eucharist. This respect for the Eucharist means observing the rule that we must fast from food and beverages for one hour before receiving Holy Communion. It is permissible to drink water, and a small amount of food is permissible if needed to take with medicine. Respect for the Eucharist also means arriving for Mass on time and not leaving early. Respect for the Eucharist means observing silence or very quiet conversation both before and after Mass as a courtesy to others who are praying in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. Respect for the Eucharist means that those who are physically able should genuflect reverently when entering and leaving a pew when they arrive for Mass and leave from Mass in a church in which the Blessed Sacrament is kept. If unable to genuflect, a deep bow is an appropriate sign of respect. Respect for the Eucharist means that we should not receive Holy Communion if we are aware of being in a state of serious sin (see 1 Corinthians 11:27-29). Such persons should go to Confession, or in the case of cohabitation or a marriage outside of the Church, should see a priest about having their situation corrected so that they may worthily receive the Sacraments of the Church.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER

My Jesus,
I believe that you are present
in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you.
Amen.

Quotable Saints

“We must pray without tiring, for salvation depends on Jesus alone.”
– St. Frances Xavier Cabrini

Respect for the Eucharist is also reflected in how we receive the Eucharist. When approaching to receive the Most Holy Eucharist, we are to make a sign of reverence by making a bow before we step forward to receive. When the Priest, Deacon, or lay Eucharistic Minister says "The Body of Christ" or "The Blood of Christ," we are to respond with "Amen." If receiving the Host on the tongue (when permitted after the pandemic), be sure to open your mouth sufficiently wide and stick out your tongue. If receiving the Host in the hand, please place one hand over the other with palms facing up. Your dominant hand should be underneath your non-dominant hand, so if you are right-handed, your right hand should be underneath your left hand so that the minister may place the Host in your left hand and then you use your right hand to pick up the Host and place the Host immediately in your mouth. Please do not walk away without first placing the Host in your mouth and consuming it.

On this feast of Corpus Christi, established by Pope Urban IV in the year 1264, we celebrate the miracle of the Eucharist. When we share in the Eucharist, we share in Jesus' miraculous love for us and for all sinners. Our Lord Jesus Christ, truly present in the Most Blessed Sacrament, is worthy of our worship, our respect, and our love.

Thoughts on Stewardship:

Stewardship is planned giving and does not leave giving to chance. It challenges us to plan. It asks us to make a conscious determination of what we are doing with our time, our talent, and our treasure.

May 23, 2021

Dear Parishioners of Our Lady of Fatima,

Following the release of the most recent Health Order (May 14, 2021) issued by the New Mexico Department of Health, Archbishop Wester met with the COVID Response Team of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe, and issued the following instructions:

1. While the new health order allows houses of worship to hold indoor religious services at up to 100% of capacity, the New Mexico Department of Health strongly encourages that indoor religious services continue to observe restricted attendance. At the Archbishop's instruction, we will continue to practice these limits. In Bernalillo County that would mean 75% of capacity.
2. Masks are to continue to be worn by all inside the church regardless of one's immunization status. Exceptions are: Priests, lectors, cantors and choir members while performing their respective vocal liturgical functions, and children under the age of 3.
3. Social distancing is to continue to be observed.
4. Per the Pastor's judgment, Holy Communion may be restored to its normal place in the Mass. Social distancing should still be observed by those in the Communion line. Our Lady of Fatima Parish will restore Holy Communion to its normal place in the Mass effective Monday, May 24, 2021. This means that after receiving Holy Communion, persons should return to their pews for the Prayer After Communion and the Final Blessing and Dismissal.
5. The option to receive Holy Communion on the tongue, while now permitted under certain restrictive conditions, will not yet be implemented at Our Lady of Fatima Parish, though we anticipate that it will be offered as an option in the not-too-distant future.
6. Singing is allowed by choirs only, whose members are to all have been fully vaccinated. Social distancing is recommended for choir members, but can be somewhat relaxed where necessary.
7. Dispensation from Sunday Mass is still provided for those who judge it necessary for the health of themselves or others.
8. Pastors retain the authority to utilize more (but not less) restrictive measures should they feel it necessary or prudent.

As you know, the issue of restrictions has been particularly contentious throughout the pandemic. However, charity towards the vulnerable obliges safety over comfort or "the normal". The state projects a wider relaxation of restrictions when the state vaccination percentage reaches approximately 60%, currently projected to be near the end of June. Further updates/relaxation on restriction guidance for the Archdiocese will be provided as needed. Finally, I wish to thank you – our parishioners – for your continued prayers and support. Even with the advances that have been made in combating the pandemic, these remain challenging times, and I am so grateful for your encouragement and understanding.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Stephen Schultz
