12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!"
The wind ceased and there was great calm. Then he asked them,
"Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?" - Mk 4:39-40

A note from the pastor

"Quiet! Be still!"

With these words, Jesus calmed the storm that was threatening the Apostles as their boats were being tossed about and filled with water in today's Gospel (Mark 4:35-41). It must have been a fierce storm indeed to have frightened these men, several of whom were seasoned fishermen who had made their living on the sea before becoming disciples of Jesus. They were so frightened that they woke up Jesus who was asleep in the boat. They needed him to be present to them in their panic and fear.

Certainly, Jesus can calm the worst storms in our lives as well. What are those storms? Given the events of the past year, I probably don't even need to pose the question. Do we struggle in our relationships? Do we have trust issues? Perhaps our storms are connected to physical or financial difficulties, or health fears. Maybe we wrestle with our faith, or lack of faith. Perhaps we are challenged by anxiety and depression. How wonderful that Jesus can calm those storms. He is there for us with his peace if we just turn our fears over to him. Just as he quieted the winds and calmed the waves on the Sea of Galilee, he can bring comfort to us.

As the disciples witnessed this miracle in the sea, they were struck with awe and wonder. "Who then is this" they ask themselves, "whom even wind and sea obey?" They were still learning who Jesus was, and the might of his power. Even though they followed him daily, listening to his words and witnessing his miracles, they were still uncertain. He had just rebuked the wind and the sea, and then he seemed to rebuke his own disciples as he asked them: "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?"

The truth is that in our journey to the Father, we are still learning who Jesus is as well. It is often a big leap to go from the Jesus we read about or hear in the Gospels, to the Jesus who lives fully in our hearts. There is a huge difference between knowing Jesus intellectually and fully becoming one with him.

In order to grow our faith, we need to deepen our relationship with Jesus – to spend more time with him daily, and include him in our thoughts and decisions, through prayer. We can read the Gospels and spend time with others who also believe in him so we can learn from their experience. This is a lived faith. For Jesus to be in our hearts, we must invite him in and then nourish that relationship. We can survive the storms in our life with his help, just as the disciples did. In loving Jesus, the storms with which we live will be calmed, and our faith will grow stronger.

Peter's Pence Collection Be a Witness of Charity

In your envelope packets and Online Giving there is a special collection for Peter's Pence Collection, which unites us and Catholics around the world more closely with the Holy Father in two ways: it supports the structures of the Holy See through which the Pope governs the Church as well as his charitable efforts to assist victims of war, oppression, natural disasters, and others most in need. Please be generous.

Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray;
and do thou,

O Prince of the heavenly host,
by the power of God,
cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits, who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls.

Amen.

Notice for Engaged Couples:

Engaged couples registered in our parish are reminded that they should contact Fr. Schultz at least six months before their proposed wedding date. This is to ensure sufficient time for preparation for Marriage.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER

My Jesus,

I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you.

Never permit me to be separated from you.
Amen.

Thoughts on Stewardship

As Catholics, we are not to focus only on ourselves, but are called by our Baptism to reach out and share our time, talent, and treasure with our brothers and sisters.

Vestment Colors

Question:

What do the colors of the priest's and deacon's vestments mean?

Answer:

In the Roman Rite of the Catholic Church, the colors of the vestments evolved over the course of several centuries and there was wide variation both in the colors used, and in the feasts and seasons associated with particular colors. It was Pope Innocent III (d. 1216) who gave us the basic outline that was later prescribed by Pope Saint Pius V in 1570. The various colors remind us of the dominant themes of a particular season or celebration.

- White: Used for the seasons of Christmas and Easter and in celebrations of the Lord, of Mary, the angels, and saints who were not martyrs. This color is also used in Masses for the dead, at baptisms, weddings and other festive celebrations.

- Red: As the color of both blood and fire, red is used on Palm Sunday and Good Friday, as well as Pentecost and special celebrations of the Holy Spirit. Moreover, red is used on the feasts and memorials of the Apostles and those saints who died as martyrs.

- Violet: The color for Advent and Lent. Violet may also be used in Masses for the dead and on All Souls Day (November 2).

- Green: A color of life and hope, green is used throughout Ordinary Time.

- Other colors: Rose may be used on the Third Sunday of Advent and the Fourth Sunday of Lent, black may be used in Masses of the dead and on All Souls Day, gold or silver may be used on solemn occasions in place of white, red, or green.
