At Our Lady of Fatima Parish we are committed to know, love and serve God through Word and Sacrament, through our shared experience as the Mystical Body of Christ, and through the call to full, conscious and active participation in parish life.

October 29, 2023

On Wednesday, November 1st, we will celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints which is a Holy Day of Obligation. Masses will be held at 6:30 am, 8:15 am and 5:30 pm. It is a day when we honor the lives of all saints – those officially recognized by the Church, as well as countless others known only to God. As part of the Apostle's Creed, we acknowledge our belief in the "Communion of Saints." The Communion of Saints describes the spiritual union that exists among the saints in Heaven, the souls in purgatory, and the faithful living on earth.

We are members of Christ's one Body, united in His divine life even beyond the grave, and are concerned with one another's salvation. St. Paul emphasizes this unity in Christ's Body in 1 Corinthians 12:12-27 and in Romans 12:4-16. St. Paul tells us that death cannot separate Christians from Christ or from one another. In that union, we call for help and support from those who have already won their crown of glory. In our human families we turn to one another requesting prayers. How much more should we turn to the saints in Heaven for their prayers and inspiration. Honor of the saints includes imitation of them, prayers requested of them, and reverence given to them for the holiness that they modeled. All reverence of saints is actually reverence of God, for we are honoring the holiness of God that was made present in their lives. Just as the moon does not give off its own light, but rather reflects the light of the sun, the holiness in the lives of the saints is a reflection of the light of Christ living through them.

Just as Paul asked fellow believers to pray for him (Romans 15:30; Colossians 4:3; Thessalonians 5:25; Ephesians 6:18-19; 2 Thessalonians 3:1), we now ask Paul and all the other saints in Heaven to pray for us. On the Solemnity of All Saints, we celebrate our unity in Christ with all of the saints, joining our prayers to theirs, and using them as role models for ourselves in answering God's call to salvation and holiness.

On Thursday, November 2nd, we will observe the Commemoration of all the Faithful Departed, also known as All Soul's Day, let us pause to remember those who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith. Masses will be offered at 6:30 am, 8:15 am, and 5:30 pm. We offer prayers for all the faithful departed, and particularly for those who have gone before us, but have not yet been admitted into heaven – those in purgatory. The Church teaches that our prayers, acts of charity and sacrifices can assist these souls in being cleansed of their sins, so that they may gain entrance into heaven. Their trust was in the Lord and their hope of eternal life is firmly grounded in the great love and mercy that Jesus has for each of us sinners. Remember what all those who have gone before us in death now know so well – that we are loved by Almighty God!

Update on Annual Catholic Appeal

We are now at the end of the month of October and there are only two months left to fulfill pledges made to this year's Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA) Campaign. As you know, the Annual Catholic Appeal is an archdiocesan campaign to help fund many of the ministries of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe. Our assigned goal is $38,000 and all paid pledges in excess of that goal are rebated back to the parish to be used in parish projects.

We are very grateful to those who have already paid their pledge in full. We hope that those who have not yet paid their pledge will continue to make payments and honor their commitment to the best of their ability. For those who have not already made a pledge to the 2023 Annual Catholic Appeal, it's not too late! You can still make a pledge using the forms available at the Parish Office or in the Church.

Many thanks to all who have paid on their pledges. Let's make this year's ACA campaign the most successful yet! --- Fr. Stephen Schultz

Saint of the Week

Saint Anthony Mary Claret | October 24

Saint Anthony Mary Claret is also known as the "spiritual father of Cuba." He was born in Salient in Catalonia, Spain, in 1807. He became a weaver, like his father, and was very talented. But he studied in his spare time to become a priest and was ordained in 1835. In 1849 the saint founded the Claretians, a religious institute of missionaries, and a companion order of women religious who served as teachers for girls.

From 1850 to 1857 he served as Archbishop of Santiago de Cuba, Cuba, where he worked diligently to reform both clergy and laity. He opposed concubinage and instructed black slaves, and championed family-owned farms instead of the mass farming of a sugar cash crop. These stances were vehemently opposed by many, and Saint Anthony was the target of assassins.

He was recalled to act as Queen Isabella II's confessor, a duty he reluctantly agreed to, with the exceptions that he would reside away from the court, attending the household only to hear confessions and instruct the children. While in Spain he founded the Religious Publishing House and wrote or published 200 Catholic books and pamphlets. He went into exile to France with the Queen's household during the Spanish Revolution of 1868.

The saint returned to Rome to Participate in Vatican I where he defended the infallibility of the Pope. He died in France in 1870 and was canonized in 1950 by Pope Pius XII.

All Saint's Day and All Soul's Day

Wednesday, November 1, 2023 is All Saint's Day, a Holy Day of Obligation. Mass will be offered at

- ♦ 6:30am,
- ♦ 8:15am (Our Lady of Fatima School Mass) and
- ♦ 5:30pm.

Thursday, November 2nd, is the Commemoration of all the Faithful Departed (All Soul's Day). It is not a Holy Day of Obligation, but it would very appropriate to attend Mass and pray for the souls of the faithful departed. Masses will be offered at 6:30am, 8:15am and 5:30pm.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.
