Diocese Announces Annual Priest Assignments

SPECIAL ASSIGNMENTS:

Very Rev. Fabio Garzón, V.F., in addition to his pastoral assignments as Pastor, St. Peter Parish (Douglas), San Felipe de Jesus Parish (Fennville), and St. Basil Parish (South Haven) Collaborative, and Dean of the Northern Deanery, has been appointed Vicar for Religious for the Diocese. In this role, Fr. Garzón will work with all of the Consecrated Religious Communities in the Diocese, primarily with the Sisters from Latin America, particularly the Missionary Servants of the Divine Spirit from La Ceja, Colombia, and the Sister Servants of the Holy Face from Nicaragua, who begin their apostolate in the Diocese this summer. Fr. Garzón assumes these additional responsibilities as he remains in his current pastoral assignments as Pastor and Dean.

Summer finally begins with our lovely Senior Lunch on Thursday, June 20 at noon in the Parish Hall.

Our menu is grilled chicken, potato salad, pea salad, cottage cheese with peaches, and rolls. The dessert will be ice cream treats from Grace of Douglas.

We hope to see you then!

GOSPEL MEDITATION A DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

If God is one, how can He be three? The most intelligent theologians have racked their brains over the problem, and the most prayerful ones have surrendered to the mystery. How it can be, we can't explain. But what it means, we can join Our God in an ever-unfolding relationship. Theologians speak of the immanent and economic Trinity. The Trinity is immanent in the sense that the Persons are close and entirely sufficient within God-self. In other words, God doesn't require us for God to exist. The word economic is rooted in the Greek word for management of a household or family. The Trinity is economic in the sense that God has invited us to be part of Him. He's growing the family! We see the dynamic here in today's Gospel.

Jesus says the Spirit "will take from what is mine and declare it to you" and that "everything that the Father has is mine." There is relationship here. Jesus speaks (and is) the word of the Father. The Holy Spirit speaks what He hears from the Son. The Father gives everything to the Son, and the Spirit speaks that inheritance over us. God invites us into the Trinitarian family!

The doctrine of the Trinity isn't something to brush off as overwhelming. After all, "the Spirit of truth... will guide you to all truth." This occurs most perfectly in the Church, who protects all that has been revealed by God in Scripture and gradually unpacked in tradition. We can trust the declarations of Her theologians and learn from the lives of Her saints. The Trinity may be a mystery, but, by the grace of God, we can have real truth about who God is and how we can love like Him.

Father's Day Blessing

Single fathers usually sit in the back row of their children's school performances. Fathers who are married usually sit as close to the front of the audiences, with their spouses. Why is this?

Well, we all know how important mothers are to the well-being of a family. However, we as a culture look at single fathers with a bit of suspicion. Fathers are as important as mothers are, but offer a different perspective on life and bring a much needed role in bringing up children. Let us welcome all fathers today to the front row of our lives and acknowledge how important they have been, and continue to be in our lives.

Let us pray...

Gracious God and Father, our first father,
You are the One who has brought us to life in this world you created.
You created us and everything around us. We turned away from you and only after disappointing
you did we return your love.

Look with favor on our earthly fathers. They helped create us in your image. We have disappointed them, but have come to realize just how important they are to us.

Bless all our fathers, living and deceased, with comfort and health. We bring all their needs to you and ask for strength so they may live worthy lives.

We ask all this in the name of your Son, our model of what it means to reverence our fathers.

In Christ's name.

Amen.

"Lord, the one You love is sick." Jn 11:3

The St. Peter Prayer Line unites parishioners in a spirit of Christian Charity to pray for the needs of our parish especially: Reese Holmes, Saúl Suárez,Jr., Ana Lilia Salinas, Fr. TEEN POOL PARTY

Thursday, June 20 from 4 – 7pm
At the Giles Residence

All teens are welcome to join us at the pool party to brainstorm and discuss their ideas to help with the Capitol Campaign. Now is the time for you to get involved and help engage the youth and children of our parish community in understanding and participating in this effort. With your help, ideas and participation, we can ensure that the youth feel part of the church, enhance their understanding of personal stewardship, and inspire the adult members of our parish. For more Information, email Alisha Giles @ aisha.giles@stpeter-douglas.org

Why Non-Catholics Cannot Receive Communion at a Catholic Church (and Vice-Versa)

In some of the various Protestant and Evangelical congregations, their belief regarding communion is very close to what Catholics believe. However, only a priest ordained by a bishop who has authentic apostolic authority can effect the change of bread and wine into the real body, blood, soul, and divinity of Christ. Which means that these congregations, even though they believe they are receiving the Real Presence, are not actually doing so. They are receiving a piece of bread and some wine. In most of the Protestant, Evangelical, and non-denominational congregations, however, not only do they not have a validly ordained priest, but they also do not even believe in the Real Presence. Their communion service is meant to be merely a symbol.

So, either way you look at it, it is essentially correct to say that in the Protestant, Evangelical, non-denominational, and other such communities, communion, or the Lord's Supper, is merely a symbol. The question is, does that make it okay for Catholics to receive? The answer is: No, it does not.

In the Catholic Church, we believe the reception of Communion is the sign and symbol of union — union between Christ and those who receive Him, and union between all those who receive Christ in this sacrament. Just so, it is a lie for someone who is not Catholic to receive Communion in the Catholic Church, when there is first no union with the Catholic Church. When you receive Communion in the Catholic Church, you are saying with your body that you are in union with the Church and that you believe as we believe. And not just in regard to the Real Presence, but also in regard to the Pope, to Mary, to the other Sacraments, to the Communion of Saints, the priesthood, salvation, and so on. If there is no union, there should be no Communion.

Pintar la Iglesia

El viernes 22 de junio y sábado 23 vamos a estar pintando el interior de la iglesia. Requiere muchas manos para terminar el trabajo antes de domingo para poder celebrar la misa dominical. Llame a la oficina y deje recado si quiere ayudar o hable con José Alfaro o Lorenzo Muñoz.

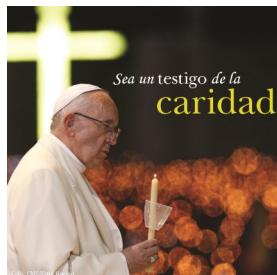

Ayuda con las Clases de Doctrina

Vamos a necesitar más voluntarios para las clases de la Primera Comunión y la Confirmación en septiembre. Durante el verano tenemos una oportunidad para recibir capacitación para formar a nuestras familias en la fe. La necesidad más urgente es con los adolescentes para la Confirmación. Para poder dejar un nuevo grupo comenzar vamos a necesitar catequistas. Servir en la catequesis es una misión. Uno es llamado de Jesucristo. En la oración medita si Nuestro Señor Jesús esté llamándote a servir a su pueblo en el ministerio de la catequesis.

Aparten las Fechas

7 de julio La Misa a las 12:30 p.m. con el Sr. Obispo para marcar la clausura del Programa de Catholic Extension de las Siervas del Divino Espíritu.

Sea un testigo de la caridad

En dos semanas realizaremos la Colecta Peter's Pence, la cual le proporciona al papa Francisco los fondos necesarios para llevar a cabo sus obras de calidad en el mundo. Lo recaudado beneficia a nuestros hermanos y hermanas que viven en la periferia de la sociedad, incluyendo a las víctimas de la guerra, la opresión y los desastres naturales. Por favor, sean generosos. Para más información, visiten www.usccb.org/peters-pence.

Voluntarios

Tenemos necesidad del servicio que algunos miembros de la parroquia que pueden acompañar a las Hermanas y el Sacerdote que vienen a visitar los campos alrededor de San Felipe. Si puede ayudar aunque sea un poco, hable con la Hermana Maryud al 269-203-5833. Necesitamos formar un grupo de voluntarios antes del 25 de junio.

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA - RECONOCE A DIOS EN TUS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS

La Iglesia es una, santa, católica y apostólica. Esa unidad se refleja para nosotros en la Santísima Trinidad: un Dios en tres personas. Somos una comunidad diversa con diferentes orígenes, culturas, realidades y dones, pero somos verdaderamente una. Desafortunadamente, a menudo olvidamos esto y funcionamos como un cuerpo fraccionado. Competimos innecesariamente unos contra otros, nos juzgamos unos a otros en lugar de ayudar, y nos quedamos callados cuando nuestros hermanos y hermanas piden ayuda.

Cuando nos tomamos en serio nuestro estilo de vida de corresponsabilidad, vemos que nuestras vidas no nos pertenecen realmente a nosotros mismos. Queremos ofrecer nuestra propia existencia a Dios y al Cuerpo de Cristo. Si descubrimos que somos resistentes a esa plenitud de generosidad, o comenzamos a usar nuestros dones de una manera que fractura a la comunidad, entonces trabajamos activamente en contraste con esta marca de la Iglesia.

La Iglesia que fue establecida por Jesús y fortificada por la institución de los sacramentos no puede ser destruida y privada de Sus cuatro marcas. El elemento humano puede estar tenso y herido, pero ni siquiera las puertas del infierno prevalecerán contra esta institución viva en el Espíritu. Nuestras acciones pueden ser testigos de esa realidad o pueden ofender. Oremos para que suficientes de nosotros escojamos el camino santo para que todo el mundo vea que Dios es real, Jesús está vivo y nosotros somos UNO.
