CATHOLIC CHURCHES

A Catholic Community of Love, Faith and Hope

25th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“For the children of this world are more prudent in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. No servant can serve two masters. He will either hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and mammon.” - Lk 16:8b, 13

25º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

“Pues los que pertenecen a este mundo son más hábiles en sus negocios que los que pertenecen a la luz.

No hay criado que pueda servir a dos amos, pues odiará a uno y amará al otro, o se apegará al primero y despreciará al segundo. En resumen, no pueden ustedes servir a Dios y al dinero”. - Lc 16, 8. 13

Catholic Social Teaching in the Culture of Life

First, to get the story straight, I'm using "Catholic Social Teaching" and "Catholic Social Doctrine" interchangeably. "Doctrine" has been coming into use more and more, recently, and I think "doctrine" sounds more important and more authoritative. But "teaching" is what this has been called for a long time, and the abbreviation "CST" is commonly applied. So I'll use CST for brevity and "Catholic Social Doctrine" when I'm trying to impress you — or emphasize the importance and authority of this doctrine of the Church. (See? I just did it, right there.)

CST is presented in Seven Themes. Here, again, I think there's an opportunity in terminology. "Seven Precepts" or "Seven Principles" would sound a lot more commanding, don't you think? But it's "themes."

But seriously... The context of this review of CST is the building of a Culture of Life, so that we can learn how to live the Gospel as individuals, as a community of faith, as the universal Church, and as a society. If we do this, we will transcend the divisions that have slowed progress, inhibited necessary change, and perhaps even helped to empty our churches. So this is really an urgent matter, this Culture of Life.

Reference: The source for this series except as noted, is:

USCCB.org/beliefs-and-teachings/what-we-believe/catholic-social-teaching/seven-themes-of-catholic-social-teaching

Theme 1: The Dignity of the Human Person

The dignity of the human person is the foundation of a moral vision for society. CST is founded, based, and built on this principle. This foundation is as important for what it includes as for what it rejects. But, to be clear, it rejects abortion, euthanasia, cloning, embryonic stem cell research, the death penalty, and war when civilians are under attack.

It's very important to note that the rejection of the death penalty and of war that intentionally targets civilians is included in the same paragraph— the first — of the first theme of Catholic Social Doctrine. This shows that embracing and living this teaching does not compromise the familiar pro-life position and teaching of the Church. On the contrary, this is where that teaching comes from.

But it is not enough to simply condemn what we reject. We are the Body of Christ in this place and time. We are the Church; we are the "institution" that promotes this teaching. In order to put these foundational principles into action, and to make their fruits a reality, there are things that we must do, things that we must work to change in our immediate community and the larger society. There are some 60 million Catholics in the US today. If we were to put Catholic Social Doctrine into practice — all of it — the world would be transformed!

We're still just on the first paragraph of this remarkable document. Here's its concluding sentence: We believe that every person is precious, that people are more important than things, and that the measure of every institution is whether it threatens or enhances the life and dignity of the human person.

60 YEAR ANNIVERSARY

CLP

Congratulations to Pat & Lou Burroughs, who celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary on September 8. May God continue to bless the love in your hearts and your life together with an ever deepening faith.

Congratulations to Frederick and Laura (Sokol) McGee who were joined together in Holy Matrimony last weekend. May Christ's peace, love, and joy always enrich your marriage!

Another big thank you to everyone who donated to Standing With Moms in Need. The final amount donated to Birthright was $3600. A special thank you to the Knights of Columbus and Open Vessels.

Last Saturday, nearly 50 volunteers came together in the St. Peter parking lot to build simple but sturdy beds on Bunks Across America day. In three hours 50 beds were built for the nonprofit Sleep in Heavenly Peace to deliver to children who do not have a bed. Thanks to all who helped!

Thank You!

Un Vistazo a San Felipe esta semana...

San Jerónimo

TE INVITAMOS A CONOCER LA PALABRA DE DIOS Y A ORAR CON ELLA.

Perteneciente a una familia acomodada, Eusebio Hierónimo cursó estudios en Roma.

Possiblemente hacia el año 366 fue bautizado por el papa Liberio. En los años siguientes San Jerónimo realizó numerosos viajes por Europa y se sintió profundamente atraído por la vida monástica. Hacia el año 373 decidió marchar a Oriente y pasó algún tiempo en Antioquía. Fue entonces cuando, tras una crisis espiritual, se prometió no volver a leer ni a poseer literatura pagana.

30 de septiembre, el catolicismo homenajea la figura de San Jerónimo, considerado uno de los Padres de la Iglesia o Santos Padres junto con Agustín de Hipona, Gregorio Magno y Ambrosio de Milán.

Jerónimo es originario de Estridón, Dalmacia, y conocido porque tradujo la Biblia del griego y del hebreo al latín por encargo del papa Dámaso I. Con las obras resultantes ejerció un gran influjo sobre la forma de traducir e interpretar las Sagradas Escrituras y marcó el uso del latín como medio de comunicación en la historia de la Iglesia.
