Transition Timeline

Fr. Fabio's last day at St. Peter:
July 4

Fr. Evelio's first day at St. Peter:
July 6

Ordination of Bishop-elect Edward Lohse:
July 25

Beginning July 8-9: St. Peter Parishioners will be invited to wear name tags at Mass; this will last 3-4 months and then perhaps continue once a month or so.

Mid-July: Fr. Fabio takes up residence at St. Thomas More Parish near the campus of WMU in Kalamazoo. (He will commute from here until the new living space is ready.)

Welcoming events for Fr. Evelio will take place a few weeks after his arrival so that he can make a "soft entry" into the parish community as he also settles into his new living quarters here in the Rectory.

Doing, Receiving, Becoming, Being, Doing

We are in a transition at the moment, both as a parish and as the universal Church. The Church transitions as of this weekend from the extended season of Lent - Easter - Pentecost to Ordinary Time. The two Solemnities, Trinity and Body and Blood of Christ, form something of a bridge between the season of liturgical white and the long season of green, which is Ordinary Time.

In our parish, the transition is front and center: we are preparing to welcome a new pastor who will provide sacramental ministry, spiritual guidance, teaching, and vision. Fr. Evelio will build on a very fine foundation, built in our parish under the pastoral leadership of Fr. Fabio, to whom we will bid a most fond farewell in just a few weeks.

The good news in all this is that our outgoing and incoming pastors are longtime friends who highly respect each other as individuals and as priests who are called to represent Christ in the unique ministry affirmed in Holy Orders.

This means that we do not have to put our parish life, growth, prayer, worship, formation, or community life on "pause" and wait to see what our new "master" wants us to do. Instead, and much better, we are not only free but compelled to continue to live our own call (the one we received in Baptism and confirmed in ... well, Confirmation ... and which we enrich each week or even each day in the celebration of the Eucharist.

In Baptism, we are called to worship God by living our relationship with Christ. We've had an extended period these several weeks, reflecting on the Eucharist and its expression of the Real Presence of Christ not only in our midst but in our very own body, blood, soul, and humanity.

Every week (more often for some), we gather AS the Body of Christ to hear the Word of God proclaimed, and then, having prayed along with the priest the Eucharistic Prayer and having affirmed our commitment to this prayer with our own hearty "Amen!" We take the Bread of Life and Eat it, and — at last — drink from the Cup of the New Covenant. But we are not finished yet.

After this heavenly banquet, with Christ now Really Present within us ("walking tabernacles," as we heard in last week's homily), we are sent into the world to proclaim the Good News. And what is the Good News? "The kingdom of God is at hand." And how do we proclaim it? By our interactions with others both up close and in the global perspective.

The world has never needed the Good News more than today (it has also never needed it less...) But how will the Good News reach those who need to hear it? Words have become so cheap, and so predictable as to be almost meaningless. It's very difficult to convince anyone of anything they don't already think or believe. We used to turn on the news to learn what has been or is happening. Today, we select the source of the news so that we will be sure to hear what we want to hear. Every single person reading these words lives in a unique "information bubble" tailored to individual preferences and history.

So how do we break through? By action. We recognize who we are; we believe in what we are doing when we celebrate the Eucharist; we find that we are filled with the Real Presence of Christ. And then it dawns on us that this gift is not meant to be kept privately but to be shared through action. We act like people who are filled with the Real Presence of Christ. We take to heart what Bishop Bradley calls the "Mission of the Eucharist," and we "Go forth to love and serve the Lord," who is a Lord of love, mercy, and justice.

As we savor our reflections on the gifts Fr. Fabio has brought to our parish community, we prepare to welcome Fr. Evelio with open arms and hearts, while continuing to DO the Eucharist, to RECEIVE the Eucharist, and to LIVE what Christ in the Eucharist calls us to do.

Parishioners gathered last weekend for two FabioFest celebrations. Friday evening's party included music by Caitlin Cusack, a song by the choir, a "roast" by Eric and Barbara Conklin, beer & wine, and wonderful hors d'oeuvres. Sunday afternoon's "cookout" was indoors because of the weather but offered a great casual family time with tasty burgers, hot dogs, and picnic sides. For all of the photos check out the St. Peter website at stpeter-douglas.org.

Congratulations to Miguel & Marlene (Puente) Mejia who were joined together in Holy Matrimony last weekend. May Christ's peace, love, and joy always enrich your marriage!

FabioFest Thank Yous!

To Geri Pantelleria, Nancy Maslanka, Alisha Giles, Ceci Garcia for concepts, planning, coordination, and execution of two wonderful social gatherings.

To Ralph Hensley for finding the funds needed to make these gatherings happen.

To the several volunteers for setup, cleanup, last-minute adjustments, incidental needs.

To Barbara and Eric Conklin for a pitch-perfect "roast" of Fr. Fabio at Friday night's party.

To Caitlin and Brendan (guest performer) for Friday night's music.

To the Choir for a lovely and loving musical presentation on Friday.

To the Knights of Columbus for providing perfect, delicious burgers and hotdogs on Sunday afternoon in spite of the rain, and especially to Gene Adamczyk for recruiting and leading a very effective and congenial team.

To San Felipe parishioners who provided rice and beans for Sunday's cookout.

To the cookie-bakers for Sunday.

To Mike and Ruth Johnson for the delicious Summer Shandy for Friday evening.

To Jim and Carol Gonzalez for making plenty of wonderful wine available for Friday.

To Dominick and Juliana Testa for providing bottled water for both gatherings.

To Fr. Fabio for being a good sport, a wonderful pastor, and a clear messenger of Christ to our parish community and beyond.

To everyone who attended Friday or Sunday or both: what a great experience of community as people of love, faith and hope!

Support the works of the Holy Father through Peter's Pence Collection next weekend, June 24-25

Felicidades a Anabel, hija de José y Ángela Puente, que el pasado Domingo hizo su Primera Comunión. Que viva siempre su fe con alegría.

Felicidades a Miguel y Marlene (Puente) Mejia quienes se unieron en Santo Matrimonio el pasado fin de semana. ¡Que la paz, el amor y la alegría de Cristo siempre enriquezcan su matrimonio!
