Simple Steps to Receiving the Sacrament

Now that we are in the midst of the Lenten season, our parish will be offering a communal celebration of the Sacrament of Reconciliation. It's fairly common knowledge that many people have pretty much eliminated this sacrament from their lives—perhaps not consciously, but simply pushed it aside.

Let's face it. It's not easy to admit our sins, and it's even harder to confess them to another person, even if it is a priest.

As difficult as this can be, it is one opportunity to actually ask ourselves how we have acted towards our families, spouses and those around us. While I might call myself a Catholic, have I done what I need to do in living my faith? Lent is a perfect time to give honest answers to these questions.

How we approach the reception of God's mercy is important. We are God's children. We come to the father to ask his forgiveness through the mercy of Jesus given by the ordained priest. It's not just ritual. It is life.

Examination of conscience. This is not supposed to be a torture session. Actually, our consciences will bring to mind any serious sins we have committed. Even people who have been away from the confessional for many years, even decades, realize that knowing our sins is not the hard part. It's actually owning up to them to another. Keep in mind that God knows the whole past in every detail anyway. We make an honest effort to know ourselves and our failings. But, again, it's God's mercy that is most important.

Sorrow for sin. If we are serious about going to confession, sorrow comes almost automatically. After all, we are admitting we are sinners right up front. That truthful admission brings sorrow. But please don't confuse sorrow with emotions or feelings. You may still struggle with feelings of resentment and yet tell God you are sorry for the time you were angry with another person. Sorrow is in the heart (not feelings) and in the will.

Confession of sin. Confess your sins as simply and as honestly as you can. It is easy to link sin with a commandment: missing Mass (third), anger (fifth), impurity (sixth, ninth). There is no need for great details, nor is the priest interested in detail. If you need help, don't hesitate to ask the priest for assistance.

Receive penance given. Listen to the words of the priest as he tries to guide you and remind you of God's love for you.

Act of contrition. Making an act of contrition can be very short: "O, God, I am sorry for all my sins, now and in the past, and I will try with all my heart not to sin again."

Thanks be to God. Leave the confessional and thank God for his forgiveness and pray the prayers the priest gave you for a penance.

Not to Worry about Past Sins

Now, a very important point. When God forgives sin through the absolution of the priest, he forgives ALL our sins, including those we cannot remember. We need to be sincerely sorry for all our sins. Otherwise, why go to the Lord for forgiveness?

If you later remember something you forgot, dismiss it from your mind. It is gone forever, and the Lord wants you to trust his mercy, put the past aside and live each new day in his love, one day at a time. What happens when we spend too much time on the past to make sure we got it all is that we become self-centered. And let's face it: We will never get it all. Confession is much more about trust than exact numbers and detail.

Finally, people wonder how often we should receive this sacrament. It is required only for serious or mortal sin. But the sacrament is a gift, and it is good to present ourselves to the Lord even when we have nothing serious to confess. As difficult as this sacrament may sometimes be, isn't it true that we leave with a sense of peace, a fresh start, a feeling of having faced our weaknesses and admitted them and received forgiveness? That's my experience.

Widows' Ministry

Wednesdays Widows

Wednesdays Widows is a new group forming in our parish for widows. It was created based on a common need of women who have recently lost their husbands. It is not limited to recent widows.

Widows gather in Fr. Carberry Hall on Wednesdays at 10:15, led by Betty Wolf. The group enjoys the comradery and lively discussions on topics ranging from grief support to prayer, as well as redemptive suffering.

Wednesdays Widows sees themselves as a prayer force for the parish as a whole (different from the Parish Prayer Line). Their prayers for our catechists, liturgical ministers, priest, and staff become an unseen force strengthening the parish.

All women who have lost their husbands are encouraged to participate in the friendship of Wednesdays Widows.

Each Wednesday 10:15-11:45am

UPDATE:

For Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

When a Communicant approaches you in the Communion line with their hands crossed over their chest (the sign they would like a blessing), please do not touch the individual or make any gesture of blessing. Simply say to the person, "May Christ be with you." This request comes directly from Archbishop Sample and the representatives of the priests of the Archdiocese, who are continuing to discuss and reflect upon the issue.

If you have questions about this, please contact James Bartel, our parish's Liturgy Director, at jbartel@olspx.org.

Archbishop's Seminary Tea,

Wednesday, April 24th

3:00 to 6:00 p.m. at the Portland Golf Club

The Seminary Tea Committee was founded in 1935 by a group of 22 Catholic women in the Archdiocese of Portland with a mission to provide financial assistance for seminarians preparing to serve in the Archdiocese of Western Oregon. The Archbishop's Seminary Tea, has continued its tradition of bringing the community together in a warm and gracious social setting to meet the Archbishop and special guests from the Archdiocese and Mount Angel Abbey and Seminary. Event venues over the years have included a steamship, stately residences of Archbishops and benefactors, parish halls and private clubs.

This year's event will be held on Wednesday, April 24th, 3:00 to 6:00pm at the Portland Golf Club. Along with Archbishop Alexander K. Sample and Most Reverend Peter L. Smith, special guests will include Most Reverend John Vlazny, Most Reverend Kenneth Steiner, Monsignor Joseph Betschart, President-Rector of Mount Angel Seminary and Right Reverend Jeremy Driscoll, O.S.B., Abbot and Chancellor of Mt. Angel Abbey and Seminary. The Tea also provides a wonderful opportunity to meet many of the seminarians who have devoted themselves to preparing for the priesthood and service in our community. General admission is $35 and $10 for students. Purchase at the Tea or in advance at www.seminarytea.org.

All are welcome!

All children are invited to celebrate Easter through song.

The children's choir will sing one song at the 11 am Mass on Easter, April 21st at . They will sing:

The Tomb is Empty

Listen to it here: <https://youtu.be/plzBfclxsrk>

Song practice will be Saturday April 13th at 12:30pm in the parish office music room.

Join the Parish Choir for Easter

Our parish choir will sing for the Easter Vigil Mass April 20, at 8:30 PM and at 11:00 AM Mass on Easter Sunday, April 21. Rehearsal is April 13, Saturday at 10:30 AM in the Music Room in the Parish Office. An additional rehearsal will be scheduled in coming weeks. We need sopranos and baritones.

All who love to sing are welcome to join us.

1:00 PM SUNDAY: Gosnell: The Trial of America's Biggest Serial Killer (2018)

The film is the shocking true story of the investigation and trial of Dr. Kermit Gosnell -- his 30 year killing spree and the political and media establishment that tried to cover it up. Who can the investigators really trust when a routine drugs investigation uncovers a scandal that goes all the way to the top?

2:30 PM You Can't Take it with You (1938)

A man from a family of rich snobs becomes engaged to a woman from a good-natured but decidedly eccentric family. Jimmy Stewart, Jean Arthur & Lionel Barrymore. There is an inevitable clash of classes and lifestyles showing the true value of living one's life.

There will be no Taize Prayer in April so that everyone can attend the Lenten Reconciliation Service. Taize Prayer will return in May.

Thank you to the Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion to the Sick and Homebound who came to last Saturday's Morning of Reflection. If you were not able to come, don't fret, another Morning of Reflection for this important ministry will be offered during the Easter Season.

In today's Gospel, Jesus is the model of compassion and kindness. He shows us how to be merciful and nonjudgmental.

When we give to the poor, God indeed pours his love, peace and mercy into our hearts and into the hearts of those suffering in poverty.
