Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

- 1) Jeremiah 23:1-6
- 2) Ephesians 2:13-18
- 3) Mark 6:30-34

FOCUS: We are sheep who follow the Good Shepherd, who is here for us and has much to teach us.

Today's readings highlight the glory of Christ's ministry, which was foretold by the prophets and inclusive of all people. The crowds followed Jesus, seeking his teaching and his healing. We, too, are members of this body whom he shepherds; we are taught, fed, and healed. How can we pass on this joyful message of comfort to those around us?

What's Happening

Update on the Archbishop's Catholic Appeal

Thanks to a very generous donor, our parish has reached 100% of its goal for this year's Archbishop's Catholic Appeal. Thank you to everyone who supported this year's appeal. Your gifts will go far in sustaining not only the many ministries throughout the Archdiocese, but also here at Our Lady of Sorrows. God bless you all! So guess what—no more announcements!!!

Registering for Religious Education

Registration for next year's Religious Education programs will open in August, and information and registration forms will soon be available on the parish website. Next year's offerings will include: Catechism classes for children in grades 1 through 8, Confirmation preparation for teens, and Faith Formation for Adults, which will include RCIA for those interested in joining the Catholic Church.

In Memoriam

A Memorial Mass will be celebrated for Mr. Joseph Radich on Friday, July 30th, at 1:30 pm, followed by a reception in the gym.

If you happen to remember Mr. Radich, and have a story or picture of him to share, the Radich Family would love to hear from you. Anything that could be used for a "wall of memories" would be loved and appreciated. Contact Angelo at coloradich@gmail.com.

Lay Ministry

We are once again scheduling lay ministers to serve at Sunday Mass, and the current ministry schedule is available in the Sacristy in the church, and on the parish website.

If you previously served as a lay minister before the pandemic, and you want to serve again but your name does not appear on the ministry schedule, please let James know in the office. Also, if your name appears, but you do not yet want to volunteer as a minister, let James know.

We are always in need of volunteers to serve as Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, lectors, and altar servers. If the Holy Spirit is calling you to serve, then please see James today.

Job Opportunity

Are you currently looking for work? Interested in earning some extra money? One of our parishioners is in need of someone who can do maintenance and cleaning tasks around the house. If interested, call Dolores at 971-808-8417.

Coffee and Doughnuts Returns

We are happy to announce the return of coffee and doughnuts on Sunday mornings following the 8:30 am and 11:00 am Masses. However, we are in need of volunteers to lay out the doughnuts, make the coffee, and serve. The sign-up sheets are in Fr. Carberry Hall, and we'll gladly train you. After all, this important ministry of hospitality is a wonderful way to meet your fellow parishioners.

Taize Prayer Returns

Beginning Thursday evening, August 5, Taize Prayer for Inner Peace will once again be offered at 7:00 pm on the first Thursday of each month. Taize is a very simple, but peaceful form of prayer comprised of music, Scripture, intercessory prayer, and silent meditation. Please come, join us, and allow yourself time to relax with the Lord.

Who's that priest?

While Fr. Chrispine is away on vacation, we are very fortunate to have The Very Reverend Richard Paperini with us. Msgr. Paperini is the former rector of Mt. Angel Seminary, and has served as a faithful priest of the Archdiocese for many years. Please help him to feel welcome, and be sure to read Fr. Chrispine's letter in this same bulletin, sent to us all the way from Kenya, Africa.

Bequests and Estate Planning

I give, devise, and bequeath the sum of $_____ to the Archdiocese of Portland, in Oregon, for the sole benefit of Our Lady of Sorrows Church, located at 5239 SE Woodstock BLVD, Portland, Oregon, to be used under the direction and control of Rev. Father Chrispine Otieno, Pastor, or the priest-in-charge at the time of my death.

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

There's an ordinary pine grove located on a tree farm not too far from town where life's stresses and demands seem to melt away. It is here that all that seemed so important out there no longer is and one can get lost in the rows of trees and majestic beauty. God is here and all is good. We need to connect with the Divine Source of all that is in order to understand what it is we are doing and why we are doing it. Otherwise, things stop making sense and bitterness can overcome one's spirit. It's okay to play once in a while and to discover that place of profound life and peace. People always have needs and there is constantly something to do. And while all of that is necessary and we are needed, there is also that inner solitude within that needs to be celebrated and released.

We all need a pine grove. It's that little place we can go and leave all that consumes us behind. It's a place where technology can be set aside and wonder, and awe given some time. We don't have to text, calculate, or orchestrate anything in the pine grove. It is a somewhat deserted place where all of that can be set aside and we can just be. The anger, frustration, exhaustion, discouragement, helplessness, and occasional apathy, all can fall to the ground like all of those pine needles that once held their place on the branch of a Frasier Fir. The needles can let go. We can let go. We are beings connected with Being and we all need to remember what really matters, who really matters and what life is truly all about. We need to find that place where we can rest and let go of all of the barnacles we accumulate. Rest, breathe, seek, and love.

The world will need us again when we leave the pine grove. It will all be waiting for us, beckoning for our attention. But we will have prayed and will have marveled at the silence and the beauty of goodness. We can go back, ready, and eager to listen, to help, to heal, to cry, to embrace, and attend to all that is asked of us. But, having let go of the distractions in that deserted place we will have a renewed sense of purpose. We will know better Who it is we serve and what we are meant to do. It will all be clearer now that we have been Divinely touched and refreshed.
