- 3) Matthew 4:12-23 or 4:12-17

FOCUS: Jesus calls us to live in intentional and faithful discipleship.

In today's Gospel, Jesus calls his first disciples by name. Their response is immediate and total – they leave everything behind and accept his invitation. We gather today to celebrate this Eucharist because we, too, have been called to follow Christ in intentional and faithful discipleship. Today we ponder that call and renew our response.

What's Happening

Special Year of St. Francis

January 10, 2026 to January 10, 2027

In celebration of the 800th anniversary of the death of St. Francis of Assisi, Pope Leo XIV has proclaimed a Special Year of St. Francis, during which it is hoped that every Christian, "following the example of the Saint of Assisi, may himself become a model of holiness of life and a constant witness of peace." The year began on January 10, 2026, and will continue until January 10, 2027.

In the decree announcing the jubilee, the Vatican's Apostolic Penitentiary noted that previous jubilees have drawn inspiration from the saint and his work and said that "2026 will mark the culmination and fulfillment of all previous celebrations."

"This Year of St. Francis spurs all of us, each according to our possibilities, to imitate the poor man of Assisi, to form ourselves as far as possible on the model of Christ," the decree states. "Our time is not very different from that in which Francis lived, and precisely in the light of this, his teaching is perhaps even more valid and understandable today. When Christian charity languishes, ignorance spreads like immorality, and those who exalt concord among peoples do so more out of selfishness than out of a sincere Christian spirit, when the virtual takes over the real, disagreements and social violence are part of everyday life, and peace becomes more insecure and distant every day."

In a letter to the ministers general of the Franciscan Family Conference, Pope Leo emphasized that St. Francis continues to speak to us today because "his life points to the authentic source of peace."

"May the example and spiritual legacy of this saint, strong in faith, steadfast in hope, and ardent in active charity toward others, inspire in all the importance of trusting in the Lord, of dedicating oneself to a life faithful to the Gospel, of accepting and illuminating with faith and prayer every circumstance and action of life," the pope wrote.

The pope's letter marking the start of the jubilee year was read during a celebration at the Basilica of St. Mary of the Angels in Assisi, which houses the Chapel of the Transit, marking the site where St. Francis died. The jubilee year carries with it the possibility of receiving a plenary indulgence. A plenary indulgence is a grace granted by the Catholic Church through the merits of Jesus Christ to remove the temporal punishment due to sin. When we sin, we commit an offense against God, and while we receive forgiveness through the sacrament of reconciliation, the effects of that sin sometimes remain. A plenary indulgence heals that wound, removing all temporal punishment from that sin while a partial indulgence removes some temporal punishment.

Pope Leo's Prayer to St. Francis

St. Francis, our brother, you who eight hundred years ago went to meet sister death like a pacified man, intercede for us with the Lord. You recognized true peace in the Crucifix of San Damiano, teach us to seek in Him the source of all reconciliation that breaks down every wall. You who, unarmed, crossed the lines of war and misunderstanding, give us the courage to build bridges where the world erects borders, in this time afflicted by conflicts and divisions, intercede so that we may become peacemakers: unarmed and disarming witnesses of the peace that comes from Christ.

Amen

Universal Church Appeal

Your Gift, Your Choice, Our shared Mission

Every Year The Archdiocese under the guidance of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, brings to us opportunities to support both Domestic and International charitable organizations doing important work to spread the Good news, and support those most vulnerable in our world.

Beginning this year, the Archdiocese is combining the former national second collections into one streamlined Universal Church appeal which will be taken on the weekend of July 12, 2026. Instead of second collections taken each month you can now donate to those organizations that are dear to your heart at anytime on line.

Please visit osd.archdpx.org/universal-church-appeal to see details about all of the organizations that are need of our support. Please consider donating to all of these organizations.

Through the website you can designate how much you would like to donate to each of the organizations, or you can enter a total amount that can then be spread across the multiple organizations that you choose.

Prefer to Give Directly? While the portal makes it easy to support multiple causes with one gift, you're always welcome to donate straight to the source (Links are provided on the Archdiocese webpage)

This year, you don't have to wait for a specific weekend to support the causes you care about most. Participating is as easy as 1-2-3:

1. Explore the Needs: Read below to see and learn about the breadth of the Church's work across the US and the globe.
2. Direct Your Gift: Decide which ministries you wish to support and for what amount. The choice is entirely yours.
3. Submit with Confidence: Use the simple form to finalize your gift. We handle the administrative work of forwarding your donation to the respective organizations.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

I was 22 years old, lying in bed one night while on a pilgrimage, when I suddenly sensed an idea in my mind: “Go to the seminary.” There was no voice, no vision, but a gentle and unmistakable clarity. I simply prayed, “Lord, if that’s from you, let me find great joy in it.” Three days later, my heart was bursting with joy. I dropped everything and entered the seminary. The older I get, the stranger my rather careless and hasty departure seems to me. I followed not because it made sense, or because I was especially brave. I went because the Lord called me.

Something like this happens in today’s Gospel. Jesus walks by Simon, Andrew, James, and John and says, “Come after me” (Matthew 4:19). And immediately they leave their nets and follow. There’s no explanation, no hesitation ... just movement. Why? As St. John says, “In this is love: not that we have loved God, but that he loved us” (1 John 4:10). They do not leave their nets because his call made perfect, calculable sense. They left them because they were called. And Jesus’ call is powerful.

Take a moment this week to remember when Christ first called you. However small or quiet it was, recall it, and give thanks. The more we marvel that Christ has called us personally, the more passionately and freely we will follow him.

— Father John Muir
