FOCUS: God raised this Jesus; of this we are all witnesses.

Perhaps we can identify with the two disciples who were on the road to Emmaus. They most likely felt despair and discouragement, but when Jesus revealed himself to them that despair was turned into joy and they rushed to tell the other disciples. If we today continue to open ourselves to God's movement in our lives, we can feel that same joy and be energized to share the Good News with others.

3RD SUNDAY IN EASTER

Legatus

Ambassadors for Christ

Legatus is an international organization of Catholic business leaders and executives committed to study, live and spread the Catholic faith. Legatus provides its members the opportunity to deepen their relationship with God and discover how Catholic truth and values can help them meet the challenges they face on a daily basis. Spouses are full members, providing additional opportunities to enhance marriage and family life. Monthly meetings start with Mass, followed by socializing and fine dining - complemented by dynamic and informative presentations by expert or nationally known speakers.

Chartered in 2001, our Portland Chapter is welcoming new members.

3rd Sunday OF EASTER

They returned to Jerusalem where they found gathered together the eleven and those with them who were saying, "The Lord has truly been raised and has appeared to Simon!" Then the two recounted what had taken place on the way and how he was made known to them in the breaking of bread. - Lk 24:33-35

Your gift to the
Archbishop's Catholic Appeal supports
Forming Shepherds, Sending Missionaries

The Archbishop's Catholic Appeal invites every Catholic in the Archdiocese of Portland to live out their faith by supporting the Church's mission of forming disciples, and sharing Christ's love across western Oregon. By supporting our parish, in making our goal for the ABCA 2026, you are participating in our mission of faith, hope, and generosity, a moment of Discipleship and service-from Altar to Apostolate. This year the goal for Our Lady of Sorrows is to raise $24,000. Last year we were successful in meeting our goal, and received in return safety grants that we used to maintain the viability, beauty, and safety of our parish. A win win for everyone involved. Please prayerfully consider contributing the this years appeal. Together we can support the catholic church in Western Oregon, support our parish, and form Shepherds, send Missionaries, and deepen the faith of our community.

St. Vincent DePaul

Volunteers Needed

St Vincent de Paul needs volunteers once a month on Thursday mornings from 7:15 to 8:30. Some lifting involved. Able to drive is a plus. For more information call:

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

When I first read Homer's Odyssey as a teenager, one scene captured my imagination: Odysseus finally returning home after 20 years, yet no one recognized him. Disguised as a beggar, he speaks with his wife, his son, and even his enemies. He is fully present, yet hidden. Only at the right moment does he reveal himself, and everyone realizes he has been with them all along. I was struck by the mystery that he could be so close to his loved ones, and yet they simply could not identify him.

A similar mystery is at the heart of today's Gospel. Two disciples walk the road to Emmaus with Jesus, but "their eyes were prevented from recognizing him." (Luke 24:16) He listens, teaches, and eats with them, yet they remain blind until he breaks the bread. Suddenly their eyes are opened — and at that very moment, he vanishes. His disappearance is not absence. Rather, it is revelation. The Risen Lord is now present in a new way, in the breaking of the bread and in the life of His Church.

Faith is this shift of vision. Instead of searching for a visible Jesus as if he were absent, we learn to recognize him unveiled in hidden ways — in Scripture proclaimed, in the Eucharist, in the sacraments, in the very life of the Church.

And what is true of him is true of us. Just as he disappears into the mission of his Body, we too are meant to be hidden in him. When we live hidden in Christ, we are seen for who we really are.

— Father John Muir
