Rooted in Tradition ~ Led by the Spirit

Sunday, June 19, 2022 Solemnity of the Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi)

Today's Readings: Genesis 14:18-20 Psalm 110 1 Corinthians 11:23-26 Luke 9:11b

In today's First Reading, Melchizedek welcomes Abram with traditional Eastern hospitality: food and drink. Sharing a meal unites host and guest in bonds like family ties, committing both parties to mutual help and support. During the meal, Melchizedek blesses both God and Abram. In the Bible, blessing is reciprocal: God blesses with favor, life, and power to give life; humans bless God, offering praise and thanks for these gifts.

In the Gospel account of Jesus' feeding the multitudes, he explicitly speaks of service, as the Twelve are asked to help prepare for the multitude's meal. They are to assist Jesus, the host, who is among them as "one who served."

Today's solemnity invites us to reflect on the sacredness of the Eucharist. The Body and Blood of Christ is broken and poured out for us each time we celebrate Mass! How can we ever let it become routine?

Next week's readings: - Ordinary Time: 13th Sunday
1 Kings 19: 16b, 19-21 Psalm 16 Galatians 5:1, 13-18 Luke 9:51-62

Calling Future Altar Servers

If you are a parent with a 3rd-8th grade child (or if you are one reading this bulletin!) please consider asking them if they would be interested in becoming an altar server. This is a great way to learn to attentively assist at Mass and perhaps even to start to hear God's call if they have a vocation to the priesthood or religious life. You can visit or call the Parish Office, or talk to or email Fr. Nathanael (nanderson@sjbssparish.org). If you have any strong preferences regarding Mass times, or parts of the year that you know you will not be available, please indicate that. We are currently developing a list of all servers, and will soon have a meeting with Fr. Nathanael and our head server Alex Lynch to train them to serve at the Lord's altar.
