

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Parishioners,

The past two weeks we've printed stories of people who have experienced physical healing through prayer. The Lord also wants to heal us spiritually and emotionally. Below is the account of one woman's spiritual healing.

With my prayers,
Fr. Conley

Dear Father Conley,

Even though I feel vulnerable sharing, I pray it is helpful in encouraging others. God bless your priesthood and healing ministry.

I am a big believer in healing prayer, since I have been both a recipient of healing as well as a conduit of God's healing love through participating on healing prayer teams. I know that it is Jesus healing me and that the prayer teams are Our Lord's vessels through which His healing light flows-just as Mother Teresa said she was simply a pencil in the hand of God. Therefore, when given an opportunity to allow others to pray with me or when I am asked to pray with others I go with complete trust in Jesus.... nothing more.... nothing less.

At the end of the Healing Prayer Retreat, I went to ask a prayer team to pray with me. I asked specifically for prayer to be anointed by the Holy Spirit since I would be speaking at all the Masses over that weekend. Additionally, I mentioned to the prayer team that I was going to sign up for a longer session to deal with an emotional issue that had recently surfaced after attending a Eucharistic Adoration event two weeks earlier; something I knew Our Lord was calling me to hand over to Him for healing. So, after receiving prayer from the prayer team for the anointing of the Holy Spirit, I left with the intention of signing up for a longer healing prayer session to deal with the deeper emotional issue.

After an amazing weekend of talks at church, which I knew were blessed by the Holy Spirit because many people said so afterwards, I felt so filled with joy and excitement that Our Lord had answered my prayers through the prayer team and anointed me for the talks.

However, that Monday, the emotional issue that had surfaced had reached a new peak with an acute and intense physical pain behind my right shoulder blade that popped up out of nowhere and a deep ache at the center of my chest. It was as if the pain had bubbled up from deep within me over the prior two weeks and was ready to burst but I just couldn't fully let go.... so my body was reacting.

I didn't really want to talk about the issue anymore, since I had already tried to deal with it several times before. Every moment that went by during that day, I felt as though I was going to break. Spontaneous tears kept erupting from me and the pain continued to intensify. I spent quite a bit of time during that day talking to our Lord at Rosary, at Mass and while driving around in my car.

At the end of the day, I did my usual routine of changing clothes and washing up. I was about to go downstairs to spend some time with my husband. As I walked by my prayer corner in my room, I heard my Lord say, Come be with me.

To be honest, I thought to myself, well, I spent a lot of time with you today, my Lord (sometimes I cannot believe the thoughts that come into my head!) but then I decided to be obedient and sit some more with Him. I sat in my prayer chair and then I heard- Kneel before me. Suddenly I realized this was serious.... He wants my full attention. So I knelt before my altar and gazed into the eyes of the Divine Mercy Jesus.

He told me to tell Him how I feel. I did and at that moment of full obedience and trust in Him, I received a most powerful spontaneous healing. As I poured out my emotions before the Lord, He lifted both my physical and emotional pain RIGHT OUT OF ME and quite immediately!!!

I was literally in shock. I started gasping for air as I laughed with both joy and shock. It all just lifted!!! All of it! I couldn't believe it, yet, I knew in that moment I had been healed by my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ through the prayer I had received over the weekend and through my obedience, trust and willingness to allow Him to heal me. I also knew I would no longer need to meet for the longer session. It was all just GONE and I was filled with absolute JOY!

I now feel free and alive and filled with joy to share this with all of you. God bless you all! Trust, believe and receive!!! God is GOOD, all the time!!

Persons seeking prayer from the healing prayer ministry will be given the opportunity to make an appointment with a prayer team for one or two confidential prayer sessions.
