

“Grace To You And
Peace From God Our
Father And The Lord
Jesus Christ.”

Msgr. John A. Ecker, Pastor

In today's second reading we read these words of greeting to the people of Corinth, but also to all of us "who have been sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be holy, with all those everywhere who call upon the name of our Lord, Jesus Christ their Lord and ours".

I have fond memories of celebrating Mass with Father Tom Kuykendal of happy memory at that very site of the ancient city of Corinth when we made a pilgrimage following the journey of St. Paul many years (15) ago on the Year of St. Paul. There were no existing buildings on the site, just building blocks of stone from the ancient city, but it was very inspiring to be able to walk and sail the journey of St. Paul.

That greeting of St. Paul is so effective and relevant even today. More and more we need to pray that the peace of Christ be realized in our broken world and we pray to be instruments of that peace, each in his or her own way. It just seems that our world never learns. We look back in history; wars after wars, threats of violence and viciousness, destruction of peoples' homes and places of work, families and buildings built at the cost of so many lives and sacrifices. Will we ever learn? Only if we dedicate ourselves to the pursuit of true peace within ourselves, between ourselves and God and our families and neighbors. That is where we start. CHRIST'S PEACE BE WITH YOU ALL!
