

“BLESSED ARE THOSE WHO HAVE NOT SEEN
AND HAVE BELIEVED.”

John 20, 30

After that amazing appearance to His disciples on that first day of the week, the Risen Lord addressed them with the resounding greeting: “Peace be with you!” Except Thomas, one of the twelve, was not with them and even in spite of the witness of fellow disciples, refused to believe that Jesus had truly risen. (And so, the reference to “doubting Thomas”.)

A week later, today, Jesus appeared once again and invited the doubter to approach, touch his hands and feet and probe his side which the soldier had pierced with his lance as He died on the cross.

Then, Thomas professed faith in the Risen Lord and Jesus responded “you came to believe because you have seen me, but blessed are those who have not seen and have believed”. We have not seen and we were not there personally to witness the presence of the Risen Christ over 2000 years ago, but we still believe. That’s what brings us here on this Second Sunday of Easter! Our FAITH! And we are the ones whom Jesus cherishes as “blessed”.

Thank God for the gift of FAITH. We have it, we often take it for granted, and even though we don’t fully understand how such things can happen, we believe in the Resurrection of our Savior.

Now, it’s up to us to share that gift with others. It has been said that “Faith isn’t real until it is shared with someone else”. So as blessed by Jesus Himself, we now go forth, having joined in the Passion, Death and Resurrection of our Lord to share this gift that God has given each of us-the gift of FAITH!

WHEN WAS THE LAST TIME YOU PERSONALLY INVITED SOMEONE TO "COME & SEE"?

New RCIA Inquiry Sessions

Not a Catholic, or have only received baptism, and are interested in learning more about our Faith:

- RCIA is the process by which non-Catholics enter the Catholic Faith.
- At St. Paul Cathedral we offer a series of informal Inquiry Sessions for those who are seeking truth and want to journey closer to God and life in the Church.

Catholic and interested in learning how you can share your Faith:

- Be an evangelist-one called by God to share and spread the Faith.
- Invite someone to attend with you, maybe a family member; spouse, parent or child; a business associate or fellow worker; a classmate, teacher or student; whoever is curious and looking for that which we possess and so often take for granted.

Inquiry sessions start Tuesday, April 18, from 7-8PM, in the Assembly Place. Experience the Good News and start the journey today!
