

“WHOEVER EATS THIS
BREAD WILL LIVE
FOREVER.”

John 6, 58

What a promise we have from the mouth of Jesus, Himself! Such an assurance of eternal life with God! What more can we ask? Our future is assured by this promise of the Lord.

Today we celebrate the Most Holy Body and Blood of the Lord (Corpus Christi) the source and summit of all we do. The most important experience of each week (or day), we, as Catholic Christians, are a “Eucharistic People”, a people sanctified and centered in the great mystery of our faith, the ability to celebrate and receive Jesus’ greatest gifts possible, His own Body and Blood as nourishment and strength for our lives.

Without the Eucharist, the Body and Blood of the Lord, we would be lacking the principal essence of our faith which privileges us to adore, worship and partake of the source and summit of our faith which joins us together as one “Because the loaf of bread is one, we, though many, are one body , for we all partake of the one loaf”, as St. Paul tells us in the second reading today from his letter to the Corinthians (1 Cor 10, 17).

We are so blessed, being able to join together in faith as one body here at our Cathedral or wherever we gather each week to praise and worship our God. It is the Eucharist (thanksgiving) that binds us, that calls us together, that promises up eternal life.

What a blessing is ours to be able to refer to ourselves as a Eucharistic People, a people of promise with the assurance of eternal life. Approach the altar with reverence and appreciate the tremendous gift God offers us and thank God daily for His great gift and promise of eternal life!

Love God. Live the Eucharist.

CORPUS CHRISTI

This Sunday we celebrate the Feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ and recall the greatest gift given to us by Jesus: The gift of the Eucharist. As Catholics we are a "Eucharistic People" who joyfully celebrate and share this precious gift each time we gather to worship. May we be especially grateful and appreciative this week when we gather to celebrate the Eucharist. A Eucharistic procession will follow the 1:00PM Mass at St. Joseph's and proceed to the Cathedral for Benediction about 4:00PM. All are invited to participate!

WHEN WAS THE LAST TIME YOU PERSONALLY INVITED SOMEONE TO "COME & SEE"?

New RCIA Inquiry Sessions

Not a Catholic, or have only received baptism, and are interested in learning more about our Faith:

- RCIA is the process by which non-Catholics enter the Catholic Faith.
• At St. Paul Cathedral we offer a series of informal Inquiry Sessions for those who are seeking truth and want to journey closer to God and life in the Church.

Catholic and interested in learning how you can share your Faith:

- Be an evangelist-one called by God to share and spread the Faith.
• Invite someone to attend with you, maybe a family member; spouse, parent or child; a business associate or fellow worker; a classmate, teacher or student; whoever is curious and looking for that which we possess and so often take for granted.

Inquiry sessions continue each Tuesday, from 7-8PM, in the Assembly Place. Experience the Good News and start the journey today!
