

“COME TO ME ALL YOU WHO
LABOR AND ARE BURDENED
AND I WILL GIVE YOU REST.”

Rev. Msgr. John A. Ecker

These words from the Gospel of Matthew, proclaimed in today’s Mass, the 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time, I believe are among the most consoling words of the scriptures. Especially appropriate for Masses of Christian Burial, but not limited to those occasions, they offer comfort and consolation to all believers in Jesus Christ. And the Lord goes on to assure us of rest and binding ourselves to Him.

At times when we feel down and out, stressed or discouraged, this invitation spoken by Jesus Himself bids us turn to the Lord. Whatever our circumstances in life might be, here is the Lord with us all-encompassing invitation for a closer, a more intimate relationship with Himself.

“Come to Me”, a great reminder to all of us that Jesus our Savior and Redeemer is always available, always walks with us and is always eager to join Himself to us as a brother on our day to day journey to Him. Lift up your heads, dry your tears, take courage from Jesus Himself, always desiring that we approach Him as our Savior and Brother. Then we will know how wonderful it is to be yoked up to the Lord.

REST IN PEACE

Yesterday (Saturday) we commemorated the 17th Anniversary of Msgr. Edmond McGrath who served us as pastor 1955-1963 and tomorrow (Monday) the 53rd anniversary of the death of the Most Reverend Joseph P. Dougherty, the first bishop of our Diocese (1951-1969). May we remember and pray for all our clergy, who have died.

Love God. Live the Eucharist.

Bishop Tyson has decreed that all restrictions limiting "Communion from the Cup" will be lifted as of August 15, 2023. Beginning that day, the Feast of the Assumption of Mary. Holy Communion may be received at all Masses in our Cathedral under both species. If you have a cold, fever or a contagious illness, please refrain from receiving from the cup.
