

“WHATEVER
YOU DID FOR THE LEAST BRETHREN
OF MINE YOU
DID FOR ME.”

Rev. Msgr. John A Ecker

On this beautiful Feast of Christ the King, when we end our Liturgical Year and wait for the Season of Advent with joyful anticipation, we are reminded of the challenge of Jesus Himself as He speaks to us directly to be concerned for and take care of His people here on earth. The great story of the Last JUDGEMENT directs us to be always concerned for the people of God, all of them!!

We look around our wounded world today and see so many near and far who need our love, prayers and concern; and as He speaks to us as His 21st Century Disciples, we hear His words loudly and clearly; “Take care of My People!!” God never asks the impossible from us; rather—’Be sharing of who we are and what we have.’ Because God dwells in every person He has made and we share a common brotherhood and sisterhood with every one of His sons and daughters, whatever we do for and to them, we do for and to Jesus Himself.

He also reminds us that neglect of others will have disastrous results for us. We too wish to hear His promise: “Come, you who are blessed by my Father. Inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.”
