Gospel Reading John 20:19-23

Jesus appears to his disciples and gives them the gift of the Holy Spirit.

"The season of Easter concludes with today's celebration, the feast of Pentecost. On Pentecost we celebrate the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles gathered in the upper room in Jerusalem; this event marks the beginning of the Church. The story of Pentecost is found in the Acts of the Apostles, today's first reading. The account in today's Gospel, taken from the Gospel of John, also recounts how Jesus gave the gift of the Holy Spirit to his disciples. There is no need to try to reconcile these two accounts to each other. It is enough to know that, after his death, Jesus fulfilled his promise to send to his disciples a helper, an advocate, who would enable them to be his witnesses throughout the world. We previously heard today's Gospel on the second Sunday of Easter. At that time, we also heard the passage that follows, which describes Jesus' appearance to Thomas. In that context, we were led to reflect on belief and unbelief.

In the context of the feast of Pentecost, this reading reminds us about the integral connection between the gifts of peace and forgiveness and the action of the Holy Spirit. Jesus greets his disciples with the gift of peace. Jesus then commissions his disciples to continue the work that he has begun, "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." As he breathes the Holy Spirit upon them, Jesus sends his disciples to continue his work of reconciliation through the forgiveness of sins.

This Gospel reminds us that the Church is called to be a reconciling presence in the world. This reconciling presence of Christ is celebrated in the Church's sacramental life. In the Sacrament of Baptism, we are washed clean from sin and become a new creation in Christ. In the Sacrament of Penance, the Church celebrates the mercy of God in forgiving sins. This reconciling presence is also to be a way of life for Christians. In situations of conflict, we are to be agents of peace and harmony among people. From Loyolapress.com*

FAMILY OF PARISHES – FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS INSTALLMENT #3

Hello again Parishioners of Rose City Central Catholic Family of Parishes,

As we continue to approach the date of our activation as a family of parishes, here are some more frequently asked questions:

Question 5: What will happen to the parish rectories?

Not much. Currently, there are 4 rectories with each of the church buildings. We will only have 3 priests serving within the family which means we have a surplus. In order to make sure the building don't fall into disrepair and to reduce the chance of break-ins and other damage all four rectories will have someone living in them. At OLPH, Fr. Bill Kornacker, one of the retired priests of the diocese, has taken up residence and the other three will have one of our Family's priests living in them. There had been some thought to convert one rectory to offices but this was not an option for the time being as it requires alteration of the building for fire code reasons

Question 6: What will happen to the staff of our parishes?

In most cases, they may be working at the different sites from time to time but you should still hear the same voices and see the same faces. No one is being let go as that would actually leave us short staffed. Some staff may see a bit of a change to their usual role but with our unique situation regarding several different languages in our parishes, we will work to make sure that everyone can be served in the best way that we can offer.

Keep praying as our activation date gets closer.

God bless. Fr. Glen

OLPH SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Vincentian Meditation:

One of the messages which the Church received from the Spirit of God at the Vatican Council II was that it should do more for the poor of the world. Over the past fifty years the Church has increased her interest in the poor. Not only has the Church tried to lighten the sufferings of the poor, but she has tried to be more efficient in bringing the Good News of Jesus Christ and His Church to the poor. Pope John Paul II has said, "He who lacks material resources may be poor, but he who does not know the way which God marks out for him is even poorer. "What does it profit a man," asks Our Lord, "if he gains the whole world and suffers the loss of his soul?" (Mk 8:36) What, my dear friends, will it profit us if we gain the whole world for the poor, but do not help them to find the way which will lead them to God and the happiness of heaven? (McCullen, Deep Down Things, p. 255)

How do we help the poor to find the way which will lead them to God?

Are you being called to feed the bodies and souls of the poor by volunteering? If so call the SSVP Ext.—26 and leave them a message or email them at ssvpolph@hotmail.com If you would like to make a cash donation to the SSVP they offer the option for you to make an e-transfer. Send the e-transfer to ssvpolph@hotmail.com—in the memo line please put your name & address. The answer to the question is : SSVPOLPH. OR you may leave a donation in the offertory basket. SSVP green envelopes are found next to the offertory basket.

The SSVP members thank you for your continued generosity in helping to keep our pantry fully stocked At this time our conference is asking if you can donate the following items: KD (macaroni & cheese), tomato soup, rice, canned vgs (no corn please), crackers, & canned meat.
