Gospel Reading Luke 21:5-19

Jesus predicts the destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem and warns his followers that persecution will come before the end time.

In the context of Luke, today's Gospel appears near the end of Jesus' teaching in Jerusalem, just prior to the events that will lead to his crucifixion. His warnings and predictions are ominous but can be read in many ways. To those who first heard Luke's Gospel, those may have been words of encouragement. The destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem by the Romans was history (70 A.D.); Luke's Gospel, Catholic scholars propose, was written between 80 and 90 A.D. His audience was probably Gentile Christians. Luke here tries to interpret the fall of Jerusalem for them and to locate it in God's plans for humankind (salvation history). At the same time, Luke is suggesting to his audience that there will be a considerable elapse of time before Jesus' final coming. Luke's listeners have likely seen much upheaval and are anxious to know if these are the signs of Jesus' coming. Luke is urging greater patience.

In the second part of today's Gospel, Jesus warns that his followers will face persecution for their beliefs. Luke presents persecution as an opportunity for the followers of Jesus for "It will lead to your giving testimony" (Luke 21:13). In persecution God's wisdom and power will be shown in the example of followers of Jesus. Perseverance in the face of persecution will lead to their salvation. Here Jesus is assuring his followers that God is present to all believers, even in times of trouble. Ultimately, Jesus will witness to this with his own death. As disciples of Jesus, we try to follow his example, trusting in God's mercy and protection, even when we are facing difficulties. **From Loyolapress.com*

WORLD DAY OF THE POOR

The 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time, 13 November 2022, marks the Sixth World Day of the Poor. In his message, For your sakes Christ became poor, Pope Francis calls us to choose to live in solidarity with the poor and to “be doers of the word, and not merely hearers who deceive themselves” (James 1:22).

Over the past year, our diocese participated in "listening sessions" along with Catholics around the world in preparation for the Synod of Bishops that will occur in 2023. This walking together has enabled us to engage in dialogue, prayer, listening to each other and discerning how the Holy Spirit is guiding the Church. In his message for the World Day of the Poor, Pope Francis relates the synodal process to our solidarity with those who are poor. He calls us to walk together with the poor and to be committed to social justice. Our love of the poor reflects God's love and Christ's example. With partners in the Global South, Development and Peace (D&P) continues to walk this path of justice. Its annual fall action campaign mobilizes Canadian Catholics to reflect on the root causes of poverty and make a difference through action. This year's campaign, People and Planet First, invites us to stand in solidarity with those in the Global South who are fighting for environmental and human rights. To learn more about the good work of D&P, visit devp.org and consider becoming a member.

Through their Society of St. Vincent de Paul conference, our parishes continue to walk with those in the local community who experience poverty. They are responding to Jesus' call to his disciples in the Gospel of Matthew (25:31-46). I thank them for their ministry, and I thank you for your generous contributions which assist them in their work.

The care for the poor belongs to all of Jesus' disciples: “None of us can think we are exempt from concern for the poor and social justice” (Evangeli Gaudium, 201). Echoing Pope Francis' words, I invite all the faithful to make a personal and communal examination of conscience, to continue to respond to the cry of the poor, to work with those who live in poverty and to take steps to address injustices. Let us “bear one another's burdens in such a way that no one is left behind or excluded”.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
 Most Rev. Ronald P. Fabbro, CSB
 Bishop of London
