Easter Vigil: Gospel Reflection: Matthew 28:1-10

Jesus appears to Mary Magdalene and the other Mary, who carry the message that Jesus has risen and will meet his disciples in Galilee.

All four Gospels have an account of the Death and Resurrection of Jesus. Although the accounts differ depending on the point each Evangelist wishes to make, two points of the Resurrection testimony are common to all four Gospels: 1) The tomb of Jesus was found empty and 2) The risen Christ appeared to certain persons. Matthew tells us that, as Mary Magdalene and the other Mary approached the tomb, there was a great earthquake, and "an angel of the Lord descended from heaven, approached, rolled back the stone, and sat upon it." The guards stationed at the tomb were terrified and "became like dead men." The angel then assured the women that Jesus "has been raised just as he said." The women, "fearful yet overjoyed," left the tomb as the angel instructed to tell the disciples. On their way, Jesus met and greeted the women who "embraced his feet and did him homage." Jesus himself then sends the women to "tell my brothers to go to Galilee, and there they will see me." The mention of a great earthquake is peculiar to Matthew's account of the Resurrection. Metaphorically, it indicates the coming of a new and final age brought about through the life, teaching, ministry, and particularly through the Death and Resurrection of Jesus. Notable also is the fact that Jesus' first appearance is to women, the women who came to minister to him. Finally, not to be overlooked, is Jesus' use of the word "brothers" to refer to his disciples. It seems to be indicative of a new and different relationship that Jesus has with them. The disciples are now entrusted with the message and mission of the risen Jesus Christ. **From Loyolapress.com*

Easter Sunday: Gospel Reflection: John 20:1-9

Mary of Magdala finds that the stone has been removed from Jesus' tomb.

Today we begin the Easter Season, our 50-day meditation on the mystery of Christ's Resurrection. Our Gospel today tells us about the disciples' discovery of the empty tomb. It concludes by telling us that they did not yet understand that Jesus had risen from the dead. Thus, the details provided are not necessarily meant to offer proof of the Resurrection. The details invite us to reflect upon a most amazing gift, that is faith in Jesus and his Resurrection.

Each of the four Gospels tells us that Jesus' empty tomb was first discovered by women. This is notable because in first-century Jewish society women could not serve as legal witnesses. In the case of John's Gospel, the only woman attending the tomb is Mary of Magdala. Unlike the Synoptic accounts, John's Gospel does not describe an appearance of angels at the tomb. Instead, Mary is simply said to have observed that the stone that had sealed the tomb had been moved, and she runs to alert Simon Peter and the beloved disciple. Her statement to them is telling. She assumes that Jesus' body has been removed, perhaps stolen. She does not consider that Jesus has been raised from the dead.

Simon Peter and the beloved disciple race to the tomb, presumably to verify Mary's report. The beloved disciple arrives first but does not enter the tomb until after Simon Peter. This detail paints a vivid picture, as does the detail provided about the burial cloths. Some scholars believe that the presence of the burial cloths in the tomb offers evidence to the listener that Jesus' body had not been stolen (it is understood that grave robbers would have taken the burial cloths together with the body).

The Gospel passage concludes, however, that even having seen the empty tomb and the burial cloths, the disciples do not yet understand about the Resurrection. In the passage that follows, Mary of Magdala meets Jesus but mistakes him for the gardener. In the weeks ahead, the Gospel readings from our liturgy will show us how the disciples came to believe in Jesus' Resurrection through his appearances to them. Our Easter faith is based on their witness to both the empty tomb and their continuing relationship with Jesus—in his appearances and in his gift of the Holy Spirit. **From Loyolapress.com*

all about THE EASTER EGG

Eggs were traditionally dyed red (using onion skins!) to represent the blood of Christ.

The eggshell represents the tomb.

The pristine white egg is a reminder of Christ's emergence from the tomb, whole and triumphant!

The cracked open egg is a symbol of the breaking of the power of death and the grave.

DIVINE MERCY NOVENA

The Divine Mercy Novena of Chaplets

A novena is typically nine days of prayer in preparation of a celebration of a feast day. At the National Shrine of The Divine Mercy, the Chaplet of Divine Mercy Novena is recited perpetually at the Hour of Great Mercy — the three o'clock hour.

The Chaplet can be said anytime, but the Lord specifically asked that it be recited as a novena. He promised, "By this Novena (of Chaplets), I will grant every possible grace to souls."

Intentions

For each of the nine days, our Lord gave Saint Faustina a different intention:

All mankind, especially sinners; the souls of priests and religious; all devout and faithful souls; those who do not believe in God and those who do not yet know Jesus; the souls who have separated themselves from the Church; the meek and humble souls and the souls of little children; the souls who especially venerate and glorify His mercy; the souls detained in purgatory; and souls who have become lukewarm.

"I desire that during these nine days you bring souls to the fountain of My mercy, that they may draw therefrom strength and refreshment and whatever grace they have need of in the hardships of life, and especially at the hour of death" (Diary, 1209).

The Chaplet is prayed as follows:

1. Begin with the Sign of the Cross, one Our Father, one Hail Mary, and the Apostles' Creed.
2. On the Our Father beads, recite the following: "Eternal Father, I offer you the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of your dearly beloved Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world."
3. On the ten Hail Mary beads, say the following: "For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world."
4. Repeat step two and three for all five decades.
5. Conclude by reciting three times:
"Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal One, have mercy on us and on the whole world." When celebrating Divine Mercy Sunday, the faithful are called to reflect more personally on the graces won through the life, death, and Resurrection of Jesus Christ. In this way their hearts may be more fully aware of the mercy of God for them personally and for the sake of the world

"This is the day the Lord has made;
let us rejoice and be glad."

EASTER MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR; FR. GLEN

"Alleluia! He is Risen!" We celebrate the greatest moment in salvation history as we remember the Resurrection of Jesus from the dead. He has broken the power of sin and death by dying and rising again. All the darkness, all the struggle and suffering of the Cross has come to an end and Christ now stands in glory. As much as Christ stands in glory on this great day, he also invites us to come and stand with him in that glory. All of our own suffering, our own crosses that we bear, can be taken from us as we put our faith in the saving power of Jesus who, by his death, has freed us from death.

The Easter season is one meant for rejoicing. We begin this Easter season of fifty days from now until Pentecost and we are meant to keep rejoicing throughout this time. Our Easter celebrations are not meant to be for one day only but for a whole season. That's how great this moment is in our history. More importantly though, we are meant to always keep the hope we find in the Resurrection of Jesus with us at all times. It is the reminder to us that we will one day be freed for all the struggles of this world and rise again with Christ to a new life with him.

We have gone through the struggle of Lent but now we come to the celebration of Easter, a season of joy. Let us truly rejoice today and for this whole great season in the hope given to us by God, through his Son Jesus, risen from the dead, alleluia!

God Bless, Fr. Glen

News from our Rev. Lionel Belanger Council

We thank all parishioners who supported our Palm Sunday Pancake Breakfast last week-end and it was our honour to lead the "Stations of the Cross" on Friday March 24th. Two new candidates will obtain their 3rd Degree status and thereby join our Council on Wednesday April 19th. This exemplification will be held at Immaculate Heart church and take place at 6:30pm and friends and family are encouraged to watch this special ceremony. We Knights are taught that Charity, Unity, and Fraternity are the main cornerstones of our brotherhood and all else flows from this. A third degree Knight may wish to continue their journey and become a Fourth Degree Knight and this one is based upon Patriotism and requires a different exemplification. We wish all parishioners of our Rose Central Catholic Family of Parishes a Happy Easter filled with many blessings, peace and love.
