Gospel Reflection: Matthew 9:36-10:8

Jesus sends the twelve apostles to proclaim the kingdom of heaven.

In today's Gospel, Jesus shares his mission to proclaim the kingdom of heaven with his disciples. The signs of the kingdom's presence consist of the work that Jesus has already been doing: the sick are cured, lepers are cleansed, demons are driven out, and the dead are raised to life. The disciples are sent to continue doing the work that Jesus has begun. This is a moment of transition in Matthew's Gospel. The focus has shifted from the ministry of Jesus to the work of the community that he has inaugurated. More than any other Gospel, Matthew's Gospel elaborates on the work of the Church, which is to continue after Jesus' death and resurrection.

The Gospel reports that Jesus commissions twelve disciples. Many scholars believe that the twelve disciples symbolize the twelve tribes of Israel. It designates, therefore, continuity between Israel and the Church.

Matthew lists the names of the twelve disciples, as do Mark and Luke. Matthew also uses the word apostle when referring to the Twelve. The word apostle means "one who is sent." In this context, Matthew is calling attention to the mission that the twelve disciples are being given. They are sent by Jesus to proclaim the kingdom of heaven in word and deed.

As Jesus sent his disciples to continue his work and mission, so too the Church is sent by Jesus. The Church is his continuing presence on earth. Every member of the Church is sent by Jesus to contribute to this mission. From Loyolapress.com*

SAINT JOHN THE BAPTIST'S STORY—FEAST DAY JUNE 24

Jesus called John the greatest of all those who had preceded him: "I tell you, among those born of women, no one is greater than John...." But John would have agreed completely with what Jesus added: "[Y]et the least in the kingdom of God is greater than he" (Luke 7:28). John spent his time in the desert, an ascetic. He began to announce the coming of the Kingdom, and to call everyone to a fundamental reformation of life. His purpose was to prepare the way for Jesus. His baptism, he said, was for repentance. But one would come who would baptize with the Holy Spirit and fire. John was not worthy even to untie his sandals. His attitude toward Jesus was: "He must increase; I must decrease" (John 3:30).

John was humbled to find among the crowd of sinners who came to be baptized the one whom he already knew to be the Messiah. "I need to be baptized by you" (Matthew 3:14b). But Jesus insisted, "Allow it now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness" (Matthew 3:15b). Jesus, true and humble human as well as eternal God, was eager to do what was required of any good Jew. Jesus thus publicly entered the community of those awaiting the Messiah. But making himself part of that community, he made it truly messianic.

The greatness of John, his pivotal place in the history of salvation, is seen in the great emphasis Luke gives to the announcement of his birth and the event itself—both made prominently parallel to the same occurrences in the life of Jesus. John attracted countless people to the banks of the Jordan, and it occurred to some people that he might be the Messiah. But he constantly deferred to Jesus, even to sending away some of his followers to become the first disciples of Jesus.

Perhaps John's idea of the coming of the Kingdom of God was not being perfectly fulfilled in the public ministry of Jesus. For whatever reason, when he was in prison he sent his disciples to ask Jesus if he was the Messiah. Jesus' answer showed that the Messiah was to be a figure like that of the Suffering Servant in Isaiah. John himself would share in the pattern of messianic suffering, losing his life to the revenge of Herodias. St. John the Baptist is the Patron Saint of Baptism.  from <https://www.franciscanmedia.org/saint-of-the-day/nativity-of-saint-john-the-baptist/>*

NATIONAL INDIGENOUS PEOPLES

DAY: JUNE 21

Find ways to show gratitude to the land and its original stewards. Also, be educated on the #LandBack movement that allows for Indigenous stewardship of the land to be reinvigorated. Take time to share with others what National Indigenous Peoples Day is and how they can join you in the celebration. Activities celebrating National Indigenous Peoples Day are held all throughout Canada on (and around) June 21. However, there are 365 days in the year when we should learn, acknowledge, celebrate and respect the vibrant Indigenous peoples and communities of the past, present and future! YEAR OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS TO PRIESTHOOD—PENTECOST 2023 TO PENTECOST 2024

How can you help?

Encourage young men to consider a spiritual life of ministry and prayer. They will help shepherd the faithful through the joy-filled celebration of the sacraments, worship, charitable works and building the body of Christ. Come Holy Spirit! "These efforts to promote vocations to the priesthood are important but most important is prayer. This Year of Prayer for Vocations to the Priesthood reminds us of Jesus' urgent call: "ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest". His call is addressed to individuals, families, parishes, Catholic schools, and other faith communities in our diocese. Our first duty is to keep alive this appeal for unceasing prayer for vocations to the priesthood. I ask our parishes to offer Holy Hours, Eucharistic Adoration and Marian devotions. I ask our families to pray together, pray with the Scriptures, pray the Rosary, pray at mealtimes, bedtime, special moments and during the liturgical seasons." - Bishop Fabbro

CHARISMATIC HEALING MASS The first Friday of the month. The next Mass will be on July 7—at St. Michael's Church at 7:00 pm. Prayer Teams are available. All are invited to attend. Elevator is available.

EXPOSITION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT HOLY TRINITY

Eucharistic Adoration takes place on the first Friday of every month at Holy Trinity. It will begin after the 7:00 pm. Mass on Friday and continue until Saturday at 8:00 a.m. (English Mass at 8:00 am.) Come and spend time with our Lord on Friday July 7 to Saturday July 8.

Tracing its origins to Persia, the Baha'i Faith emphasizes unity, a common source for all religions, and an elimination of all forms of discrimination. However, Baha'is has experienced persecution throughout history, particularly following the Iranian Revolution. This presentation will provide an overview of the results obtained from a survey on how Iranian Canadians in Ontario perceive the treatment of Baha'is in Iran.

Please help support Maya Jaglarz—a young adult from Holy Trinity Church during her mission year with NET Canada—to bring the Gospel to young people, to re-engage and transform them in the Catholic faith. Here is a message from Maya...

"I'm a Polish-Canadian teenager from Windsor. I love spending time outdoors, learning about plants and making things by crocheting or sewing. I joined NET this year to build my life on a firm foundation of faith. I felt a call to put my faith in action to help Catholic youth develop their faith and face the challenges of embracing living in Christ during adolescence. I want to learn how to share my love for God and grow deep roots in Christ, to guide me through the rest of my life. What better way to do that than through NET? If you'd like to support me in my mission work with NET Canada, I encourage you to support me financially in any way you can. Every donation is appreciated and allows us to reach youth all across Canada! For those able to donate $50+ or provide us with monthly donations, you will receive a quarterly NET Newsletter and personal updates from myself on the road. *All donations over $20 are tax receipted. Thank you for joining me on this beautiful journey! Please keep us in your prayers! God bless!!"

Ways to give: Mail a cheque to NET Canada and mention it is for Maya Jaglarz's mission: 1820 St. Joseph Blvd., Orleans, ON K1C 7C6, by phone—1-613-841-4141 or go online to her personal page at <https://www.netcanada.ca/missionaries/maya-jaglarz/>

To connect with Maya you can email her at majaglarz@gmail.com or call her at 226-260-3255. Maya needs to raise $8,500.00 to be able to go on her mission trip with NET. Please help Maya reach her goal. Say YES! We want to see youth transformed and re-engaged in the Catholic faith. We are blessed to have a young adult like Maya in our Rose City Central Catholic Family of Parishes.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION is offered monthly at Immaculate Heart/St. Michael's Church. It takes place every first Friday of the month—July 7 from 8:30 am.—5:30 pm. If you would like to be on their schedule of adorers and join them for an hour of Adoration please call the office at 519-258-0910 and leave your name with Shirl, our secretary/bookkeeper.

BLOOD DONATIONS Did you know that the CWL has an ongoing commitment to provide 200 donations of blood this year in partnership with Canadian Blood Services (CBS). The CBS is in immediate need for new and returning blood, platelet and plasma donors. Today, CBS has 31,000 fewer active donors than at the beginning of the pandemic. This is the greatest decline in numbers in a decade. Members are encouraged, along with their family members and friends, to help this situation by giving the gift of life. All healthy individuals are able to give blood from age 17 onward. There is no age which is too old to help. Have considered donating blood?

CWL BURSARIES ~ OLPH CWL is offering TWO BURSARIES. The application forms are available at the Welcome Desk at OLPH. for a High School student graduating and going to University or College in the Fall. Anyone can apply – male or female. You must be active in the parish. You do not need to have a mother or grandmother as a member of the CWL of OLPH parish. Deadline to apply is July 9, 2023 And one for a Grade School student who is going to a Catholic High School. It is a Gift Certificate to Freeds (to help purchase school uniform). To qualify for this bursary, applicant must have a mother or grandmother who is a current member of OLPH parish CWL. Deadline to apply is July 9, 2023

PRAYER OF BLESSING ON FATHERS' DAY

God our Eternal Father, Creator of heaven and earth. When you had given us your Son, Jesus to be our Redeemer. You chose to entrust him to the care of St. Joseph to be his earthly father.

We ask you to bless the fathers and grandfathers. Bless them with the strength of your Spirit; may they love their wives with faithfulness and trust; may they establish their families with perseverance in work; and may they also be exemplar in Christian virtues. Give them the strength which comes from the Gospel so that they may be witnesses of Christ to others.

We also remember today the fathers who are working in other countries away from their families in order to provide for their daily needs. Keep them always true to your commandments; keep them faithful in marriage and protect them from any harm.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

* Please note that if you are asking for a certain date please send in your request at least three weeks in advance. Thank you.

Welcome! We are glad you joined us! Registration forms are available online—on our website or in the narthex or back of the Church. If you need to update your information on record, please email or call the office.

POSTURE DURING MASS When the priest cleanses his hands during the Preparation of the Gifts—we stand for the prayer: "May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church."

After the distribution of Holy Communion. There is a period of sacred silence; it should begin as soon as the distribution of Holy Communion has been completed. At this point the faithful may sit or kneel. The faithful should not be required to stand during the purification of vessels, or until the reposition of the Blessed Sacrament.

"Life with Christ is a wonderful adventure."

St. John Paul II

If you have a loved one who is homebound and they would like to receive a visit from our Pastoral Care Team call the office to set up a time. Home visits can take place for parishioners from Immaculate Heart, OLPH & St. Michael's Church.

Save the date- on July 15/16 the Society of St. Vincent de Paul will be hosting a BUNDLE DRIVE at Immaculate Heart/St. Michael's.

The SSVP truck will be in the Immaculate Heart/St. Michael's Church parking lot on Sat. July 15 & Sunday July 16 before and after both Masses. If you wish to donate, please bring CLOTHING only. If you have other items to donate you may bring those directly to the SSVP store on Lauzon Rd.

Did you know that there are Churches in Windsor that offer Sunday Masses in the evening? St. Alphonsus Parish at 85 Park St. E., offers Sunday Mass at 5:30 pm. and Our Lady of The Assumption Parish at 2735 University Ave. W., offers Sunday Mass at 7:30 pm.

Assumption University, Windsor's Catholic University invites you to follow them on Facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/assumptionu/>. View the university's upcoming courses, activities, and events. We have a lot of upcoming events and new courses in Christianity and Catholicism. Our graduate diploma in Catholic studies is delivered online so it is open to anyone.
