Please pray for those who have died from our families and from our Rose City Central Catholic Family of Parishes' community.

Pope's Prayer Intentions for December:

For persons with disabilities: We pray that people living with disabilities may be at the centre of attention in society, and that institutions may offer inclusion programmes which value their active participation.

LIVING WITH CHRIST SUNDAY MISSALS

The new Missals for 2023-2024 are available for purchase at both Churches. At OLPH they are at the Welcome Desk. Please leave the $6.00 in the envelope provided and put the envelope in the Collection basket. At Immaculate Heart the Missals are $6.00. There is a jar at the back of the church on the usher's counter with a sign.

The second week of Advent is the candle of peace. This candle reminds us that the angels declared "peace on earth" at the birth of Jesus. Jesus offers us inner peace and peace with others. We can know and experience peace today only through the life of Jesus Christ.

Gospel Reflection: Mark 1:1-8

John the Baptist preached repentance and baptized the people, in preparation for the one who would baptize with the Holy Spirit.

Today's Gospel is taken from the beginning of Mark. Unlike Luke and Matthew, Mark does not include any details of Jesus' birth. Instead Mark begins with the appearance of John the Baptist in the desert. On this the Second Sunday of Advent, we are invited to reflect upon the role of John the Baptist, who prepared the way for Jesus and the salvation that he would bring to us.

Mark's description of the appearance of John the Baptist highlights John's continuity with the Jewish prophetic tradition. Mark combines quotations from the Old Testament books of Malachi, Isaiah, and Exodus. Mark's description of John as an ascetic, living in the desert, clothed in camel hair, and eating locusts and wild honey, is reminiscent of the description of the prophet Elijah found in Second Kings. The people of Judea and Jerusalem flock to him, listening to his message of repentance and forgiveness; they also come to him to be baptized. Mark's Gospel is clear, however, that John the Baptist's role is only to prepare the way for another who will come, one who is greater than John.

Many scholars believe that the Gospels reflect the tension that likely existed between followers of John the Baptist and disciples of Jesus. Each of the four Evangelists report on John's preaching and baptizing, and they each emphasize the importance of Jesus' baptism by John. The four Gospels also explain that John was sent to preach in preparation for another. In the Gospel of Luke, the question is raised as to whether John the Baptist was himself the Messiah. Just as in today's Gospel, however, John speaks quite explicitly that the Messiah was to come after him.

In today's Gospel we hear John the Baptist contrast his baptism of repentance with the baptism that Jesus will inaugurate. John says that he has baptized with water, but that the one who is to come will baptize with the Holy Spirit. John's baptism was not yet a Christian baptism, but a preparation for the Sacrament of Baptism through which sins are forgiven and the gift of the Holy Spirit is received.

John the Baptist is presented to us as a model during Advent. We, too, are called upon to prepare a way for the Lord. Like John the Baptist, we are messengers in service to one who is greater than we are. Our Baptism commissions us to call others to life as disciples of Jesus. **From Loyolapress.com*

Advent Reflection Materials

There are still some free Advent Reflection books available at Immaculate Heart, St. Michael & OLPH Church. We invite you to take one home and use it during the next three weeks of Advent. There are still different booklets to choose from. We also have an Advent calendar for our young families.

We have a new name for our Facebook page— Rose City Central Catholic Family of Parishes. We changed the name of the Our Lady of Perpetual Help page to now include posting content from all of the parishes in our family. Especially events and news from Immaculate Heart & St. Michael's. Please like the page to keep up to date on information, to see photos and more.

Looking for an uplifting and spiritual experience to round out your year? The Rose City Centre Catholic Family of Parishes invites you to join us in our Advent Parish Mission 2023, led by Father Gary Goyeau, a retired priest of the Diocese of London.

This event is an opportunity to pause, reflect, and be amazed by God's surprises. The mission will be held over two days, with both Mass and Mission: Thursday, Dec 14th and Dec 15th at 6pm. (Mass and Mission)

Thursday Dec 14th session will be held at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church Friday Dec 15th session will be at Immaculate Heart Parish Mass and Mission will start at 6 pm on both days.

The Mission is designed for you to attend both days, but feel free to attend whichever day suits your schedule. It promises to be a meaningful and rewarding experience. Looking forward to seeing you there!
