Pope's Prayer Intentions for January: For The Gift Of Diversity In The Church. Let us pray that the Holy Spirit helps us recognize the gift of different charisms within the Christian community, and to discover the richness of different ritual traditions in the heart of the Catholic Church.

Gospel Reflection: Mark 1:21-28

Jesus heals a man with an unclean spirit and his fame spreads throughout Galilee.

Today Today's Gospel continues our reading from Mark and describes what some believe was likely to have been a typical day in Jesus' ministry. Jesus and the disciples that chose to follow him in last week's Gospel arrive at Capernaum, a small village on the Sea of Galilee. Jesus teaches in the synagogue on the Sabbath. Mark reports that the people respond to Jesus' teaching with astonishment, noting Jesus' authority and contrasting it with the scribes'. Early in Mark's Gospel we already find evidence of the tension that will manifest itself fully in Jerusalem.

After Jesus' preaching, an even more astonishing thing happens. A man possessed with an unclean spirit calls out to Jesus. As we see in this example and throughout Mark's Gospel, the spirits and demons seem to know Jesus and are often fearful of him. In fact, they seem to understand Jesus' identity better than his disciples. As we will read again and again in Mark's Gospel, Jesus orders the spirit to be quiet and drives the unclean spirit out of the man. Jesus' ability to heal those possessed by demons is an indication of his power over evil.

In the prescientific age of Jesus' time, all illnesses were understood to be manifestations of evil and sinfulness. Our modern understanding of illness is very different. Possession by unclean spirits may have been a way to describe what we might call mental illness today. It may have even been a way of describing certain kinds of physical conditions. There is evidence that there were many kinds of exorcists and healers in first-century Palestine. Jesus appears to be like these healers, but he heals with unique authority and connects his healing activities with the words of his preaching.

We are missing the point that Mark is trying to make in this Gospel, however, if we try to explain away the healing work of Jesus. The crowds see in Jesus' cure of the possessed man further affirmation of his authority. Jesus' power to heal gives greater credence to his teaching. Jesus impresses the crowds through his words, which are manifested with power in his deeds. Mark's Gospel tells us that because of the authority with which he healed, Jesus' fame spread throughout all of Galilee. *From Loyolapress.com

PRESENTATION OF THE LORD—FEBRUARY 2

Gospel: Luke 2:22-40 (Shorter Form: Luke 2:22-32)

Simeon recognizes the infant Jesus as the promised Messiah.

Today the Church celebrates the Feast of the Presentation of Jesus in the temple. The Presentation, which is celebrated 40 days after Christmas, is not mentioned in the other Gospels. Only Luke tells the story, most likely because he writes for Gentile Christians who are not familiar with the Jewish rite of presentation and purification. In addition, the intent of Luke's Gospel is to show that God's promise to Israel, fulfilled in Jesus, extends to Gentiles. Luke recognizes Joseph and Mary as faithful Jews who bring Jesus to the Temple in Jerusalem. Here they present their firstborn son to the Lord. Jesus is thus consecrated as required by the Law of Moses. Present in the temple at this time are Simeon and Anna. Both are awaiting the restoration of God's rule in Israel. Simeon had been promised by the Holy Spirit that he would see Christ the Lord, the Messiah, before he died. The holy man immediately recognized the infant Jesus as the promised Savior, a "light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel." Anna also recognized Jesus as the fulfillment of the promise of redemption and spoke about him to all. *from loyolapress.com

This feast day celebrates both the Presentation of Jesus in the Temple, as well as the Purification of Mary, which was required by the Mosaic Law forty days after the birth of a child.

The Church celebrates the feast of the Presentation of the Lord on February 2, also called Candlemas for the custom of using lighted candles. Blessed candles will be available to take home with you after the Mass on Feb. 2 at Immaculate Heart/St. Michael's.

In the early Church it was often celebrated on February 14th, 40 days after the Epiphany, in keeping with the practice of celebrating Christmas on that date in the East. Among the Orthodox it is known as the Hypapante ("Meeting" of the Lord with Simeon).

JEREMIAH DAY

Saturday, February 10 from 10:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m. The story of the prophet Jeremiah tells us that it is never too early to think about God's plan for us. This is a day for young men (grades 8 to 12) to grow closer to God and to visit our seminary. The activities include a tour of St. Peter's Seminary, Mass, lunch, time for prayer and an indoor sports activity in the afternoon. To register visit www.dolpriest.ca/jeremiah-day

CALLED BY NAME

Called By Name is a program that invites men, 18 years of age or older, to consider priesthood. At the heart of this program is the belief that all of us share a common calling through Baptism, to which we are invited to respond in a variety of ways – marriage, single life, consecrated life and priesthood. The CALLED BY NAME process focuses on priesthood, and stresses the role of the Catholic Christian community in calling forth men to consider this vocation. Parishioners throughout the diocese are encouraged to consider who in our midst might serve well as a priest and submit their names at this weekend liturgies and February 3/4, 2024. There are many good prospective priests who are simply waiting to be asked. Forms can be found at the Welcome Desk at OLPH and at the back of the Church at St. Michael's.

LENT BLESSING JARS

This is an idea for the whole family to get involved in! Or for a single person too! During Lent let us say thank you to God for His blessings and we can see how God has blessed us! Take one of our Blessings jars home with you. Take the pieces of paper provided by us and put them by the jar with some pens or pencils. Put the jar somewhere accessible to everybody at any time - like the kitchen table. When something good happens or someone has been kind to you, write it on a slip of paper and put it in the jar. Bring your filled jars back on Holy Thursday. On Easter Sunday we will have your Lenten Blessings on display within the Easter decorations in the Church. The Blessing Jars will be available at Immaculate Heart, St. Michael & OLPH on Ash Wednesday, February 14.
