To Everything there is a season... "a time to be healed..."

For our parishioners who are sick, in the hospital or awaiting surgery.

There is "a time for everything under Heaven...."

Pope's Prayer Intentions for August: For mutual coexistence: Let us pray that societies where coexistence seems more difficult might not succumb to the temptation of confrontation for ethnic, political, religious, or ideological reasons.

Gospel Background: Luke 12:32-48

You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come.

Jesus' instructions on how to be ready for the coming judgment continue in the stories and sayings found in today's Gospel. We are not to be like the greedy rich man in last Sunday's Gospel who planned to store his great harvest in barns rather than share it. We are, rather, to share our wealth with those in need. The antidote for the anxiety brought on by the coming judgment is to relinquish our possessions and provide for the needs of others. Our treasure will be in heaven where it will not wear out or be destroyed.

The other major way to be ready for the coming judgment is to be watchful. In Luke's Gospel, Jesus tells a parable about watchfulness to begin making this point. We must be like servants waiting for the master's return from a wedding banquet, which, even now, can last for a few days in the Middle East. We must be watchful so that even if the master comes after midnight, we will be ready for him. This is what the coming of the Son of Man will be like.

Peter asks if this parable is meant for the apostles or for the large crowd that has gathered to listen to Jesus. Without answering Peter's question, Jesus responds with another parable about servants awaiting the return of their master. It begins with a question: "Who, then, is the faithful and prudent steward whom the master will put in charge of his servants to distribute the food allowance at the proper time?" This parable adds to the theme of watchfulness; it explains how to wait and reminds us of the reward for the faithful follower at the heavenly banquet after the judgment. If it is addressed to the apostles, then it could also be addressed to leadership in the early Church. Either way, the parables reminds us that we should be found doing our jobs when the master arrives. If we are doing our jobs, our reward will be great. But if we relax, neglect our duties, and begin to act like the greedy rich man—eating, drinking, and making merry—we will not have a place in the kingdom. Watchfulness means living in such a consistently moral and obedient way that we are always ready to give an account to God of how we have lived.

JUBILEE PILGRIMAGE

Sunday, September 21, 2025

OUR PILGRIMAGE OF HOPE

Start our walk at OLPH Church, journey onto St. Michael's Church. Continue our journey to Holy Trinity Church and arrive at St. Francis of Assisi Church for Mass.

MORE INFORMATION COMING SOON

Join us for a sacred and inspiring journey as we walk in faith uniting all parishes in a shared pilgrimage of prayer, reflecting together as one, and a shared community.

The anticipated plan is that if you would like to join us for the whole pilgrimage (walk from OLPH, to St. Michael's, to Holy Trinity and end at St. Francis of Assisi) that we would ask you to RSVP on our website to reserve your seat on our mode of transportation (hopefully a bus). You would park your car at St. Francis of Assisi and the bus would leave at two designated times to OLPH. A presentation will take place at OLPH with our pilgrims leaving as a group to walk on the sidewalks to St. Michael's. At St. Michael's there would be a talk given by Fr. Glen and we will then be offered to take a symbol with us as we continue on our walk on the sidewalks to Holy Trinity.

When we arrive at Holy Trinity we will be led in some formal prayers (Divine Mercy & others). At this time we may leave our symbol at Holy Trinity or chose to carry it with you to St. Francis of Assisi. We will continue our pilgrimage of HOPE on the sidewalks to St. Francis of Assisi where we would end our pilgrimage with a Mass led by St. Francis of Assisi parish. If you chose not to walk you may drive your car from Church to Church or car pool.

Would you like to help us plan our Jubilee Pilgrimage for Sunday September 21? Email Christine at ctoffolon@dol.ca and let her know. A planning meeting will be held soon.
