ADORATION

Confessions

CONFESSIONS FROM 5:00 - 5:45 PM.

Mass at 6:00 pm.

Gospel Background: John 3:13-17

As Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of man be lifted up, so that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.

In John's Gospel, Jesus' death on the cross as well as his resurrection and return to the Father are one event. For him, the cross is a sign of exaltation. The serpent that Moses lifted up in the desert to offer healing to those injured by snake bites prefigures Jesus' being lifted up on the cross, bringing salvation.

The eternal life God offers through Jesus is not life without end but life lived in the unending presence of God. That is why it can begin now in this life. The world to which God sends the Son is not a place but those people who are at odds with Jesus and God. Jesus is sent to this world as a gift. Only believers accept the gift.

Finally, God's judgment on the world is not a future cosmic event but a present reality. God sent the Son out of love for the world. However, the world has to decide to accept him. Those who accept him have eternal life at the moment of the decision. Those who reject him don't. * From Loyolapress.com

REFLECTION FOR THE EXALTATION OF THE HOLY CROSS

The cross is today the universal image of Christian belief. Countless generations of artists have turned it into a thing of beauty to be carried in procession or worn as jewelry. To the eyes of the first Christians, it had no beauty. It stood outside too many city walls, decorated only with decaying corpses, as a threat to anyone who defied Rome's authority—including Christians who refused sacrifice to Roman gods. Although believers spoke of the cross as the instrument of salvation, it seldom appeared in Christian art unless disguised as an anchor or the Chi-Rho until after Constantine's edict of toleration. *from <https://www.franciscanmedia.org/saint-of-the-day/exaltation-of-the-holy-cross/>

LAUDATO SI': CHAPTER THREE - THE HUMAN ROOTS OF THE ECOLOGICAL CRISIS

As we continue to celebrate the 10th anniversary of the encyclical letter Laudato Si', we examine The Human Roots of the Ecological Crisis. This month's Laudato Si' Action Plan offered a summary of the 'globalization of the technocratic paradigm.' We live in a culture deeply characterized and shaped by technology which has its pros and cons. This month's summary examines this technological paradigm.
