Gospel Background: Matthew 3:1-12

John the Baptist appears in Judea preaching a message of repentance.

In this week's Gospel Reading and next week's, our Advent preparation for Christmas invites us to consider John the Baptist and his relationship to Jesus. In this week's Gospel, Matthew describes the work and preaching of John the Baptist. John the Baptist appears in the tradition of the great prophets of Israel, preaching repentance and reform to the people of Israel. In fact, the description of John found in this reading is reminiscent of the description of the prophet Elijah (2 Kings 1:8). In this reading, John directs a particularly pointed call to repentance to the Pharisees and Sadducees, parties within the Jewish community of the first century. John marks the conversion of those who seek him out with a baptism of repentance. Other groups in this period are thought to have practiced ritual washings for similar purposes, and John's baptism may have been related to the practices of the Essenes, a Jewish sect of the first century. John's baptism can be understood as an anticipation of Christian baptism. In this passage, John himself alludes to the difference between his baptism and the one yet to come: "I am baptizing you with water, for repentance. . . He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire." (Matthew 3:11). In this reading, John makes very clear that his relationship to the Messiah yet to come (Jesus) is one of service and subservience: ". . . the one who is coming after me is mightier than I. I am not worthy to carry his sandals" (Matthew 3:11). In the context of Matthew's Gospel, today's passage is followed by Jesus' baptism by John, an event that is attested to in all four of the Gospels and appears to have been the start of Jesus' public ministry.

John's preaching of the coming of the Lord is a key theme of the Advent season. As John's message prepared the way for Jesus in the first century, we, too, are called to prepare ourselves for Jesus' coming. We respond to John's message by our repentance and reform of our lives. We are also called to be prophets of Christ, who announce by our lives, as John did, the coming of the Lord. *from <https://www.loyolapress.com/catholic-resources/liturgical-year/sunday-connection/>

THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION—DECEMBER 8

On Monday, Dec. 8 we will be celebrating the Immaculate Conception of Our Blessed Mother. The words "Immaculate Conception" mean that she had no sin on her soul, not even original sin, from the first moment her life began! Why do you think God saved Mary from all sin? He wanted her to be the perfect mother for His Son Jesus. If you could make your own mother perfect, wouldn't you? Mary is also a model to all people of how to live a good Christian life and to serve God as best we can. We should thank God for giving us such a beautiful example in His holy Mother. We should pray to Mary every day and ask her to help us love her Son Jesus more. On Monday, on our Lady's Feast day, say an extra 'Hail Mary.' www.thekidsbulletin.com

GIVING TREE IMMACULATE HEART

- 2 SHOP FOR THE CHILD ON THE TAG

IMMACULATE HEART GIVING TREE

Did you know that the request for baskets and children's gifts are sent to us by our feeder schools? This allows us to ask for a gift for a particular age and gender. The total number of tags out on the tree is based on the total number of children in our program.

- Only new unwrapped gifts
 - No clothing
 - Please consider supplying batteries if the gift requires them
 - While it is thoughtful and generous to include some sort of candy or treat, we ask that you refrain as some children have food allergies
 - If donating a "gift card" please leave it on the usher's bench in a sealed envelope with the tag inside, and mark it giving tree
- Returning the gift with the tag attached and by the return date as specified, are the most important parts of the program. We hope these guidelines have answered some of your questions. The Immaculate Heart CWL members thank you in advance for all your support this Christmas. God Bless all of you.

Did you know - in 1531 the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to an Aztec man Juan Diego in Tepeyac, Mexico. She appeared as "mestiza" - of mixed Indigenous and European features, which helped reconcile the Spanish and native peoples. When the bishop asked Juan for proof of her appearing, he gathered roses (not in season) and wrapped them in his cloak (tilma). When he opened his cloak to show the bishop, a miraculous image of Mary appeared on it, which can be seen to this day. Pope Saint John Paul II wrote that we find in the mestiza face of Our Lady of Guadalupe "a model of a perfectly enculturated evangelization."
