Pope's Prayer Intentions for March: For disarmament and peace: Let us that nations move towards effective disarmament, particularly nuclear disarmament, and that world leaders choose the path of dialogue and diplomacy instead of violence.

Gospel Background: Matthew 26:14—27:66

Jesus is crucified, and his body is placed in the tomb. (shorter form: Matthew 27:11-54)

Today we begin Holy Week, the days during which we journey with Jesus on his way of the cross and anticipate his Resurrection on Easter. Today's liturgy begins with the procession with palms to remind us of Jesus' triumphant entrance into Jerusalem.

The events of Jesus' Passion are proclaimed in their entirety in today's Liturgy of the Word. Those events will be proclaimed again when we celebrate the liturgies of the Triduum—Holy Thursday's Mass of the Lord's Supper, the Good Friday of the Lord's Passion, and the Easter Vigil. In communities that celebrate the Sacraments of Initiation with catechumens, these liturgies take on special importance because they invite the catechumens and the community to enter together into the central mysteries of our faith. These days are indeed profound and holy.

In Cycle A, we read the Passion of Jesus as found in the Gospel of Matthew on Palm, or Passion, Sunday. (On Good Friday, we will read the Passion of Jesus from the Gospel of John). The story of Jesus' Passion and death in Matthew's Gospel focuses particularly on the obedience of Jesus to the will of his Father. As Jesus sends his disciples to prepare for Passover, he indicates that the events to come are the will of the Father (Matthew 26:18). In Jesus' prayer in the garden, he prays three times to the Father to take away the cup of suffering, but each time, Jesus concludes by affirming his obedience to the Father's will (Matthew 26:39-44). Even Matthew's description of Jesus' death shows Jesus' obedience to the Father.

Another theme of Matthew's Gospel is to show Jesus as the fulfillment of Scripture. Throughout the Passion narrative, Matthew cites and alludes to Scripture to show that the events of Jesus' Passion and death are in accordance with all that was foretold. And if the events were foretold, then God is in control. In addition, Matthew is particularly concerned that the reader does not miss the fact that Jesus is the Suffering Servant of the Old Testament.

Jesus acts in obedience to the Father even in death, so that sins may be forgiven. Matthew makes this clear in the story of the Lord's Supper. As Jesus blesses the chalice, he says: "... for this is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed on behalf of many for the forgiveness of sins." (Matthew 26:28)

While the Gospels of Matthew and Mark have many parallels in their narrative of the Passion, there are a few details worth noting that are unique to Matthew. Only Matthew indicates the price paid to Judas for betraying Jesus. The story of Judas's death is also found only in Matthew, as is the detail that Pilate's wife received a warning in a dream and that Pilate washed his hands of Jesus' death. Finally, Matthew's Gospel alone mentions the earthquakes and other phenomena that happened after Jesus' death.

Matthew places the responsibility for Jesus' death on the Sanhedrin, the chief priests and elders who were responsible for the Temple. However, the animosity that those Jewish leaders and the Jewish people demonstrate toward Jesus is not to be interpreted in ways that blame the Jewish people for Jesus' death.

Throughout Matthew's Gospel, the narrative reflects the tension that probably existed between the early Christian community and their Jewish contemporaries. At the Second Vatican Council, the Council Fathers made clear that all sinners share responsibility for the suffering and death of Jesus and that it is wrong to place blame for Jesus' Passion on the Jewish contemporaries of Jesus or on Jewish people today.

There are many vantage points from which to engage in Jesus' Passion. In the characters of Matthew's Gospel, we find reflections of ourselves and the many ways in which we sometimes respond to Jesus. Sometimes we are like Judas, who betrays Jesus and comes to regret it. We are sometimes like Peter, who denies him, or like the disciples, who fell asleep during Jesus' darkest hour but then act rashly and violently at his arrest. Sometimes we are like Simon, who is pressed into service to help Jesus carry his cross. Sometimes we are like the leaders who fear Jesus or like Pontius Pilate, who washed his hands of the whole affair. Jesus dies so that our sins will be forgiven.

The events of Jesus' Passion, death, and Resurrection are called the Paschal Mystery. No amount of study will exhaust or explain the depth of love that Jesus showed in offering this sacrifice for us. After we have examined and studied the stories we have received about these events, we are left with one final task—to meditate on these events and on the forgiveness that Jesus' obedience won for us.* from https://

God has a plan just for you. It does not matter who you are. It does not matter where you live, how smart you are or whether you are good at sports or music. You only need to love him, trust him, and say yes to him. Through prayer and the sacraments he will give you the grace you need through you. God can do great things.

We are very blessed to continue to come together as a Family of Parishes and work together as one community. Our preparation classes were held at St. Michael Church. Thank you to our catechists who joined us every week to help guide the children on their journey; Ava Au, Lucie Bellerive, Beth Hennessy, Theresa Lazarus, Noah Sak, Marcia Spratt, Victoria Vu, Gabriel Whited & Melissa Toffolon

Thank you to Fr. Bill for assisting Fr. Glen in hearing all their Confessions. Our journey with the children continues after Easter as they begin their preparation for their First Eucharist.

Thank you

"Dear friends,
We wish to offer our heartfelt thanks to all who came and contributed to our beautiful closing mass for Madonna House. How touched we were that so many people took the time to be with us and celebrate our many years in Windsor. We especially want to thank the Immaculate Heart CWL for all their hard work in preparing food and being of service at the reception; we couldn't have done it without you! Please know that we carry you all in our hearts and prayers and wish everyone a joyous Easter, soon to come. I (Maureen), will be moving into Devonshire Retirement Residence sometime late May, and will have the same phone number (519-252-9236) and e-mail (mhwindsor@dol.ca) should anyone wish to contact me there."

In Christ,
Maureen and Lisa

FEAST & MEMORIAL DAYS

There are no special Feast or Memorial days this week. However we encourage you to pray and to look up to the many Saints who are with us as we continue our Lenten journey.

The Mother Teresa K of C Council will be hosting a HOLY HOUR on Good Friday, April 3 at St. Michael's and Our Lady of Perpetual Help from 2—3 pm. This is NOT Adoration of the Eucharist. It is a time where you can come and sit in the Church in silence for an hour.

THE GOOD FRIDAY COLLECTION is requested by the Holy See to help maintain the Church's holy places in the Holy Land, so important to the faith of Christians everywhere, and also to support the faithful who struggle to survive under political and economic oppression and persecution. The Pontifical Collection will be taken at the Good Friday services. Those who are unavailable to attend or prefer to donate online, may do so through our parishes by interac e-transfer (olph@dol.ca or shewindsor@dol.ca), or CanadaHelps by visiting www.commissariat.ca/supporting-us (envelopes are in your offertory boxes)

BINGO & GAMING—OLPH CHURCH

Our next assigned session at the All Star Gaming Centre on Walker Rd. is Tuesday, April 7 from 4:00 - 6:00 pm. Would you like to volunteer for our bingo assignments? We are hoping that starting in April we will be returning back to receiving monthly assignments. There is an online training that needs to be completed. Our sessions are only two hours each and you do not take in the money at the sessions. Your "job" is more like a host(ess)— a welcoming committee. Please email Christine if you are interested.

DIOCESAN PASTORAL COUNCIL

In 2022, Bishop Fabbro re-established the Diocesan Pastoral Council. It is a consultative body made up of mostly Lay Faithful and representatives of the Religious in the Diocese as well as deacons and priests. They act as an advisory council for the Bishop. The members of the Council identify pastoral needs, and with study, prayer, discernment, and dialogue, they present possible recommendations for the Bishop to consider. With the term of office ending for some current members, we are seeking new members, one representative from each deanery, who will be appointed to the Council and will join in September 2026. In the coming months, the Diocese will host a series of recruitment meetings for those who may be interested in joining the Council. Please prayerfully consider attending one of the following meetings to get more information and how to submit your name (or another person) for consideration. Please keep this initiative in your prayers as the Church continues to respond to Pope Leo's first words from the balcony of St. Peter's Basilica, "We must seek together how to be a missionary Church." He reminds us to carry forward his predecessor's hallmark initiative, to engage each other in synodality, and to give a more prominent voice to the laity in future pastoral directions for our Diocese. Dates for the meetings are scheduled to be held in the evening in each deanery.

Our deanery meeting is on April 14, 2026, at Most Precious Blood, Windsor. The meeting starts at 7pm.
