Gospel Background— Matthew 11:25-30

Jesus prays in thanks to God, who has revealed himself to the lowly.

Today's reading from Matthew's Gospel comes after a discourse in which Jesus reproaches people who have witnessed his mighty deeds yet still lack belief. In this context, today's Gospel explains the reason for this unbelief and reveals what is necessary for faith. Today's Gospel did.

Jesus first prays God who has recent readings who are wise and keeps company. The second part has made himself life and in his In the concluding also continues to enhance our understanding of discipleship as last week's Gospel in thanksgiving to God who has made himself known to Jesus' disciples. He praises made himself known to the "little ones" and not to the wise and learned. As in other from Matthew's Gospel, a contrast is made here between the unbelieving Pharisees, learned, and the faithful disciples, tax collectors, and sinners with whom Jesus of this reading calls to our attention the unity between the Father and the Son. God known through Jesus, and in knowing Jesus, we come to know the Father. In Jesus' person, God reveals himself to us.

sentences of today's Gospel, Jesus' teaching is again contrasted to the teaching of between the Pharisees and the community of Christians for whom Matthew wrote. Pharisaic Judaism became the predominant form of Judaism after the destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem about 70 A.D. Here that tension is expressed as alternative paths of holiness. The careful observance of the Mosaic law taught by the Pharisees could be experienced by some as difficult and burdensome. In contrast, Jesus' way of holiness is presented as uncomplicated and even restful.

FREE MULCH

We are looking for someone with a pick up truck or trailer who could pick up mulch and drop it off at the Church for us.

On behalf of the organizing committee of the MARCH FOR JESUS PARADE, it is our privilege to extend a formal invitation to your church congregation to participate in the March For Jesus Parade.

This special event will bring together churches from across our community in a united public expression of faith, worship, prayer, and thanksgiving. Our desire is to see the body of Christ stand together in fellowship and boldly proclaim the hope, love, and saving grace of Jesus Christ throughout our city.

In addition to church members, we encourage congregations to invite friends, family, neighbours, and others in the wider community who may not yet know Christ. The parade presents a unique outreach opportunity to share the Gospel, demonstrate Christian unity, and extend God's love to all people.
